GLORIOUS SUNRISE GREETS WORSHIPPERS

The sun rose in splendor on a beautiful, clear Easter Sunday as many Marinites flocked to sunrise services celebrating the resurrection of Christ. This was the scene at Cushing Memorial Amphitheater, high on Mount Tamalpais, where services were sponsored by the 666th Radar Squadron and Mill Valley churches. (Air Force photo)

HEAT WAVE ON SCHEDULE

April Sizzler Hits Marin

Marin's first-of-April heat wave hit on schedule during the weekend and continued today, but the forecast was for slightly cooler weather tomorrow.

The temperature climbed to 86 yesterday at the San Anselmo main firehouse and 85 at the San Rafael City Hall. The noon temperature in San Rafael today was 80, promising a repeat of yesterday's high.

The county firehouse at Woodacre recorded a high of 84 yesterday and at the main Novato firehouse the maximum was 83. Mill Valley, Belvedere and Terra Linda all had 80-degree maximums.

Saturday's top readings included 86 in San Anselmo and 82 at Woodacre—and no April fooling.

Such temperatures during the first week in April are scarcely unexpected, though. Record at the San Anselmo firehouse show that last year the mercury climbed to 88 on April 2 and to 92 on April 4. The year previous, the April 2 high was 85.

San Francisco had a top official temperature of 79 yesterday. The warmth enclosed the whole Bay Area, with Redwood City reported a high reading of 83.

The forecast: Cooler tomorrow with fog near coast.

First Catholic Parish Planned In Terra Linda

Creation of a new Catholic parish in Terra Linda was announced at Easter Sunday services of St. Raphael's Catholic Parish.

The new parish is to be known as St. Isabella's. Its priest will be Rev. E. J. Dingberg, who has been serving as a San Quentin Prison chaplain with residence at St. Raphael's.

Father Dingberg's appointment is effective next Sunday. He said today it is planned to hold services temporarily at St. Vincent's School for Boys, and to make his residence and headquarters at Blessed Sacrament Catholic Parish house in Santa Venetia. Another priest will be appointed to assist Rev. John Mullen, senior Catholic chaplain at the prison.

Father Dingberg said it will not be possible to hold services for the new parish next Sunday, but "we will try to have

State Asks Death For Finch, Carole

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A prosecutor today urged a jury to send Dr. R. Bernard Finch and Carole Tregoff to the gas chamber for the slaying of Finch's wife.

The defendants sat glum, staring at their hands, as Deputy Dist. Atty. Joe Powers, speaking calmly and deliberately, opened the climactic day of three trials.

A crowd of more than 300, like the ones that marked their first trial, gathered for the jury's decision of the couple's punishment: Death or life imprisonment.

More than 200 spectators lined the corridor, unable to get into the 92-seat courtroom. After hearing arguments pro and con, the jury was to decide on sentences.

"The only question before you now," Powers told the jury, "is this: 'Is this a proper case for the death penalty?' The people say it is."

The redhaired ex-model, convicted with her physician lover of murdering Barbara Jean Finch nearly two years ago, appeared in court more than an hour ahead of time. Her eyes were swollen and she dabbed away tears with her handkerchief while flashbulbs popped.

The once prominent suburban surgeon was led into the courtroom just before the judge arrived. Finch stood and looked at the 24-year-old woman with whom he admitted an illicit love affair.

"How are you, dear?" he asked.

"So so," Miss Tregoff said, staring at the floor.

Superior Court Judge David Coleman instructed the jury:

"It is your duty to consider all the evidence of the case and the verdict must reflect the opinion of each individual juror."

Marin Children Enjoy Three Egg Scrambles

There were Easter egg hunts of some sort in virtually every Marin household with children yesterday, but for real big-time excitment there were mammoth ones Saturday in Novato and yesterday in San Rafael's Albert Field and at Sabella's Restaurant in Alto.

At the sound of the noon fire whistle Saturday, more than 1,000 youngsters started searching for Easter eggs placed by Novato volunteer firemen.

THREE WINNERS

Timmy Basehart, 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Basehart, 1663 Novato Boulevard; Timmy Hoppe, 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry F. Hoppe, 1201 Lynwood Drive, and Bradley Sewell, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sewell, 40 Ormond Court, won baskets of Easter goodies for finding the most eggs.

Firemen were kept busy finding lost children and trying to keep parents on the sidelines and out of the hunt. Volunteer firemen cooked and colored 2,160 eggs for the annual hunt at the old Patterson Ranch on Grant Avenue.

About 500 youngsters —toddlers up to 12 years — searched for 150 dozen eggs hidden in Albert Park yesterday.

'ONE OF BEST'

It was the eighth anual Easter egg hunt sponsored by the San Rafael 20-30 Club, and "one of the best," said president Don Miller.

Four separate hunts were held for different age groups, and prizes awarded to finders of lucky eggs.

Fifteen children participated in a "crazy hat" contest, and prizes went to the craziest, prettiest and most unusual hats. Games and races followed the egg hunt. Every child received an Easter basket with candy.

Members of the Key Club of San Rafael High School helped organize the activities. Prizes were donated by local merchants.

They had both scrambled eggs and scrambles for eggs at Sabella's restaurant yesterday.

Everybody was happy but the management as a record throng of 700, including more than 300 lively youngsters, turned out for the fourth annual Sabella Easter Egg Hunt and brunch. Only 300 reservations had been made.

"Our service was far from up to par," lamented owner Angelo Sabella, "but what are

U.N. Approves Dag's Congo Fiscal Powers

Stopgap Resolution Passed Despite Soviet Opposition

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. General Assembly today overrode bitter Soviet opposition and approved a temporary extension of Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold's Congo spending powers.

The vote on the stopgap resolution was 51-10 with 22 abstentions. The negative votes were cast by the Soviet bloc and Mali.

CHALLENGES LEGALITY

Soviet delegate A. A. Roshchin challenged the legality of the assembly's action. He said the United Nations is carrying out the Congo operation in the interest of the colonial powers and is pushing itself into bankruptcy by actions which violate the U.N. charter.

"From top to bottom," Roshchin said, "the operation has been guided by the colonial powers."

The resolution authorizes Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold to go on spending eight million dollars a month on the military and civilian operations in the African territory up to April 21, closing date of the assembly session.

RAN OUT FRIDAY

Hammarskjold's previous three-month spending authorization ran out Friday night, the day after the budgetary committee approved the Indian resolution 38-9 with 23 abstentions.

The temporary authorization to Hammarskjold gives the budget committee more time to seek a way of financing the U.N. Congo force and attached civilian employees through 1961.

Eighteen Latin-American countries are submitting a financing plan to the committee calling for the five permanent members of the Security Council—the United States, Britain, France, the Soviet Union and Nationalist China—to pay 70 per cent of the Congo operation. Countries whose public and private investment in the Congo exceeds one million dollars each would pay 25 per cent. The other 5 per cent of the 120-million-dollar cost estimated for 1961 would be divided among all other U.N. members.

Kennedy To Visit DeGaulle In Paris

Wife Will Go With President

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President John F. Kennedy will fly to Paris May 31 for three days of talks with French President Charles de Gaulle.

Announcing this today, the president's vacation headquarters said he will be accompanied by his wife, Jacqueline.

In reply to questions, White House press secretary Pierre Salinger told a news conference that at this time he knows of no plans for Kennedy to visit other European capitals in connection with the Paris trip.

FIRST TRIP

The Paris visit will be Kennedy's first trip abroad as president. He will go to Canada in advance of going to France.

Plans for a trip to Ottawa to address the Canadian Parliament were announced earlier. Indications now are that Kennedy will go to Ottawa perhaps two weeks before visiting Paris.

Kennedy plans to leave for Paris by jet plane, probably on the night of May 30. He will leave Washington May 29 to attend a "Salute to Kennedy" dinner in Boston marking his 44th birthday, then go on to New York the next day for a dinner being given to raise funds to fight cancer.

NEVER MET

Kennedy's talks with de Gaulle, whom he has never met, will complete a round of conversations with the Big Three leaders of Western Europe.

The president met eight days ago at Key West, Fla., with Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan for discussion of the Laos crisis. They will resume their talks on this and

ST. PAUL NEEDS BOTTLE; HOSPITAL MEETS CRISIS

A woman dashed into the emergency room at San Rafael General Hospital yesterday morning and demanded, "Can we buy a baby bottle? We want to feed St. Paul!"

Mrs. Mary Clark, emergency room nurse, looked wildly out the window in the direction indicated by her caller and saw "St. Paul"—a baby lamb in the back seat of a waiting car.

He was emitting a brisk series of "baa! baa!" outcries indicating that the emergency was real.

That is how it happened that 8 a.m. hospital arrivals were amazed to see a nurse standing on the hospital's front steps, feeding a tiny but eager lamb from a bottle.

"It was a real emergency," she explained later. "That woman was a former patient (Mrs. William L. Ziegler of 1185 Butterfield Road in Sleepy Hollow) and somebody had given her a lamb for an Easter present, and she had a formula but no bottle and the drugstores were all closed Easter morning."

Fast progress was being made by St. Paul, according to reports from the Ziegler home later in the day.

"He's out eating grass now," said Zeigler. "From the looks of it I won't have to mow our lawn for a while."

Man With Record Of 70 Burglaries Nabbed Here

A man who admitted 70 burglaries in the Livermore area was arrested last night in San Anselmo attempting to enter the Tanner Medical Center at 190 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

Arrested was Charles Claude Cox, 38, who gives no address. He was to stand trial in Oakland tomorrow for four counts of burglary, said San Anselmo Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani. He was free on $2,600 bail from Alameda County Jail at the time of the arrest.

Officer Andy Grimes of San Anselmo police, making a routine investigation of the area at 9:45 p.m., "heard clicking sounds" coming from the rear of the medical center. He went to the back of the building and saw Cox walking toward him, putting something in his back pocket as he did so.

Cox told the officer he lived across the street. He said two men were attempting to break into the medical center. Grimes then grabbed Cox, spun him around and saw that the object which Cox had put into his back pocket was a pry bar.

As Cox was being arrested at gun-point, he appeared to collapse on three occasions and was helped to his feet by Grimes. During the questioning of Cox after the arrest, he admitted faking the passing-out spells, in an attempt to catch Grimes off guard, Chief Buchignani reported.

In Cox's possession were two pen-light flashlights and batteries, a pocket knife, a skeleton key, a magnifying glass, two screw drivers, the pry bar and a pair of gloves which he was wearing at the time of the arrest.

After Cox's arrest, police found two other businesses near the medical center on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard had been broken into: the R. G. Fontana Printing Co. at 316 Sir Francis Drake and the W. J. Murray Real Estate office at 198 Sir Francis Drake.

The rear doors of both had been broken and papers were strewn throughout both offices. Apparently nothing was stolen from the offices, police said.

Cox was booked in the county jail and charged with burglary. His bail was to be set today.

Marin Victim Of Laos Crash Due U.S. Burial

The body of Francis P. Corrigan of Larkspur, U.S. Information Service officer killed in a plane crash in Laos, will be flown to the United States for burial, the Associated Press reported today from Bangkok, Thailand.

Corrigan, 35, who lived in Larkspur until he left for the assignment in Laos, was killed Friday when the engine failed as a plane he had chartered was taking off from a small dirt airstrip at the town of Hong Sa. The pilot and a Laotian army major with Corrigan were seriously injured, the AP reported.

Corrigan had been in charge of the U.S. Information Service branch in Luang Prabang, the royal Laotian capital, since 1957. He was en route back to Luang Prabang after a routine film delivery trip, according to the report from Bangkok.

He was believed to be the eighth American killed in plane crashes in Laos in the past two weeks. Seven military men are believed to have died March 23 when the plane of the U.S. Military attache in Vientiane was shot down over rebel-held territory. One officer reportedly parachuted but his fate is not known so far.

Corrigan's body was flown to Bangkok. His wife and two children were taken to the Thai capital in January because of the civil war in Laos. The children are an 18-month-old son, Raymond and an adopted Laotian daughter, Kathrine, 2.

Corrigan's brother, William, a Mill Valley attorney and member of the legal firm of Bagshaw, Schaal, Martinelli and Weissich in San Rafael, had left town today, leaving word at his office that he would be back late this week, but it could not be learned whether he had flown to Bangkok.

Little Burner Co. Site, Buildings To Be Auctioned

H. C. Little Burner Co.'s five-acre site, plant, buildings and surplus equipment in San Rafael will be sold at auction April 12, R. H. Ginther, vice president and general manager, said today.

Production at the heating equipment plant ended March 10. An earlier announcement of the firm's shutdown said the immediate reason was that the parent firm of Bastian-Morley Co. of La Porte, Ind., lost a water heater contract with the nationwide Crane Co.

Ginther said several sales, administrative and clerical employees had been transferred to a smaller plant in Sebastopol, Temperature and Appliance Manufacturing Co., also a subsidiary of Bastian-Morley.

Bill Passed To Ease Lobbyist Penalties

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The Assembly, by a 62-15 vote, today approved a lobby control bill that would wipe out stiff penalties placed in the law after the Artie Samish scandals of 10 years ago.

In place of the current maximum penalty of a year in prison and a $5,000 fine, and a three-year ban on lobbying activities, the bill provides merely for a fine of not more than $1,000.

KENNEDYS LEAVE CHURCH—President and Mrs. John F. Kennedy, each carrying a missal, leave St. Edward's Catholic Church in Palm Beach yesterday after attending Easter services. The first family is spending the holidays at Palm Beach. (AP Wirephoto)

Strict Security Guard Placed On Kennedys

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy and his family remained under tight protective security today—the last full day of their Easter visit to Florida.

The extra heavy security precautions, due to kidnap and murder threats against the first family by pro-Castro Cubans in the area, will continue until the president, his wife and their two children fly back to Washington tomorrow afternoon.

Seldom have a president and his wife been more heavily protected in peacetime than the Kennedy's were yesterday when they attended Easter Mass at St. Edward's Roman Catholic Church here. The number of Secret Service agents in and around the church was about twice the normal complement. They also were augmented by state and local police.

Once the Kennedys are back in the well-organized safety of the White House, the current federal investigation of the recently reported threats may take a different direction.

Until this morning, authorities have kept prime suspects under surveillance, particularly to see that four or more Cubans in the Palm Beach area do not slip away to Havana. Of the four Cubans principally involved, one has been described as part of an intelligence relay system between south Florida and the Castro government.

Once the presidential family has left the area and calmer conditions permit a switch of manpower from protection to investigation, efforts are expected to determine more extensively the background of Cubans to whom the kidnap and murder threats have been traced.

Summery weather ideal for sightseeing and current publicity about kidnap threats directed at 3-year-old Caroline Kennedy, daughter of the president, produced a heavy flow of tourists yesterday past the home of the chief executive's father, former Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy.

About a thousand persons gathered in the vicinity of the church when Kennedy and his wife, Jacqueline, chic in a new blue ensemble of shantung silk with matching pillbox hat of blue straw, arrived for 10 a.m. High Mass.

A avoid possible danger in the crowd packed around the front of the church, Secret Service agents led the Kennedys through a side door of the church. The president sat across the church from his normal pew and Secret Service agents stood in the aisle beside him, an unusual security measure taken because of many standees at the Mass.

Easter Services Draw Millions

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Easter services drew millions of American Christians to the nation's churches and traditional shrines and reached countless others over coast-to-coast broadcasts.

Generally clear and cold weather, marked here and there by weekend snow, greeted worshippers at sunrise services. An estimated 20,000 persons filled the Hollywood Bowl at dawn and 30,000 attended sunrise services in the nation's capital.

More than 6,000 persons braved a four-inch snowfall and subfreezing temperatures to attend early services at the Cathedral in the Pines at Rindge, N. H., where crews worked four hours during the night clearing roads and parking lots at the non-denominational memorial to America's war dead.

At Bar Harbor, Me., sunrise services were held indoors when snow and sleet forced cancellation of services atop Mount Cadillac. Easter celebrants used skiers' chair lifts to reach services in three to four inches of snow on 4,393-foot Mount Mansfield at Stowe, Vt.

Young pacifists pleaded for disarament in parades in New York during services in the city's packed churches. More than 100 members of the Society of Friends assembled at sunrise in Times Square to pray for peace in the Quaker tradition.

At Memphis, Tenn., several persons were injured when a temporary bleachers collapsed beneath more than 350 worshippers at Memorial Park Cemetery.

Sunrise services atop Bald Knob Mountain in southern Illinois drew about 1,500 persons, including 19 families who camped overnight beneath a towering 111-foot cross.

In Chicago, worshippers flocked to dawn services in the city's new Lakefront Exposition Hall and at Arlington Park Race Track. Temperatures hovered in the high 20s.

Majestic outdoor settings surrounded Easter services in nearly every state. An estimated 10,000 persons gathered at sunrise at Red Rocks Park west of Denver. More than 1,500 worshipped at the Garden of the Gods near Colorado Springs. The Lakewood Riding Glub of Denver held mounted services with several hundred spectators at the Jefferson County Fairgrounds.

Atop 11,300-foot Ajax Mountain near Aspen, Colo., services were held for 200 persons who rode a three-mile sky lift in windy weather.

About 6,000 persons attended the 50th sunrise service on Mount Rubidoux at Riverside, and 5,000 worshipped in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena.

Rites In Holy Land

JERUSALEM (UPI)—The holiest shrines of Christendom were bathed with Easter warmth and harmony yesterday as sunshine conquered a week of rain and cold.

Ten thousand pilgrims in the old walled city of Jerusalem and the native Christians doffed their raincoats and scarves to celebrate the resurrection of Christ by visiting the shrines of his passion, death and resurrection.

Easter Exodus

BERLIN (UPI)—The Easter weekend saw a massive exodus of refugees crossing to freedom from Communist oppression in East Germany.

Refugee officials predicted the flow would continue Easter Monday, a holiday in Germany. They said the total number of refugees since Good Friday probably would reach 7,000—which is more than twice the number registered here in an average week.

Blustery Parade

It was chilly, it was windy and it even snowed for a few minutes, but an estimated 700,000 persons turned up to show off their spring finery, or to watch bundled in overcoats.

The Easter parade crowd was the second smallest in recent years, exceeding only the thin march in 1958, when it rained. Record turnout, in 1955, was two million.

300,000 Hear Pope

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—Pope John XXIII yesterday addressed a crowd of more than 300,000 persons gathered in cobblestone square in front of St. Peter's Cathedral.

The pontiff, wearing the jewel-encrusted triple crown of his office, said the happy religious feast of Easter tempered the distress he felt at the state of the world and the "terrifying actions of a great number of men."

Cardinal Defies Reds

WARSAW (UPI)—Stefan Cardinal Wyszynski, in his Easter message to the congregation at St. John's Cathedral, said persons trying to silence the Roman Catholic Church will fail.

The cardinal has recently been engaged in a bitter battle of words with Communist Party chief Wladyslaw Gomulka over the rights of the church in Poland.

Vast crowds swarmed to Warsaw's churches for Easter services.

Service Agency Seeks U.S. Funds

Marin County Family Service Agency has applied for $1,000 in federal mental health fund assistance from the state Department of Mental Hygiene.

The Marin agency's request is for psychiatric consultation to the family service agency.

Forty-three agencies in California are seeking $585,110 in all, but available funds will probably cover less than half of that amount, according to Dr. Daniel Blain, department director.

Grass, brush and forest fires, nine times out of ten, are man-caused. Be careful with fire of any kind, anywhere.

Cigarette Surprise

"Screech," went the cat inside.

Cuban Sailors Defect

HAVANA (UPI) — The entire detachment of a small navy post at Guanabo Beach — 21 sailors and an officer—were reported to have defected from the Castro regime yesterday and escaped aboard a Coast Guard vessel.

The action followed reports in Havana the government had broken up a counter-revolutionary movement by 300 naval personnel in growing opposition to the pro-Communist policies of the government. It was the fourth reported mutiny by naval officers and men.

Skunk, Stroller Fight To An Odorous Draw

A discourteous skunk blocked the way of Newton Adair Dukes of 301 G Street, San Rafael, as Dukes was taking a stroll down Robert Dollar Drive just before 8 p.m. Saturday. What was more, the skunk opened fire and scored a direct hit.

Dukes figured he had nothing to lose at that stage and began walloping the skunk with his cane. Presently the skunk lay still.

Worrying about rabies, Dukes went to San Rafael police, who assured him there was no danger if there had been no biting. They then accompanied him to have a look at the skunk body.

But the skunk had played possum and then departed. Sgt. Carl Selby believes Dukes' story, reporting "You could smell the whole area and you could smell Dukes, too."

Composer Dies After Surgery

NEW YORK (UPI) — Wallingford Riegger, 75, a ranking American classical composer, died yesterday four days after falling to the sidewalk in a freak accident when he became entangled in the leashes of two fighting dogs.

Riegger entered the hospital after the accident Thursday. He underwent brain surgery Friday.

Riegger, who had just received the 1961 Creative Arts Award of Brandeis University, composed many works which most U.S. symphonies include in their repertory.

Peiping Threatens 'Korea' Over Laos Intervention

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Red China today held a threat over the West to turn Laos into another Korea if the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization sends troops into the strife-torn Indochina kingdom.

Peiping's Foreign Minister Chen Yi, winding up a visit to Indonesia, told newsmen that if SEATO sends troops into Laos, "then China will also send troops."

Marshal Chen Yi, who commanded the Chinese Communist 3rd Army before becoming foreign minister, alluded to SEATO's warning that it was prepared to take "appropriate action" to prevent an armed Communist takeover in Laos.

The plump, balding marshal insisted "that up to now China has not taken part in the Laotian civil war."

"Remember China was compelled to participate in the Korean War only after the U.S. forces went to our border beyond the Yalu River," Chen said.

The foreign minister said Peiping's solution to the fighting between pro-Western and pro-Communist forces in Laos is to "let the Laotian people settle their differences themselves and withdraw all foreign intervention. This would insure peace and neutrality in the country."

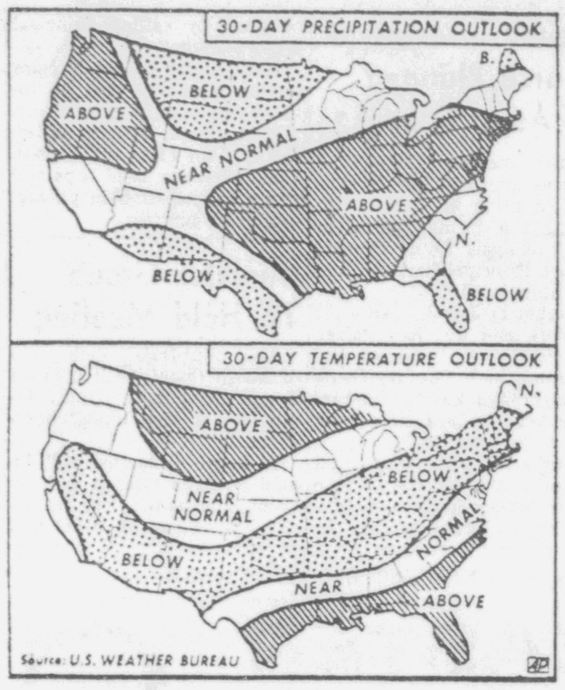

Chen Yi left before newsmen got a chance to question him about Moscow's latest proposals on Laos. But Peiping has declared a willingness to participate in the proposed 14-nation conference on the political future of Laos.

A communique on Chen Yi's talks with Indonesian President Sukarno contended that the United Nations efforts to solve world problems would be seriously weakened unless Peiping is admitted to membership in the international organization.

On Laos and the Congo, the two leaders declared: "All foreign intervention in all its forms and manifestations in these two countries should be discontinued."

Sukarno was depicted by Indonesian Foreign Minister Subandrio as a possible mediator in the bitter feud between Washington and Peiping. But Sukarno promised support for Red China's claim to Formosa in exchange for Chinese support of Indonesia's claim to Dutch New Guinea.

Subandrio said the Indonesian president during his visit to Washington later this month would be willing to discuss with President John F. Kennedy "sources of friction" between the United States and Red China and to try to resolve them.

Red Chinese To Release U.S. Captive

LONDON (UPI) — Communist China has agreed to free critically ill Robert McCann of Altadena, an American businessman serving a 15-year term for "espionage," the Communist New China news agency reported today.

The agency said McCann will leave Communist China Wednesday with his wife, who flew to China to visit him when she was told he was dying of cancer. The agency said she arrived March 28 to appeal for his release.

Lumumbist Official Plans Peace Try

LEOPOLDVILLE (AP)—In the role of mediator, a Lumumbist official who is on speaking terms with President Joseph Kasavubu's central government arranged a peace flight today to the rebel stronghold in Stanleyville.

Cleophas Kamitatu, leftist president of Leopoldville Province, said he would sound out Antoine Gizenga, head of the Stanleyville regime, about joining the confederation of Congolese states that the Congo's anti-Communist political leaders are putting together.

The U.N. Congo command agreed to give Kamitatu transportation to the rebel capital 775 miles northeast of Leopoldville, but it is not a party to any negotiations.

Gizenga, who calls himself premier of all the Congo and is recognized by the Soviet-led Communist bloc and a few African states, has snubbed previous bids to join the new confederation.

Kamitatu emphasized that he was undertaking his mission as a neutral and not as an emissary of the Kasavubu government.

Kamitatu and Gizenga were both political associates of the slain Patrice Lumumba, who had advocated a strong central government.

School Board To Discuss Expelling Boy

Whether to expel a pupil for "disturbing and obstructing education of other pupils" will be considered by Mill Valley School District trustees at their meeting at 8 o'clock tonight at Alto School.

Supt. G. Robert McConnell said a closed session with the child's parents may be held to discuss expulsion.

The board will also hear a proposal from the American Little League of Mill Valley that it develop a baseball field and playground on school site property at Eastwood and Glenwood Avenues in Tamalpais Valley.

U.S.-Supplied 'Copters Fly Mission In Laos

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI)—Five new American-supplied helicopters, assembled by U.S. Marines in neighboring Thailand, made their first supply runs today to "front line" areas of Laos.

The helicopters were among 16 given by the United States to the Laotian government to ease critical supply and communication problems faced by government forces.

They apparently flew supplies on their initial mission to hard-pressed government troops near the embattled village of Tha Thom in Xieng Khouang Province.

The helicopters arrived here from Udorn, Thailand, where they had been assembled by a contingent of U.S. Marines sent into Thailand last month to service the craft. They were piloted by Americans in civilian clothes. The five new helicopters were accompanied by four older craft which have been in use for some time in Laos.

Nuclear Weapon Foes Hold Big London Rally

LONDON (AP)—About 40,000 "ban the bomb" demonstrators assembled in a drizzle in the heart of London today for a mass rally climaxing a four-day march protesting nuclear weapons.

"We stand for sanity in a mad world," Earl Bertrand Russell, 88, philosopher and dean of the nuclear disarmament movement, told the cheering crowd. "The possibility of complete disaster remains deadly and immediate. Nuclear war in the near future is probable unless East and Western governments change their policies."

He spoke from in front of Nelson's monument in Trafalgar Square after two columns of demonstrators had limped in soggily after treks through the British countryside.

Oraganizers had hoped for a turnout exceeding the 70,000 who jammed the square last year at the end of the annual Easter march from the gates of Britain's nuclear weapons arsenal at Aldermaston, 54 miles southwest of London. But bad weather kept many away. Marchers from Aldermaston and from a U.S. base at Wethersfield converged at the square.

British Foreign Minister Will Confer With Rusk On Laos

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lord Home, the British foreign minister, arrives here tonight to start preliminary work with Secretary of State Dean Rusk on a Western reply to the Soviet Union's note on Laos.

They are expected to have a draft reply ready when Prime Minister Harold Macmillan reaches here late tomorrow afternoon for conferences with President John F. Kennedy.

U.S. officials speculated it is unlikely the reply will be delayed until the end of Macmillan's visit. The U.S. and British evaluations of the Soviet note virtually are identical.

The Soviet Union, in its note to Britain last Saturday, agreed with the British proposal to hold a 14-nation conference on the political future of Laos, but remained vague on the timing of a cease-fire, which the British, backed by the United States, proposed as a first step.

Kennedy said in a statement that he viewed the Soviet note as a "useful next step toward peaceful settlement of a potentially dangerous situation."

In Laos, fighting subsided Sunday as military sources reported no new major encounters with pro-Communist rebels. The government said Saturday the rebels were attacking three major points in eastern and southern Laos.

In Washington, officials cautioned that claims of the royal Laotian government about a large-scale rebel offensive should be considered with reservations.

Rusk and his top aides, among them Charles E. Bohlen, ranking Soviet expert, and Richard Usher, deputy director of the State Department's Southeast Asian Office, met for almost three hours yesterday.

We doubt that he could tell you himself when the dream took hold in his heart.

Yet, there the dream had been over the years—a Cadillac for his family!

He wanted it, of course, for those very virtues that have made Cadillac the most tempting possession of its time—inspiring beauty . . . masterful performance . . . and exceptional comfort and luxury.

And so it was that he found himself—in this finest of Cadillac years—getting the facts first-hand from his dealer.

And the facts quickly fashioned a remarkable truth: that the move to Cadillac is as logical as it is alluring!

The car is so soundly crafted that it has reduced maintenance to the minimum.

And a Cadillac is held in such regard that it commands a front-rank position in resale markets across the land.

What has time done to your life insurance?

Everyone knows what can happen to the performance of a car that isn't serviced regularly. The same risk of "poor performance" holds true for your life insurance if you neglect to keep it up to date. Time brings changes in your life that in turn create the need for a review of your policies. Perhaps new beneficiaries should be appointed. Perhaps the method by which benefits are to be paid, either by income or by single amount, is no longer in your family's best interest. What would a careful review of your policies reveal? That you have more than enough life insurance – or that time has brought new needs for protection and saving?

By keeping in touch with the Man from Manufacturers you can be sure your life insurance is arranged to do the job you want it to do. Why not call him for a policy "check-up" today?

BUNNY LEADS 'MAGIC CIRCLE' HOP

Children of San Rafael city employees had their own Easter Egg hunt Saturday afternoon in Boyd Park. Candy eggs for all of the children followed the hunt with special prizes being awarded finders of lucky eggs. Hopping around the "magic fairy circle" are the Easter bunny (who bore a striking resemblance to Aurora Leveroni, secretary in the city clerk's office); Debbie Mick, 9, daughter of Walter Mick, maintenance superintendent; Gary Diego, 6, son of Capt. John Diego of the fire department, and Valerie Leveroni, 8. Debbie won the first prize in the Easter hat contest and Julia Diego, Gary's sister, won the booby prize. Winners of the sack race were Edward Schaefer, first, and Robert Schaefer, second, sons of George Schaefer, fire department engineer. (Independent-Journal photo)

5 Seek Lagunitas School Board Jobs

(This is the ninth in a series of stories introducing candidates for school boards in the April 18 elections.)

Five candidates, including the three incumbents, are seeking election to the Lagunitas Elementary School District board on April 18.

The three winners will get four-year terms. Two holdover members of the board will serve another two years.

The election campaign in Lagunitas District has been quiet in comparison with some of those of the past. The district has just opened bids for an addition to its school. A long-drawn-out fight over whether to add to the present school or build another at Woodacre seems to have been effectively laid to rest.

Here is a rundown on the candidates:

WINIFRED S. FREDERICK, 41, of Lagunitas is completing a three-year term on the board to which she was elected in 1958. She is the wife of Stanley R. Frederick, an office assistant in the general offices of Pacific Gas and Electric Co. in San Francisco. They are 15-year residents of the San Geronimo Valley. They have a son attending Drake High School, a daughter at Lagunitas School and a son not yet in school.

Mrs. Frederick has had bookkeeping and accounting experience and at one time operated the Browse Awhile Bookshop in San Rafael. She was educated in public and parochial schools and had two years of college. She is a director of the San Geronimo Valley Assn. and a member of the legislative committee of the Marin County School Boards Assn.

Says Mrs. Frederick: "I have worked very hard to learn to be an effective trustee and I have no doubt that this experience can be of use to the district.

"I believe most strongly that public school business should be conducted out in the open where the public can see it and that the community which supports the schools should have some say in the management. . . . I think schools can be managed more efficiently by applying methods used in business . . . I stand for a curriculum based on basic education, with a realistic approach toward preparing the child to think for himself and grow up as an individual rather than part of the herd."

JOHN F. NIELSEN Jr., 37, is Forest Knolls postmaster. He and his wife, Evelyn, have seven children.

Nielsen was born in San Francisco and completed his education at San Francisco City College and University of California at Davis. He was an Army Air Force staff sergeant in World War II, with service in Europe.

GEORGETTE H. VILAS, 38, of Woodacre is the wife of Robert M. Vilas, a Bank of America executive. They have two sons who have gone through the eighth grades of Lagunitas School, one being now in the Air Force and the other a student at Drake High School.

JOHN T. KEILTY

GLEN E. TWITCHELL

Mrs. Vilas also is completing a three-year term on the Lagunitas board. She is a member of both Drake High School and Lagunitas Parent-Teacher Assns.

A native San Franciscan, she attended San Francisco City College and St. Luke's School of Nursing.

Mrs. Vilas, a 14-year Woodacre resident, is a member of the Marin County Council for Prevention of Delinquency and Crime and of the Woodacre Improvement Club. She is secretary of the San Geronimo Valley Assn. and a charter member of the San Geronimo Valley Horsemen's Assn. She is a Blue Bird sponsor.

JOHN T. KEILTY, 33, of Woodacre is manager of the Household Finance Corp. office in San Rafael. He and his wife, Shirley, have two children. He is seeking election to the school board for the first time.

Keilty is a former president of the Woodacre Improvement Club, former secretary-treasurer of the San Geronimo Valley Lions Club. He was chairman of a school district committee that recommended the present building program and is now on a citizen curriculum study committee.

He was born in Grand Rapids, Mich., attended Western Washington College and has a B.S. degree in business administration from University of San Francisco.

"It behooves us all to see that the money spent (on schools) is doing the maximum toward . . . providing our children with educational opportunity at least equal to that provided other children with whom they will be associated later in life," says Keilty.

GLEN E. TWITCHELL, 30, the second challenger, lives in Lagunitas and is a consulting engineer with the firm of Earl and Wright in San Francisco. He and his wife, Anne, have four children, the eldest eight years and the youngest 18 months.

Twitchell has lived in Marin County seven years and in Lagunitas five years. He was born in Watsonville and has a B.S. degree from University of California at Berkeley.

"I believe there is room for improvement in the management of the school board's affairs, and feel that I am capable and would be helpful in attaining a direct and rational approach to all the district's problems," says Twitchell.

Was John Birch A Hero? Wartime Comrades Voice Differing Views

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Different views were voiced today on the death of John Birch, for whom the right-wing John Birch Society was named.

Birch, then an Army captain, was killed Aug. 25, 1945, while on an intelligence mission for the Office of Strategic Services in central China.

In Billings, Mont., a radio-TV executive, Joseph Sample, who served in the same OSS outfit as Birch, said in an interview: "There was no real object lesson in Birch's death and certainly no glory."

In Los Angeles, stockbroker William P. Weiss Jr.—onetime OSS officer who made up the mission on which Birch was killed — said: "Certainly John was just as much a hero as any other American soldier who died for his country."

In Pasadena, a Los Angeles suburb, manufacturer Gustav J. Krause — another wartime comrade of Birch—said: "He brought about his own death. He didn't die the hero he was supposed to have died."

The John Birch Society, under fire from some national magazines, and newspapers and some congressmen, has been accused of using Fascist tactics in its self-appointed task of fighting communism.

Birch, a missionary's son who spoke fluent Chinese, was shot by the leader of a group of Communist Chinese.

Sample, president of KOOK and KOOK-TV in Billings, said Birch's patrol ran into "a force of Chinese Reds. The Chinese were understandably disturbed by what seemed to them an unwarranted intrusion of their area and demanded an explanation.

"Captain Birch chose to bluff his way out of a difficult situation. Harsh words led to insults and insults to arrogance."

Weiss, who lives in suburban Alhambra, said: "He (Birch) was risking his life over and above the normal hazards required of our services during the war on a volunteer basis. Unfortunately, he wasn't as skilled as he should have been. But he certainly is just as much a hero, as he died for his country in trying conditions."

High Court To Review Labor Figures' Cases

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court agreed today to review the convictions of two labor union figures — Dave Beck, once-powerful former boss of the Teamsters, and Maurice A. Hutcheson, president of the Carpenters Union.

Beck, who was supplanted as president of the Teamsters Union by James R. Hoffa, had been found guilty by a Washington state court of pocketing $1,900 from the sale of a union-owned Cadillac.

Hutcheson had been sentenced to six months in jail and fined $500 on contempt charges for refusing to answer questions of a Senate committee investigating alleged Indiana highway scandals in 1958. He has been president of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters (AFL-CIO) since 1952.

The Supreme Court agreed to hear arguments in their cases sometime next fall and hand down decisions later.

In other action today, the court:

1. Refused to consider a legal conflict over damage suits filed by coal operators against the United Mine Workers of America. At issue were strikes which involved what sort of collective bargaining agreements call for arbitration.

2. Let stand a lower court ruling that the next phase of the seven-year legal battle between the Kohler Co. of Wisconsin and the AFL-CIO United Auto Workers Union will be fought out either here or in Chicago courts. Both the company and union are appealing part of a National Labor Relations Board ruling on the prolonged strike which has been going on for more than six years.

Chartered Cities May Lease Only Foreign Trucks

Although a chartered city may not purchase foreign made motor coaches, the city may lease such coaches, ruled Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk today.

California's Buy-American Act prohibits the purchase, under Government Code sections 4300-4305 regulating purchasing of material for public use, but does not prohibit leasing. Contracts for purchase are permitted "only to persons who agree to use or supply only such unmanufactured materials as have been produced in the United States, and only such manufactured materials as have been manufactured in the United States." The expression "materials" includes "articles and supplies." These requirements do not apply to leases.

The ruling came at the request of State Sen. Hugh M. Burns of Fresno, relative to the leasing of motor coaches manufactured in Germany. Deputy Atty. Gen. Paul M. Joseph of Sacramento prepared the opinion.

EGG HUNTS

you going to do when such a crowd descends on you?"

The hunt has been increasingly popular each year but nobody expected anything like yesterday's turnout, said Sabella. More than 500 gaily tinted eggs, some bearing prize-winning numbers, had been hidden around the premises and the hunters almost tore the place to pieces from all accounts.

Eight ponies had been provided for free pony rides and long lines of waiting parents with impatient progeny were a feature of the proceedings.

"Next year we'll be in the new bigger place 200 yards south, and everything will be much better," promised Sabella.

Market's Window, Tile Smashed

An 8-by-5 plate glass window and about 16 square feet of tile on the front of the Village Corner Market at 8 Tamalpais Drive in Corte Madera were smashed sometime Saturday night.

It was not determined whether the damage was done by an automobile or vandals. No aparent attempt at entry was made and nothing was missing from the store, according to owner Harold L. Kelly.

The damage was discovered by Corte Madera police about 1:30 a.m. Sunday. Replacement of the tile was estimated at $90. No estimate was given on the cost of the plate glass window.

other problems Wednesday in Washington.

And West Germany's Chancellor Konrad Adenauer will be in Washington April 11-12 for conferences with Kennedy.

Kennedy's decision to accept de Gaulle's invitation to go to Paris reflects a change in travel policy as set forth by the White House about the time he took office last January.

At that time, Salinger said Kennedy had no plans to go abroad for international conferences during at least the first six months of his administration.

The decision also reflects an obviously changing Kennedy attitude toward talks at the summit, including meetings with the leaders of friendly nations.

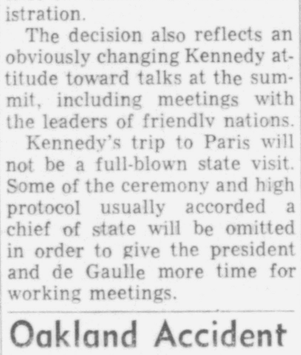

Kennedy's trip to Paris will not be a full-blown state visit. Some of the ceremony and high protocol usually accorded a chief of state will be omitted in order to give the president and de Gaulle more time for working meetings.

JUDGE'S DILEMMA

What's Value Of Chinchilla Taken In '54

Because the market price of chinchillas has dropped from $1,500 to $2,000 a pair in 1954 to $75 to $100 an animal today, Judge Richard M. Sims wants to know how much a man should pay back for nine chinchillas he took seven years ago.

Joseph R. Ferlita, now of Pasadena, who has been on probation in Marin County since 1954, will find out the answer next week.

In 1954 Ferlita was convicted of grand theft for taking the nine chinchillas from Dr. Vaughn Shaw of Corte Madera. He was placed on probation and told to make restitution.

However, the amount of restitution was not set.

Now, Ferlita has moved to Pasadena. Dr. Shaw's whereabouts are unknown.

Judge Sims in Marin Municipal Court today asked Robert Fitch of the probation department to make a recommendation on the amount of restitution. Should it be the value of nine chinchillas in 1954? Or should it be nine chinchillas themselves? Or their value in 1961?

Ferlita has paid $785 in restitution so far on an amount that is still unspecified. Judge Sims will decide next week how much he shall pay.

The council will hear a report from the city engineer on the feasibility of a turn-around on Acacia Avenue and will discuss the community hall remodeling plans and improved fire protection on Crest Road.

Reed Union School District rejected all three bids on Del Mar School construction at a special meeting Saturday.

Bids were rejected because they were all over the maximum allowable under state aid, which trustees discovered at their last meeting.

Slight Auto Bump: Sickness Later

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Whiplash probably is the most common type of injury arising from auto accidents —and most Americans have been involved in a motor mishap at one time or another.

Even a lightweight rear end bump could produce a whiplash injury to the neck. The effects of such a bump can be drastic even though the symptoms don't appear until weeks or months after the accident.

The unexpected bump may snap your head back and cause the vertebrae in your neck to lose their normal alignment. Such a displacement can damage nerves, blood vessels and muscles in the neck region. Eventually organs elsewhere in your body may be affected—the heart, liver, kidneys or stomach.

These symptoms, distant from the site of injury can be explained by the fact that nerves supplying all the organs and tissues of the body originate in the brain and are channeled through the bony framework of the spinal column. Consequently, when the spine is jolted by the sudden whiplash in the neck, a vertebrae may be forced out of place and pinch nerves leading to any one of several organs.

Let's take the stomach as an example. Because of damaged nerve supply, the stomach in time will lose its digestive efficiency and ulcers many occur. The cause of the ulcers, however, remains in the neck . . . the vertebra that was jerked out of line.

The science of finding and restoring misaligned vertebrae is the science of Chiropractic. When the nerve interference is removed efficiently and painlessly by a Chiropractic adjustment, nerves will return to normal function and the stomach ulcers eventually will disappear—with the help of time and nature.

Humane Chief Discovers World Opinions Differ

What seems cruel treatment of animals to Britons may not be such in the eyes of Americans, while an African is likely to have ideas different from both, a Marin humanitarian discovered at an Amsterdam meeting.

Mel L. Morse returned to his desk as executive-secretary manager of the Marin County Humane Society in San Rafael today after arriving home Saturday night from a quick trip to participate in conferences of the world council of the World Federation for the Protection of Animals.

Six months ago Morse was appointed by the organization's president, Lyndsay Langwill, to sit on the council, actually its board of directors, and to represent the federation in discussion of use of animals in the entertainment field. He was able to report on preliminary conferences in Hollywood, Washington and New York, and had a background of having in 1950 written a television code

Television has brought almost unprecedented employment of animals, according to Morse, while motion pictures continue to draw an animal talent heavily although vaudeville and circuses have vastly diminished.

"It is curious to notice, how, for example, Americans are accustomed to the rodeo and don't regard it as especially cruel," Morse commented, "but they will consider steeplechasing as in England's popular Grand National a terrible punishment for horses.

"Quite a furor has arisen over Clark Gable's last picture 'The Misfits,' because of its depiction of wild horses in Nevada and methods used in capturing them for food. It's felt that illegal acts have been duplicated.

"As a result, protests have been made by British and African censorship boards shocked by things which are sometimes a matter of interpretation. At the same time these areas often condone practices shocking to us."

Basically the approach is simple and universal, said Morse: "Animals are not to be sacrificed for the sake of entertainment, and they are to be handled in accordance with good humane standards.

"But to sit at a table and determine what is really cruel is sometimes more complicated.

"Methods in creating exciting scenes are sometimes ingenious, as for example in the movies' use of the 'split screen.' A brutal fight between stallions may actually involve horses miles apart—a picture of a trained horse rising on its hind legs, and pawing, put together with quite another scene of another horse.

"Our job is to give guidance as to what producers can do, acceptable methods. Competition is always pressing them to sensationalism."

A veteran of nearly 25 years of humane work, Morse found this first visit to Europe an interesting revelation of the common purpose among humane groups worldwide, although he found varying approaches and intensities.

He said his colleagues were all "hospitable and warm, with language our only barrier," with a need to conduct everything in English, French, German, Spanish and Dutch.

One Indian delegate went considerably beyond the European and American approach, due to religious restrictions.

Morse found that Americans are considerably advanced over European practice in such matters as humane transport of food animals to market and slaughter

"We discussed in general man's relations with animals all over the world," said Morse. "Sometimes improvement in methods can best be gained by the economic approach, for ill-treatment of animals can cause waste and loss."

Illinois Slayer Of 3 Given Life Sentence

OTTAWA, Ill. (UPI)—Chester Otto Weger, convicted bludgeon slayer, today was sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of one of three matrons slain at Starved Rock State Park more than a year ago.

Even before the sentence was pronounced, Weger's mother, Juanita, his wife, Jo Ann, and sister, Mary, clung together in the first row of the courtroom and began to sob.

Judge Leonard Hoffman sentenced Weger after a brief legal battle in which defense attorney John McNamara contended that the jury had been "pressured into returning a guilty verdict."

McNamara introduced an affidavit by juror Harold Herman which told of bailiffs exerting pressure on jurors.

Prosecuting attorney Robert Richardson countered by introducing at least six affidavits from jurors saying "that they had reached a verdict of their own free will."

Hoffman said: "In my judgment, this has been a fair trial. This should serve as a model for other murder investigations in the future.

"I will not let a whimsical affidavit by a juror destroy the verdict of this jury," he said.

New Marin Telephone Book Due Out Soon

Most of Marin County's phone users shortly are going to get a phone book the likes of which they haven't seen before.

Some 70,500 copies of the 1961 directory will be delivered to Pacific Telephone and Telegraph subscribers Wednesday through Saturday.

The cover is in full color for the first time. It features a flight of sleek Hamilton Air Force Base F-101 jets streaking over the Mount Tamalpais radar dome.

The book, biggest ever printed, also has a new 24-page green index as handy reference for the yellow pages.

And there'll be new numbers.

Many San Rafael Glenwood prefixes will be changed to GReenfield 9 as a step toward eventual transfer of their service to a new telephone equipment building.

The new telephone exchange is being established to provide for growth in the northern area of the San Rafael vicinity.

Also appearing will be a UNion 8 prefix for phone users in the new Stinson Beach - Bolinas exchange.

The Marin book will also see first use of all number calling listings in the Bay Area. The PT&T office in Mill Valley will change from DUnlap 8-9000 to 388-9000. San Rafael's PT&T office will change GLenwood 3-9000 to 453-9000. These listings will appear in the introductory, white and yellow page sections.

The book will also have new introductory pages, with improved direct distance dialing and message unit calling instructions. The opening pages contain important police and fire numbers as well.

The book contains 45,503 alphabetical listings, an increase of 7,500 names over the 1960 edition. There are 152 alphabetical pages, up 16 from last year's book.

Cuban Attempt To Intercept U.S. Ship Told

NEW YORK (UPI)—A Cuban gunboat intercepted the Western Union Telegraph Co.'s cable-repair vessel Western Union off Baracoa, Cuba, Friday but was forced to withdraw by U.S. naval forces from Guantanamo Bay, reports reaching here said today.

Capt. R. T. Steadman, skipper of the small communications vessel, radioed Friday that the intercepting gunboat had ordered him to land at Baracoa, a Cuban seaport near Guantanamo.

Later Steadman reported the Western Union had been released and was proceeding on course to Key West, Fla.

A Guantanamo dispatch to the Columbus, Ohio, Dispatch today said the Cubans withdrew when U.S. forces came to the Western Union's aid.

Steadman's two messages were received by a British communications station at Truks Island in the Caribbean and relayed to Western Union headquarters in New York. A spokesman here said he had no information on the role of U.S. naval forces from Guantanamo in getting the vessel released.

The Western Union was returning from a routine cable-repair mission between the Dominican Republic and Puerto Rico at the time of the incident. The vessel is an auxiliary schooner of just under 100 tons and carries a crew of 12.

It was expected at Key West tomorrow or Wednesday, Western Union headquarters reported.

Parking Problems

ORLANDO CONTI SAYS:

We need more parking and longer parking areas. We could use some four hour parking areas.

I talked about ramp parking in 1957, because the parking would be closer to the shopping center also with the high cost of the land, also we would not take away all the commercial buildings. But in 1957, ramp parking was a big joke, now they are saying we need ramp parking, because of the high cost of the land. We have used land for our parking lots, and we will use more land. But never in all this time have they replaced our present commercial area that we have used for parking.

We must expand our commercial areas so we may have more and more stores for shoppers, which is one of our great sources of taxes.

What are 5 great goals in a family's life together?

How the unique advantages of life insurance can help achieve all of them—bringing peace of mind at the stroke of a pen

1 Protection for the family.
With life insurance, a family is protected right from the start. For only life insurance guarantees, at the stroke of a pen, an amount of money far greater than most couples could save in many years.

2 A secure home.
A prudent husband safeguards the home his family loves by owning enough life insurance to take care of any unpaid mortgage. Life insurance guarantees this protection.

3 College education for their children.
By figuring in advance what it will cost to give their children a college education, parents can make sure—through their life insurance—that college expenses can be met.

4 Freedom to accept new opportunity.
The risks of a new business or job opportunity can be assumed more readily when the family is protected by life insurance. And with life insurance, husband and wife know in advance exactly how much money will be available for an emergency at any given time.

5 Retirement free of anxiety.
A husband and wife can get more pleasure from their later years when they plan their life insurance to provide a steady income which will last for both their lifetimes.

The wise family head carefully estimates his family's future needs, then plans his life insurance accordingly. Since family circumstances often change, many couples review their programs with their life insurance agent each year. In this way, they get the most from the unique advantages of their life insurance.

Bill For More State Aid To Junior College Before Solons

Tomorrow afternoon in Sacramento, the Assembly Committee on Education will take up AB 1848 by Assemblyman Carl A. Britschgi (R., Redwood City) which will have a direct affect on the taxpayers of Marin County.

The bill calls for additional state support for junior colleges. Specifically, it would increase the present state support from about 28 per cent of a school's budget to about 33 per cent. The plan calls eventually, by 1975, to increase the state support to 45 per cent.

Reason for the increased state aid is that the state master plan for higher education has assigned an increased role to junior colleges. Under the plan, adopted last year, about 50,000 lower division college students would be diverted to junior colleges rather than to state colleges or universities.

The financial difference between a state college and a junior college is that state revenues mainly support state colleges, while local property taxes support junior colleges. Therefore, so as not to unduely burden local property owners, this bill would switch a slightly larger proportion of the junior college costs to the state.

This makes sense in one way. Junior college education has proven to be less expensive per pupil than in state colleges. Thus by sharing some of its money, the state can actually educate more students for the same expenditure.

But if we think that in getting the money from the state we're not actually paying it ourselves, we're badly mistaken. We are. Where else, but from the taxpayers, does the state's money come?

When the board of trustees of College of Marin recently voted on a resolution urging additional state support for junior colleges, trustee Robert E. Oliver voted No. He said everyone has to take a stand sometime on how far away from home the purse strings of our educational system should reach. This was his time to take his stand. The board passed the resolution over his vote.

We sympathize with Trustee Oliver's position. It costs money to send taxes to Sacramento or Washington and then get some of them back. We shouldn't look to somewhere else for our funds if we can raise them here.

Unfortunately, the decision is not whether or not we should receive support funds from the state. The college already does receive them. It's merely a matter of how much.

It appears to us more equitable, so long as the state is furnishing 88 per cent of state college budgets, 66 per cent of the state university's, 60 per cent of our elementary schools', and 40 per cent of our high schools' expenses, that the junior colleges get 33 per cent.

We hope the legislature approves AB 1848.

A Handful Of Hummers

With the first sign of spring flowers in most Marin gardens comes a handful of hummingbirds.

These tiny speedsters are the splashes of flashing irridescence which add gaiety to our gardens. They are the essence of the season, bright, happy and beautiful.

Equipped with built in drinking straws, they sip the flower nectars like children gone wild in a milk-shake shop.

The hummers came early this year. We welcome these little glimpses of Paradise back to our county.

Even The Air You Breathe During Dreams Has Been Measured Out

Oh how we miss our daily I-J since moving to Sonoma from Novato Feb. 19 this year! We feel it is the finest newspaper in the West, on a level with the New York Journal-American, N.Y. Daily News, and Long Island Star-Journal.

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I want to congratulate you and your associates for a job "well done", not only in connection with the excellence of the articles appearing in the special anniversary supplements but, more important, for what you have done and are doing in giving the people of Marin County such an outstanding newspaper, day in and day out.

I have followed the growth pattern of the Independent-Journal very closely over the past 35 years, starting back when it was a daily newspaper with a circulation of approximately 2,000, at which time a Duplex flatbed press was purchased through me. The growth from that time to the present has been rather phenomenal, to say the least. This growth has primarily come about through management interest in producing a newspaper of the highest standards, not only in news content but, of equal importance, editorial content.

Congratulations and our best wishes to all of you for the part each one of you will play in the future growth and development of the Independent-Journal.

EDITOR,

My most sincere congratulations on the 100th anniversary of your newspaper, the Independent-Journal.

Your paper has served our county with distinction and has won many journalistic awards for excellence, of which you all can be very proud.

The paper has always been a champion for the right and always supported the best public interest.

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I have been reading with interest the historical sections of the Independent-Journal published in conjunction with the 100th anniversary of the newspaper. You are to be congratulated for presenting this feature in the public interest. It will serve to enlighten many Marin residents of more recent vintage as to the distinguished history not only of your newspaper but the county itself.

Congratulations, too, on this important anniversary of a distinguished newspaper.

You may be interested to know that my great, great grandfather, James Lyons, although blind, edited the first newspaper in Southwestern Oregon, The Umpqua Gazette. Thus, I find the historical series particularly interesting.

The Mountain Is Dominant, Friendly, Windy And Growing

We live under The Mountain. It dominates our town, catches our clouds and makes our big apple tree look small. To take it down a peg, every so often we go up and tell The Mountain what for.

The other day we were "telling off" The Mountain up at the Mount Tamalpais State Park ranger station. But, the more we shouted the louder the wind blew through the tall firs.

Finally, we cornered Park Supervisor George E. Holmboe in his small wooden ranger hut. Holmboe, who has lived and worked on The Mountain for five years, guards some 2,000 acres of the giant, with five other rangers.

"Tell us about your mountain," we said.

HOLMBOE SAID cautiously "Well, the Miwok Indians were afraid of this mountain. They thought there were spirits living on it. You might understand their feeling during winter in storms and foggy weather. It's a matter of superstition.

"Flora and fauna are quite diversified. We have a mixture of conifer trees, redwoods and broadleafed hardwoods.

"There are deer, coyotes in the high rocky places, bobcats, many raccoons, tree squirrels, ground squirrels, spotted skunk, foxes, tree frogs, frogs, salamanders and fence lizards.

"THERE ARE jays and quail and buzzards. The buzzard is a beautiful bird, handsome features. Flight is very extraordinary inasmuch as they can hover for long periods of time and ride the air currents. They are the necessary scavengers for The Mountain, seldom if ever killing anything.

"We have rattlesnakes. However, they are usually in the grassy hill area or rocky points, seldom find them in the timber. Not particularly dangerous, a rattlesnake will always try to get away.

"There is a book about The Mountain, 'Tamalpais — Enchanted Mountain' as well as one about its railroad, 'The Crookedest Railroad In The World.' Dan Totheroh has written a play of The Mountain called 'Tamalpa'."

People go over The Mountain, people sleep on The Mountain (there are 61 picnic sites and 25 camp sites) and people go to the top of The Mountain (about 50 per cent of the 350,000 annual visitors go to the summit).

Winds blow up to 100 miles an hour at the top. The San Andreas Fault runs next to the mountain's foot on the southwestern side. Sierra Club members practice mountain climbing on rocky cliffs of East Peak, 2,571 feet high. West Peak, where the radar tower is located, is even higher, 2,604 feet.

"IT'S A FRIENDLY mountain," says Mrs. B. K. Dunshee. "We go up there for our wedding anniversaries and went up the other day on our 45th. Alice Eastwood, late botanist and curator, typified The Mountain. She loved its plants and wanted others to do likewise and protect them."

The Mountain, which has five lakes and no supermarkets, is said to be growing slowly taller each year.

Well, Mr. Holmboe and old mountain, we said, thanks for the talk. You're growing taller. So are we.

Federal Budget Is More Than Accounting Of Costs, Revenues

WASHINGTON — As I am writing a final article before leaving for a few weeks in Europe, it is tempting to look back and do a bit of generalizing about the first three months of the Kennedy administration.

The general character of this first phase has been, I would say, preliminary and preparatory. This problem is central to almost all the others: the problem of overcoming the sluggishness which has characterized the American economy since the end of the Korean War.

AS YET, the administration has made no frontal attack on this problem. It has not done so because of a deliberate decision that the country is not yet ready for it. Despite the unemployment and the unused capacity, the feeling that we are in bad times is spotty and local, not general and national.

Because of the likelihood that a kind of recovery is just around the corner, the President has felt that for the present he must follow the Eisenhower economic ideology. Yet his principal advisers are, so far as I know, unanimous in the belief that a very considerable departure from the Eisenhower ideology is necessary if the American economy is to meet the needs of the Sixties.

BUT DESPITE these opinions, the administration is operating within the Eisenhower slogans and stereotypes about the budget. This is not because the Kennedy men believe in them, but because there are a large majority in both parties who do believe in them.

The crucial and central issue is not whether the federal budget should be balanced. Kennedy stated, but not heavily emphasized in his budget message, that federal revenues and expenditures should be in balance "over the years of the business cycle" — about four or five years. The Eisenhower doctrine is that, regardless of the business cycle, the budget should be in balance every year.

The true and emerging Kennedy doctrine is that in a year of recession there ought to be a deficit and that in years of boom there ought to be a surplus. When, as has been the case since the early 1950's, there is a chronic sluggishness in the economy, it is an unsound fiscal policy to try to achieve a budget surplus.

TO MANY THIS sounds like the grossest heresy. But that is exactly what the great majority of modern economists are saying, particularly those on whom the Kennedy administration depends.

But the President has not yet braced himself to the effort of explaining to the public the difference between balancing the budget annually and balancing it over the business cycle. Yet most of what he has promised to do, most of what for the long pull urgently needs to be done, depends on explaining this theoretical issue to the people.

It is a complicated thing to explain that the federal budget is not only an accounting of revenues and expenditures. It is also a great fiscal engine which as a matter of national policy has to be managed in such a way as to promote a stabilized growth of the economy.

There is nothing sinister or mysterious in this idea. But it is a new idea, new at least to a great many people.

Marin Girl Wins Music Scholarship

Wendy Eisler of Kentfield was one of the two winners of the $500 scholarship awards offered by the Pacific Musical Society in its annual contest Saturday at the Community Music Center in San Francisco.

Wendy plays the flute and is 16 years old. She was accompanied by her father, Arthur Eisler, well-known pianist.

Recipient of the other $500 award was Cinda Goold, young pianist from Sacramento.

Judges of the contest were Dean Wallace, San Francisco Chronicle music critic; Verne Osborne, opera singer, and Hugo Rinaldi, director of music in San Rafael city schools.

Results of the $100 composition award, with several entries from Marin County, will not be made until May 1, the Pacific Musical Society announced. Judge for this event is Charles Haubiel, director of the Composers' Press of New York City.

Youth Orchestra Sets Concert At Dominican

The Marin Youth Orchestra, directed by Hugo Rinaldi, will present a concert Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in Angelico Hall, Dominican College.

The program will open with the first movement of Schubert's Unfinished Symphony No. 8. Following numbers will be Mozart's Flute Concerto in G Major K 313 No. 1; Offenbach's "La Vie Parisienne"; J. S. Bach's Concerto for Three Pianos and Orchestra in C major, and Fridemann's "Slavonic Rhapsody."

Wendy Eisler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Eisler of Greenbrae, will play the flute solo. She is a senior at Tamalpais High School. She was winner of a Marin Music Chest Scholarship in 1958. She has played in the orchestra since she was in seventh grade and plans to continue music study at San Francisco State College next year.

Soloists for the Bach Concerto will be Mary Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Larson of Corte Madera, junior at Dominican Upper School; Carole Marie Castro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Castro of San Rafael, a sophomore at Dominican, and Susan Gilbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gilbert, Corte Madera, a senior at Redwood High School.

Mary and Carol have studied piano for eight years and are winners of Marin Music Chest scholarships in 1960. Mary also won in 1959. Susan was asked to play the piano, which she has studied for seven years, for this performance. She has been playing tympani with the Marin Youth Orchestra for a year and a half.

The orchestra will close its season with a concert at San Francisco State College on April 21. The program will consist of the first movement of Schubert's Unfinished Symphony; "La Vie Parisienne," with Ed Kruth of the San Francisco State College faculty conducting; the third movement of Mozart's Clarinet Concerto in A major, with Martha Morse as soloist, and the "Slavonic Rhapsody."

Auto Collision Injures Four

Four persons suffered injuries in a head-on collision on Tiburon Boulevard near the railroad trestle west of Tiburon yesterday afternoon.

Glory Stevens of 255 Blithedale Avenue, Mill Valley, a secretary, driving west, turned to speak to passengers and allowed her car to drift across the center line, striking an eastbound car driven by Isabel When of Alameda. Miss Stevens was treated at Marin General Hospital for multiple scrapes and bruises.

Elizabeth Newbrand of 92 Bayview Avenue, Belvedere, a teacher, suffered a forearm cut and was admitted to the hospital. She was in satisfactory condition today, hospital attendants reported. Two children, 5-year-old Jesse Dohemann of 228 Margarita Drive, San Rafael, and his 3-year-old brother Russell, suffered cuts and bruises. All were taken to the hospital by Marin Ambulance.

Rabies from Bats

Q. Can a person get rabies by being bitten by a bat?

A. Yes. Six cases of human rabies have been traced to bites by rabid bats. This could become quite a problem because bats infected with rabies virus have been found in many areas in the U.S. If bitten by any animal suspected of having rabies, contact your family physician or local health office without delay.

Sea Water Tonic

Q. I have heard that sea water contains many healthful minerals. Why not take sea water every day as a tonic?

A. It's true that sea water contains minerals, but the water contains too much salt for the body to handle and may contain harmful germs. Although a few ounces of sea water can be consumed at any one time without harmful (or beneficial) effects, drinking large quantities of such water, or the continued drinking of small amounts, can prove fatal.

Only Girls?

Q. Are some women capable of having only girls?

A. All women are capable of producing boys or girls. The sex of the child is determined by factors supplied by the father—not the mother. (More about this in next week's column.)

"Starving" Prematures

Q. Isn't it unusual to "starve" premature babies for several days after birth, as was done in the case of the Kennedy baby?

A. There are two schools of thought on this matter. One supports early feeding of premature babies. The other is to withhold all fluids until the baby is 48 to 72 hours old. In the U.S. the latter procedure is generally followed.

Uterus Removal

Q. Are the ovaries affected by removal of the uterus?

A. The question has not been definitely settled, but on the basis of animal experiments, removal of the uterus has no harmful effect on the ovaries.

DENT MADE, BUT

Congress Facing Lot More Work

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress has made a respectable dent in the pile of work President John F. Kennedy said it should tackle with greatest speed because of the economic slump.

But beyond the high-priority bills, there is a lot more work spread out for the lawmakers. On some, the administration has not even made detailed recommendation. Other items have moved as far along as passage by one house or the other.

TOUGH SCHEDULE

The administration and opposition forces in Congress have tested each other out and a rough schedule for handling the tougher bills has taken shape. From present indications, some measures Kennedy wanted handled this year will go over in 1962—and some of the "unfinished business of the American people," about which he talked as a candidate, may remain unfinishe for a considerable time.

At the Easter recess, Congress has gone this far with the four measures Kennedy tagged with the highest priority:

1. A billion-dollar program of extended unemployment aid has been enacted. Benefits should begin flowing this month.

DIFFERENT VERSION

2. Senate and House have passed different versions of Kennedy's 394-million-dollar loan and grant bill to stimulate the economy of chronically depressed areas. Adjustment of the differences is expected, after some argument, soon after the House reconvenes April 10.

3. A bill to extend dependent children benefits to families of the unemployed has been passed by the House and promised prompt handling in the Senate.

4. The House Ways and Means Committee has approved legislation for most of the changes Kennedy asked in the social security law. Among them is optional retirement for men at 62, counted on to help some older men stranded by the dwindling of industries which employed them. The House probably will act this month.

Congress has finished work on three other measures from Kennedy's priority list:

Renewal of authority to reorganize the executive department. Kennedy is expected to use it first to create a new cabinet-rank department of urban affairs, with Federal Housing Administrator Robert C. Weaver becoming the first Negro cabinet member.

Ratification of U. S. affiliation with the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development.

An emergency program for feed grains.

The House has passed a minimum wage increase bill, but in much more modest terms than Kennedy recommended. It was the first substantial setback his administration suffered at Congress' hands. His leaders in the Senate are trying to rebuild the measure closer to his recommendations. Senate committee action is expected by mid-month.

The Senate has passed bills to increase the number of federal judges and to create an office of international travel. The House should act soon.

Thief Loots Coin Devices In 3 Cities

Coin machines in San Rafael, San Anselmo and Corte Madera were pried open Saturday night by an apparently fast-moving raider who visited business establishments in all three cities not far from the hour of 10 p.m.

Entry was made by jimmying the rear door of the San Rafael Laundry and Cleaners at 4 Knight Drive, Glenwood, it was discovered just after 11 p.m. Dimes from two change machines in a washerette part of the establishment were believed taken, but a total of $2.10 in dimes was picked up from within the machine and on the floor. Some small change was taken from the cash register in the laundry.

No attention was paid to a floor safe and some other coin machines.

By similar door-prying procedure the Norge Coinette at 75 Red Hill Avenue, San Anselmo, was entered about 10:05 p.m.

This time was established because an electric clock stopped, the switch in a control box having been pulled.

Coin machines were jimmied and $175 to $200 was taken, San Anselmo police reported.

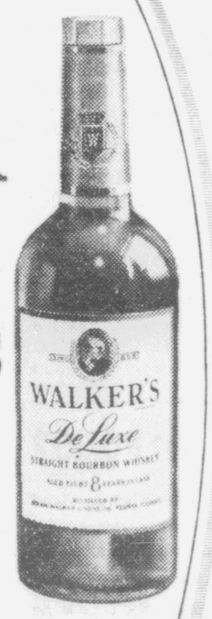

A cigarette machine was opened in the Patio Car Wash, 5742 Paradise Drive, Corte Madera, but no estimate of loss was immediately available. Again the door of the establishment had been jimmied.

Cepeda Unhappy In Outfield Under Rig; Has New Attitude This Year

HANLEY

PHOENIX, Ariz.—It was no secret to any baseball fan that Orlando Cepeda was mighty unhappy playing left field last year even though he received $27,500 which, his old boss Bill Rigney maintained, should have kept him happy no matter what position he was asked to play.

Just how wide was the rift between Cepeda and the ex-Giant manager was not disclosed until their long distance exchange of a month ago through the newspapers. Rigney subsequently disowned quotes attributed to him by a New York columnist, quotes that accused Cepeda of being self-centered, immature and in many respects "a little boy to whom winning a pennant was not as important as it should be."

Cepeda's Latin temperament exploded in nuclear fury when he read that and he charged Rigney of having "no guts" and "twice losing the pennant for us." Orlando's temper subsided the next day and when Rigney and his Angels visited Phoenix they buried the hatchet. But the heated reaction of Orlando to the original story quoting Rigney indicated that there was considerable ill will between them last season.

What's Cepeda's attitude this year? Do he and Alvin Dark really hit it off? Did Orlando pout when Alvin switched him from left to right field? Is Cepeda reconciled to Dark's edict that the Giants are "going up or down with Willie McCovey at first base—Cepeda is never going back there in my thinking?"

FIRST HEAR what Dark has to say.

"I am pleasantly surprised with the way Orlando has taken to the outfield, especially in view of what I had been told," said Dark who did not specify what he had been told by Rigney or members of the Giant management. He did, however, remind us that we had informed him last October when he became manager of the Giants that Cepeda was unhappy and his hitting tailed off when he was moved to the outfield.

"Both agree that left, because of the wind prevailing in that field, is more difficult. It blows the ball toward left center or holds it up. It seldom blows the ball toward the foul line in left. Cepeda moves best to his own right. He believes this and I know it is a true judgment of his strength because I watched him closely before switching him to right field. He's happy there.

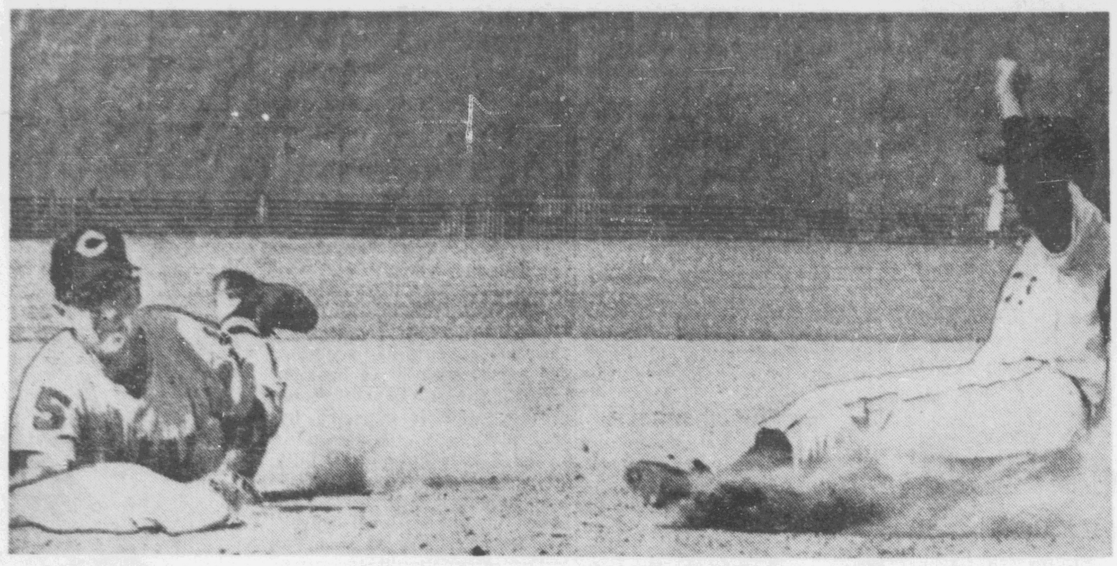

"Alou, on the other hand, also is happy in left. He played a number of games there in Candlestick last season and from what I am told he made several spectacular catches despite the wind.

"In playing the outfield, I am convinced Cepeda's career will be lengthened. I told him so. I played the infield a number of years before moving to the outfield and I know from personal experience that the infield takes much more out of you."

AND WHAT does Orlando have to say?

"I'm happy," he said. "Dark knows men. He is a leader. I told him I will do my best. I feel good this year. Last season I had problem up here in the head."

He did not specify what the problem was other than to say "a baseball problem." But in light of that long distance exchange between Cepeda and Rigney a month ago it is not difficult now to pinpoint what the problem was.

Jones Shuts Out Tribe; Rookies Provide Power

PHOENIX, Ariz., (UPI) — Sam Jones had the San Francisco Giants' opening day pitching assignment all but wrapped up today after hurling six more scoreless innings yesterday as the Giants defeated Cleveland, 6-1.

Home runs by rookies Bob Farley and Tom Haller accounted for five of the Giant runs. Farley's two-run blow in the bottom of the sixth broke a scoreless tie and gave the win to Jones, who has now tossed 15 consecutive scoreless innings.

Haller's homer off former Giant Johnny Antonelli was the big catcher's sixth of the spring campaign and gave him the club lead in runs batted in as well, with 15.

The Giants stayed in Phoenix again today for a game with the Los Angeles Angels. The San Franciscans hold a 2-1 edge over Bill Rigney's Angels.

Ken McBride takes the mound for the Angels, who open the season April 11 at Baltimore.

Eli Grba, who probably will hurl the season opener, will handle the mound chore tomorrow at Mesa, Ariz., against the Chicago Cubs.

The Angel squad was bolstered today by outfielder Lou Johnson who was secured from the Cubs in the trade for Jim McAnany.

Other additions in the team appear to be in the offing. Oscar Salenger, former Pacific Coast League owner, who now is in the electronics industry in Beverly Hills, watched yesterday at Indio, Calif., as the Angels edged the San Diego Padres, 7-6, in 100-degree heat.

Salenger afterward predicted the Angeles would add another six good players by May 11, and would finish the season better than many have prophesied.

In yesterday's Giant game, the Indians' John Romano belted a homer off reliever Mike McCormick to pull the Clevelanders within a run. But Antonelli gave up an infield single to Matty Alou, walked Farley and Haller then smashed a pitch deep over the clock in right field.

Former American Leaguer Harvey Kuenn rapped out three singles to up his average to .438 for the Giants, second only to Haller's .462 mark.

GIANTS TRIM ORSINO, JONES AND MIRANDA

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—The San Francisco Giants cut five players from the roster yesterday to trim the squad to the regular season opening limit of 28.

Sent down to Tacoma, Wash., in the Pacific Coast League were catcher Johnny Orsino, pitchers Sherman Jones, Ray Daviault and Georges Maranda and outfielder Manuel Mota.

Orsino, Jones and Daviault were put on a 24-hour recall basis.

Manager Alvin Dark said he hated to let Orsino go, but playing with Tacoma would give him better experience than sitting on the Giants' bench.

"He'll be back," Dark predicted.

Koufax Goes Route; L.A. Heads West

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers, moving west from Florida for their season opener April 11 in Los Angeles, took today off from the spring exhibition wars.

The Dodgers begin the final phase of their pre-season training when they meet the Cleveland Indians tomorrow in nearby Tucson. Right-hander Roger Craig will be the Los Angeles pitcher.

The Dodgers come into Los Angeles next Monday for the annual banquet sponsored by the Los Angeles baseball writers. They open their National League season the next evening in the Coliseum against the Philadelphia Phillies.

The Dodgers broke camp at Florida after left-hander Sandy Koufax hurled them to a 7-3 victory over the Minnesota Twins. Koufax, although he weakened and was tagged for a three-run homer in the ninth, finished the game in grand style and became the second Dodger hurler of the spring to finish a game. Johnny Podres, another lefty, was the other.

Before running into trouble in the ninth, fastballing Sandy had blanked the Twins for 16 consecutive innings over three games.

On the firing line the Dodger batters hit three Twin pitchers for 11 hits, including triples by Charlie Neal and Bob Aspromonte and doubles by Willie Davis, Tommy Davis, Wally Moon, Maury Wills and Ron Fairly.

JOHNNY 'BOC' HERO, BRONCS TRIM IRISH

John Boccabella, Marin County's best young baseball prospect since the New York Yankees' Joe DeMaestri graduated from Tamalpais High School in 1947, kept his hot bat active for the Santa Clara Broncos over the weekend.

Yesterday in San Jose Boccabella's two-run double pulled the Broncos into an 8-8 tie in the bottom of the ninth inning and he later scored the winning run on a wild pitch in the 9-8 victory over Notre Dame.

On the previous day the big third baseman collected four hits in five at-bats, although the Broncos bowed to California, 7-2.

In 38 appearances to the plate for Santa Clara this season, Boccabella, only a sophomore, has 19 hits for an even .500 average.

Like DeMaestri, currently a utility infielder for the Yankees in his 11th major league season, Boccabella is a product of San Anselmo sandlots.

Casey Meets Andrews In S.F. Tonight

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Hank Casey, the barber supply employee who was trimmed in his last fight by Rory Calhoun, meets Irish Eddie Andrews of Las Vegas tonight in a 10-round scrap at Kezar Pavilion.

Casey moved into a sixth spot among the NBA's middleweight contenders last year as a result of winning two out of three decisions over hard-fisted Henry Hank. But then the veteran Calhoun closed fast in New Orleans on New Year's Day to score a split verdict over Casey.

Andrews, now in his ninth year as a pro, formerly lived in Lowell, Mass. He is rated an aggressive workman and outpointed Charlie (Tombstone) Smith in his most recent bout.

AROUND THE SPRING CIRCUIT

Spahn, Ford Clinch Opener Duties For Braves, Yankees

There was many a dazzling Easter performance but it took a pair by Warren Spahn and Whitey Ford to put the Milwaukee Braves and New York Yankees in clover.

This is the time of year when every manager's chief concern is picking an opening day pitcher, but it's no problem today for either Charlie Dressen or Ralph Houk. Spahn and Ford took care of that yesterday with brilliant route-going performances that make the choices automatic.

Spahn, who'll be 40 this month, flashed a five-hitter to pitch the Braves to a 5-2 victory over the Kansas City Athletics while Ford, key man of the New York staff, turned in a six-hitter that gave the Yankees a 1-0 decision over the Cincinnati Reds.

SHUTOUT SPOILED

Spahn, who has compiled a 4-1 spring record to prove his amazingly supple arm is as good as ever, faced only 30 batters and had a shutout until the seventh inning when a single by Norm Siebern and a double by Hank Bauer produced a Kansas City run. Joe Pignatano homered for the Athletics' other run in the eighth.

Ford, seeking to bounce back after a mediocre 12-9 record in 1960, became the first New York pitcher to go nine innings in spring training since Bob Turley in 1958. He had a mild scare in the ninth inning but got out of a jam by retiring Frank Robinson with the tying run on third base.

Hank Aaron hit three homers and drove in six runs to lead the Braves' 12-hit attack while Bill Skowron homered off Jay Houk in the second inning to provide the Yankees with their winning margin.

KOUFAX SHARP

Sandy Koufax, the Los Angeles Dodgers' fireballing lefthander, also went the nine-inning distance with an 11-hit, 7-3 victory over the Minnesota Twins. Koufax, who pitched seven no-hit innings in a previous appearance this spring, had a shutout until the ninth. Key blows in the Dodger attack were triples by Bob Aspromonte and Charley Neal.

The San Francisco Giants beat the Cleveland Indians, 6-1, the Baltimore Orioles downed the Chicago White Sox, 11-5, the Philadalps Phillies topped the Detroit Tigers, 7-4, the Pittsburgh Pirates edged out the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-2, and the Chicago Cubs defeated the Boston Red Sox, 5-3, in other Easter Sunday exhibition games.

Rookie Earl Robinson's grand slam homer was the big blow of a nine-run eighth-inning rally that enabled Hoyt Wilhelm to pick up the victory for the Orioles. Robinson connected with one on earlier against Herb Score to give him six runs batted in for the game.

Tony Taylor and Pancho Herrera collected nine hits between them to highlight the Phillies' 16-hit attack on four Detroit pitchers. Taylor raised his spring average to .500 with four singles and a triple and and two singles. Norm Cash Herrera had a homer, double and Steve Boros homered for the Tigers.

Palmer Obvious Favorite To Defend Masters Title

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Unless history is wrong, an inexperienced golfer hasn't much chance of winning the Masters Tournament. The only player who ever succeeded on his first attempt was Horton Smith, when he won the first Masters in 1934.

The massive and often deceptive 6,980-yard Augusta National course takes too much knowing for anyone to master it the first time out. Besides sheer power and sharp hitting, it calls for expertly placed drives, keen judgment on approaches and excellent putting.

But outside of defender Arnold Palmer, it's hard to see any of the past winners as likely contenders when the 25th Masters starts Thursday—and they're the men who should know the course best.

Palmer, of course, is the obvious favorite. He has won twice in the past three years. At 31, he's at the peak of his playing career. He has the big game suited to this big course and the kind of temperament that makes him do his best when he needs a birdie or two to win.

Wall suffered a painful rib injury taking a swipe at the ball during the recent Miami Beach Open and will have to miss his second Masters since he won in 1959. A knee injury kept him from defending last year.

Ford, usually the busiest golfer on the pro tour, has played less than usual this year and has had one of his worst winter records.

Burke, a busy businessman, has played in only six of 13 winter tournaments and hasn't finished better than sixth. Middlecoff, who planned to return as a full time tourist this year, has played in eight, missing the 35-hole cut three times and placing no higher than 21st.

Although Hogan and Snead play in very few tournaments, both are reported to be hitting the ball very well from tee to green and they're always dangerous here. But they're both going on 49, an age when putting begins to falter, and Ben has been having trouble with those 8-footers for a couple of years. Demaret is admittedly past 50.

That seems to have three possibilities. Can Palmer win a third Masters? Will some brash newcomer finally break through? Or will it be somebody like Ken Venturi, Gary Player, Bill Casper, Peter Thomson, Dow Finsterwal, or Jay Hebert, who has served his apprenticeship learning about Augusta National and now is ready to prove his knowledge and skill?

Marin Runner 2nd In Marathon Race

Darryl Beardall of the Marin Athletic Club placed second yesterday in a 26-mile marathon run around Lake Merced in San Francisco.

Beardall's time of 2 hours, 49 minutes and 27 seconds was close on the heels of winner Richard Ortiz' time of 2:47.29.

Their final placement in the competition was based on "closed" scoring.

In the closed field another Marin entry placed ninth. He was Jack Kirk, with a time of 4 hours, 13 minutes and 40 seconds.

Los Altos Prep Looms As World's Fastest Swimmer

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—The nation's short-distance swimming hopes were pinned today on the capable shoulders of Steve Clark, an 18-year-old high school senior from Los Altos, Calif.

Clark staked a solid claim to being the world's fastest swimmer by winning the 100 yards freestyle in an incredible 46.8 seconds Saturday night in the Amateur Athletic Union's (AAU) indoor championship at Yale.

During the three-day meet, national records tumbled in 13 of the 14 swimming events. American marks were eclipsed in all seven finals Saturday night.

The team title went to Southern Cal with 74 points. The New Haven S. C. was second with 44½ and the New Trier S. C. third with 21.

Clark's time in the 100 yards was considered comparable to breaking of the four-minute mile in running.

Clark, under the tutelage of George Haines, coach of the American Women's Olympic team at Rome, also won the 220-yard freestyle in two minutes even Friday night. Upsetting Murray Rose of Australia, he prevented the Olympic great now at the University of Southern California from completing a triple.

Southern Cal's Charley Bittick, however, did the triple trick by taking the 100-yard backstroke in :53.4 in the finals. He earlier took the 220-yard backstroke and the 400-yard individual medley.

Also in the finale, Rose beat his own 440-yard freestyle record in 4:18.2.

Reed Wins, Klyce Upset In Junior Tennis Tourney

One Marin County favorite won, but another was upset yesterday as the North Bay Junior Tennis Tournament at Vallejo moved into quarterfinal rounds.

Top-seeded Clyde Witt of Larkspur advanced on schedule in the 18 and under age group as he overpowered Robin Ray of Sacramento, 6-1, 6-4, but San Rafael's Harvey Klyce, one of northern California's better racqueteers, was victim of the tournament's first major upset. He fell to Jeff Brown, 6-3, 6-3.

San Jose's Jamaica Jet Will Crack 100 Mark, Coach Sure

Johnson zoomed to his second 9.3 of the new season Saturday in the 100-yard dash during a triangular meet at Stanford. He also captured the 220 in 20.9.

An oversight by the Stanford hosts—failure to have a wind gauge alongside the track—was the only thing that prevented the San Jose State sprinter from getting his world record equaling time into the books.

There was virtually no wind on the field and two of the three official clocks had him in at 9.3. The third showed 9.2.

The fact that the try didn't make the books isn't worrying Johnson or his coach, Bud Winter, too much.

"He'll get the world record sometime this year," Winter says confidently.

"He's a wonderful fellow to work with—eager to learn and very pleasant."

Johnson is confident.

"Coach Winter has helped me a lot. I'll make it one of these days," he said.

Johnson first attracted notice as a wing-footed sprinter while attending Calabar High School in Kingston, Jamaica. After he graduated he came to California and enrolled at Bakersfield Junior College.

Last fall he transferred to San Jose State as a junior. Winter went right to work.

"His main fault as first was his start. We noticed at the Olympics in Rome last summer that the German sprinters were getting off the blocks faster and picking up more time than anyone in the first 30 yards," said Winter, who was on the coaching staff for the U.S. track team.

"When we got back we studied movies and worked out a similar starting positions."

He said the new start has the runner getting out lower and into high gear sooner than the traditional sprinting start.

"This kid was a natural finisher. All we had to do was get him started faster and we knew we'd have a record breaker," Winter said. "He's made real progress these last few months."

He noted that Johnson's effort last Saturday was .2 of a second faster than anyone has ever run on the Stanford track.

GRIFFITH INEXPERIENCED

New Welter Champion Plans Busy Schedule

"He's a young, strong kid and we want to keep him as busy as possible," said co-manager Gill Clancy, who talked roughly and cuffed Griffith in the face Saturday night just before the youngster belted out Benny (Kid) Paret to win the title. "He's plenty good right now, but he knows and we know he can be better with more experience."

Griffith showed a distinct lack of ring generalship during the 12 rounds he faced the 23-year-old Peret before using two left hooks and a sharp right to equalize Paret's wide edge in experience. But Clancy said Griffith's inability to take charge in the ring was due more to his pride than anything else.

ALMOST LOST

"I told him not to run away from Paret," Clancy said. "I meant for him to move around, jab him, use his reach, and to counterpunch when Paret charged him. But he went in there with the idea he wasn't going to move back one step, and it almost lost him the fight."

Until the climactic 13th Griffith was losing points by not retreating from the ex-champion's ruches. Paret, a windmill punching Cuban making the second title defense of his 10-month reign, scored heavily in concentrating on the body.

But Clancy convinced Griffith of his mistake at the end of the 12th round, when he told his fighter to "shape up" and slapped his cheek in emphasis.

One minute and 11 seconds later, Paret lay on the canvas and Griffith was the champion after only 25 professional fights, 23 of them victories.

Paret, who suffered his first knockout and 9th loss in a 46-bout career that includes 3 draws, flew to New York yesterday glamoring for the right to exercise the 90-day return bout clause in the contract.

"We'll fight him within 90 days if it has to be that way," Clancy said. "But we'd also like a match with Luis Rodriguez, the top-contender, or an over-the-weight bout or two.

"No matter who he fights next," Clancy said, "Emile is going to be better than he was Saturday night. He's got too much pride and too much potential not to be."

Merionettes Win Swimming Honors

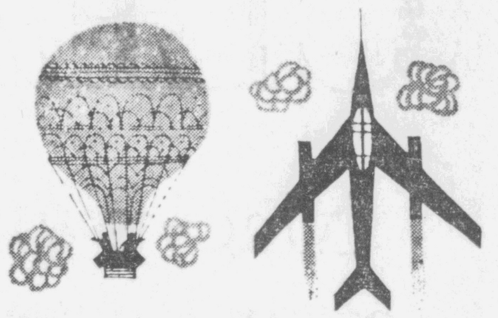

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco Merionettes, a team formed just four years ago, are the 1961 women's champs in National AAU synchronized swimming.

The Merionettes, second in the national championships a year ago, won by a wide margin in this year's meet, which ended Saturday night.

San Francisco piled up 21 points. The University Athletic Club of Hollywood was second with 14. Moose Club of Oakland, was next with 9.

The Athens A.C. of Oakland, 14 times the national champ, was fourth with 8 points and the Shaw Park Swim Club of St. Louis, Mo., next with 7.

Lake Merritt Boats Sweep El Toro Race

Lake Merritt Sailing Club skippers dominated the field Saturday by sweeping the first three places in the annual "Bullship Race" for the diminutive El Toro fleet of the Bay Area.

Marin County entrants were shut out of the winner's circle in the race that started in Sausalito and ended off the San Francisco yacht harbor.

Leading the field was Merritt's Jim DeWitt whose sure-handed piloting covered the distance in two hours and 15 minutes. Times were slow because of strong flood tides.

Thirty seconds behind in second place was DeWitt's "teammate," Richard Jacobsen. Still another Merrittman came in third place—John Salvin.

Maiden Voyage trophy was snared by John Veteran of San Jose who, in spite of his name, was a novice in this race. He placed fifth in the field of 126.

Twenty boats failed to go the distance, drifting helplessly off course in the strong tides. Doug O'Hair, skipper of the sloop Sonata, came to the rescue of eight drifters. He hustled out near Angel Island to rope the helpless skippers and tow them toward home. Halfway home the Sonata ran out of gas, so the Coast Guard patrol boat took over the duties.

Celtics Hail Bill Russell: He's Fabulous

BOSTON (AP) — Defense and Bill Russell are the reasons the Boston Celtics have the jump on St. Louis in the National Basketball Assn. playoff finals.

"Russell was the key—his defense and rebounding," Coach Red Auerbach of the defending world champions said after yesterday's 129-95 triumph over the Hawks.

The best-of-seven series resumes here Wednesday night.

"Bob Cousy also turned in a fine defensive job. Our timing was off because we had been idle for a week. So our defense had to be extra sharp to make up for it. That was the whole story."

The 6-10 Russell grabbed 31 rebounds, blocked seven goal-bound shots and on two other occasions had goal - tending called on him when he had diverted "sure" shots. He also had 15 points and assisted on four other goals."

"He was just fabulous," Auerbach added.

HAGAN HIGH

This is still going to be a dog-fight," chimed in Frank Ramsey who was a Kentucky teammate of St. Louis' Cliff Hagan, the game's high scorer with 33 points.

"St. Louis reached its mental peak Saturday in winning the seventh game of the western series with Los Angeles," Ramsey said.

"This bad beating is not indicative of what will happen when the Hawks get a good rest.

Wednesday is the important game. If St. Louis wins we're in trouble. If we win we have a good chance to win one of those televised weekend games in St. Louis and wrap it up in five."

Girl Scouts Issue Awards To Adults

Marin Girl Scouts paid tribute to "some pioneer stock and a few gold nuggets" in Gold Rush fashion recently at the annual dinner at the Corte Madera Recreation Center celebrating 49 years of scouting in the U.S.

During the evening, awards were presented to 78 men and women registered with the Marin Girl Scouts. The pins and leather-bound citations included thanks badges, certificates of appreciation and year pins.

Thanks badges, highest adult scouting award, were presented to the gold nuggets Mrs. Lewis DuePree, Mrs. James Gowen and one man, Edwin Wells Sr.

Certificates of Appreciation in recognition of outstanding service to the Girl Scouts were given to 12 persons: Frank Duhme Jr. and Mesdames Russell Clarke, James Coddington, Manuel Dos Reis, Harold Green, Roy Herson, Joseph Johnson, Richard W. Morgan, James Raby, James Rowan, Per Rundberg, and Mrs. Richard Keating, county librarian.

Pins marking 15 years of active participation with the Marin scouts were awarded to Mesdames Jack Patterson, Beatrice Samuels and John Veness. In addition to these "oldtimers," 38 received five-year pins and 18 adults received 10-year pins.

Over 240 men and women attended the covered dish supper which was under the general chairmanship of Mrs. George Daum of Corte Madera. In addition to the awards, which highlighted the evening, the program included an old-fashioned movie and songs by senior scouts.

Honored guests of the dinner were members of the Girl Scout Region 12: Mrs. Donald Kudlich and Mrs. Thaddeus Whalen; and three organization executive directors: Mrs. William Vaughn, Marin Campfire Girls; Aubrey Burns, Marin United Fund; and Storrs Smith, Marin Boy Scout Council.

Color Is Luncheon Keynote At Informally Yours Show

"Easter Time — Fashion Time" and a real good time was had by the Marin Volunteers and friends at last Wednesday's Informally Yours fashion luncheon at Bob's of Marin where the Volunteers held its benefit to aid the Senior Citizens whose thrift shop Trade Whims in Senior Center, San Rafael, is open for business Monday through Fridays.

Mrs. William Ghilotti was chairman of the affair which featured fashions from a San Rafael women's shop, modeled by members of the sponsoring group and guest mannequins, with Sara Campbell co-ordinating the promenade of styles with Easter in mind—happy fashions for a joyful time.

Color was the keynote to the luncheon, with gay Easter eggs at the buffet, flower decorated tables and spring fashions on parade with Mrs. Russel Reese pleasingly pretty strolling among the many guests in a beige silk sheath with multi-colored bodice of organza and matching coat, to open the show.

Nods of approval greeted Mrs. Delbert Kelzer and the imported Sebastian designed grey knit two piece costume with white trim detail; also her strictly stridable footwear from a San Rafael shoe shop.

Kudos to Mrs. Eldredge Loewenguth as she gracefully pivoted in a white silk organza cocktail dress with a very full skirt detailed in small black checks.

Swishing into spring in a garment of black and white checked cotton, full of skirt and bordered in white eyelet embroidery, was one of the Mannequin League lovelies, Mrs. John Hackney Jr.

Fine flair for fashion featured by League model Mrs. William Deeths as she executed the Dior pivot to best show her gown of lemon-ice, a sheath with reversible cape jacket by Mamselle.

Style perfect Mrs. Norman Sanguinetti of Mannequin League chose a white eyelet short sleeved sheath trimmed in rose velvet to compliment her blonde tresses, artfully coiffed, as were all hair-styles of the models, by a San Anselmo beauty salon.

Circled by the Newcomers Club of Welcome Wagon Inc. is Wednesday, April 5 for fashions Informally Yours with luncheon at Bob's of Marin.

The luncheon is open to the public and reservations for the April 5 benefit which begins at 12:30 o'clock, may be made with Bob's of Marin.

These young people explained the educational systems in their respective countries and discussed their impressions and experiences while attending Marin high schools under the auspices of the American Field Service.

Miss Lenore Kurle of San Rafael was Epsilon Zeta representative at Delta Kappa Gamma Regional Conference, Feb. 25, at the Joaquin Miller School, Oakland. In keeping with the year's theme "Understanding Unfamiliar Cultures," Miss Frances Bachetti of Alameda moderated a panel discussion on "Delta Kappa Gamma Meets the Changes in a New World."

Luncheon was served in L'Horizon Room at Hotel Claremont, Berkeley.

ALMANAC

Today is Monday, April 3, the 93rd day of the year with 272 more in 1961.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The evening stars are Venus and Mars

The morning stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1873, Washington Irving, creator of Rip Van Winkle and Ichabod Crane, was born.

In 1870, the Pony Express mail service was inaugurated.

In 1882, famed outlaw Jesse James was shot and killed in St. Joseph, Mo.

In 1948, the Foreign Assistance Act created the European recovery program.

A thought for today: Washington Irving said: "Whenever a man's friends begin to compliment him about looking young, he may be sure they think he is growing old."

Child's Seventh Year Generally A Pleasant One For The Parents

Do you have a 7-year-old? Then you're lucky for 7 is a nice year. Let's take a look.

Your 7-year-old is apt to be toothless in front but the gaps are part of his charm. Don't tease him about his teeth or make him self-conscious. Just enjoy what happens when he grins.

Probably he is talkative and asks a hundred questions an hour. I hope you try to answer him. Listen carefully. Reply seriously. He'll remember what you say because he's anxious to learn.

Your 7-year-old depends on you. He has his gangs, but their membership changes daily. Next year he'll belong to a more permanent gang whose standards he'll adopt. He'll fight, lie, and steal if his pals admire such behavior. But at 7 he usually tries to be the kind of a boy you want him to be. He trusts your judgment more than his own. He's fun to have around. You can teach him important lessons without half trying.

Of course he makes mistakes. Often he is selfish and quarrelsome. He is impulsive. He can be rude. But if you tell him what is wrong he'll try to improve. He needs to learn how to work and play with others which his teachers will help him to do. He'll benefit from belonging to church groups, and to character building organizations. If your neighborhood doesn't offer Cub Scouts for boys, and either Blue Birds or Brownies for girls, get busy. Also make sure he has many chances to enjoy appropriate church activities. Good luck!

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "My son is 17. He and the others in his gang have started smoking. I've restricted him, but it does no good. What shall I do next?"

Mrs. J.

(A) Teach him the facts. There seems to be a relationship between cigarette smoking and cancer which he should know about. Beyond that it is up to him. You cannot supervise every moment of his life.

JEEPNEYS—Old U. S. armed forces jeeps, converted into small buses, swarm over a Manila street. Called "jeepneys," they are a chief form of commuter transport in the Philippines capital.

Ancient Jeeps Are Manila's 'Rapid Transit'

MANILA (AP) — There's no such thing in Manila as a 7:15 bus to catch on the way to the office. Nor is there a 5:15 for the homeward trip.

Just go to the nearest street corner. There's always a ride to be had there—provided you are not the complaining type.

Frequently, it's get aboard and hang on. There's no telling when you'll get to where you're going or whether you'll get there at all. And, worse still, there's no guarantee you'll be in one piece when you do arrive.

Surprising thing about it all, though, is that after riding in such hectic pace and fashion all these years you've not a scratch or a bone broken.

Which points up Manila's public transportation system as probably being one of the most reckless, undisciplined and irresponsible in the world.

Buses and "Jeepneys" make up the system. The latter are U.S. Armed Forces World War II jeeps converted to hold eight passengers behind the driver and two more alongside him.

Jeepneys far outnumber buses in Manila. Figures compiled by the Manila Traffic Bureau for the first six months of 1960 show they total 13,330.

Both bus and jeepney are assigned specific routes in the city by the Public Service Commission under what are called "certificates of public convenience." Among other things, operators are authorized by these certificates to charge a minimum fare of five cents and provide such improvements on their vehicles as would enhance the convenience and comfort of the riding public.

Mere words. To jeepney operators especially, profit comes first, improvements second and public convenience last, as a general rule.

Woefully undermanned, commission enforcement of the terms of the certificates is indifferent. Operators couldn't care less and are willing to discourage such enforcement. Improvements cost money, and, after all, the contraption is still in good running condition.

Take the bus stops erected by the city's civic organizations at street corners designated by the police department. To jeepney, and occasionally bus, drivers they are merely structures along the route they ply, ignored and even resented. They are made use of only when a traffic policeman is around. Most of the time, passengers are picked up or let off right in the middle of the road.

If life in the city is hectic, it's probably made doubly so with every ride in one of Manila's speeding buses or jeepneys. An American old-timer and ex-cowpoke from Montana once said he was glad he was always up to date in his insurance payments or he wouldn't have had the courage to ride on Manila's jeepneys.

The poor riding public has no other choice but to take a taxi or walk. Manila has neither street-cars nor a subway system.

"NEWSPAPERS HAVE BECOME OUR STRONG ADVERTISING ARM"

For the past few years, the F. W. Woolworth Company has been concentrating most of its advertising effort in the daily newspapers. "Newspapers have become our strong advertising arm, the muscle of which has grown from 400,000 lines in 1957 to upwards of 30,000,000 lines this year," recently said Mr. T. R. Lynn, vice-president in charge of sales. "We've come to respect the flexibility of newspapers, the timeliness of their news—not the least important of which, we like to feel, is the news of today's values at Woolworth's."

This evaluation can be echoed by many other prominent advertisers who have rediscovered the basic advantage of daily newspapers—that newspapers sell products. In today's market, advertisers need a medium that delivers maximum coverage and can be tailored to fit the advertiser's budget, deadline, selling and marketing requirements. That's why in 1960 advertisers invested more money in newspaper advertising than in radio, television, magazine and outdoor advertising combined!

TAX FACTS

Audit Doesn't Mean You Owe More

By PETER J. WIKEL, CPA

When you receive a notice from the Internal Revenue Service that your return is being audited, it does not always mean that you owe more tax.

Peter J. Wikel

There are three levels, within the Internal Revenue Service, at which an agreement may be reached. The first is the audit by a revenue agent, the second is an informal conference with a conferee, and the third is the appellate division.

If you cannot come to an agreement, then you are entitled to a hearing before the tax court before you must pay any additional tax.

An office audit is generally handled by correspondence, although, if you are located near the office you may be asked to come in.

Field audits are made by agents who visit you in person. The agent always carries identification.

The revenue agent's audit is the first level and when he has finished he will discuss with you any adjustments he proposes to make. If you are satisfied you should sign the waiver which will show the increase or decrease in your tax liability.

If you do not agree with all of the revenue agent's proposed adjustments, you should not sign the waiver. Instead, tell him you want an "informal conference." The agent will prepare and mail to you a form showing the adjustments proposed by him. This form will show the name, address, and phone number of the person with whom an informal conference can be requested. You should contact that person and arrange for a conference.

You do not have to accept the findings of the auditor, or the conferee, or the appellate division, although you should exhaust these possibilities before going to the tax court.

Architect To Expound Philosophy Tomorrow On 'Career' Series

EDWARD DURELL STONE
Architecture is beauty

"I feel that the architect's responsibility is to create a beautiful environment for man . . . No architecture exists, really, unless it is beautiful . . . I don't consider a building that simply performs a utilitarian function to be architecture."

That is the philosoph of Edward Durell Stone, the man who designed the striking circular U.S. Pavilion for the World's Fair in Brussels, the U. S. Embassy in New Delhi, India, and, closer to home, such buildings as the Palo Alto-Stanford Medical Center.

He'll expand on his views when he discusses architecture as a career with a panel of Stanford University students tomorrow night on KPIX's excellent "Career" series, seen weekly on Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m.

It is the series created by John E. Upston, former Marinite and son of the late Maj. Gen. John E. Upston, commanding general of the Fourth Air Force at Hamilton Air Force Base from 1948 to 1950.

KTVU IS JUSTLY proud of its "Great Music From Chicago" series, and tomorrow night's concert starting at 9 o'clock is especially deserving of the attention of lovers of fine music.

The late Sir Thomas Beecham will be seen conducting the Chicago Symphony Orchestra in a program that will include Mendelsohn's "Fingal's Cave," "On the River" from Delius' "Florida Suite," Saint-Saen's "Omphale's Spinning Wheel" and Handel's "Love in Bath Suite."

It marked the last television appearance—and one of the final public appearances of any kind—by Sir Thomas prior to his death.

"SPELLBOUND," the excellent 1945 movie starring Ingrid Bergman and Gregory Peck, will open a four-night run in the 11:15 time spot on KPIX tonight, while KGO will begin a week-long series of the old "Thin Man" pictures with William Powell and Myrna Loy in its 11 o'clock slot. Otherwise, TV fare tonight will be routine.

Things will pick up tomorrow night with an encore showing, at 10 o'clock on KRON, of the "Project 20" production, "The Innocent Years." The show reviews the period from 1900 to 1917. Personalities such as Theodore Roosevelt, Woodrow Wilson, Mark Twain, Lillian Russell, Thomas Edison, Mary Pickford and Charlie Chaplin are seen in rare film footage found in vaults of long deceased newsreel companies, in Hollywood studio libraries, and in private and government archives. Included is some footage which farsighted film-makers, aware that their nitrate film would soon decompose, preserved on paper rolls.

Come Wednesday, 7 p.m., KQED will launch a new show especially aimed at milady. Entitled "Fashion Game," it will feature Jane Winthrop, San Francisco advertising woman and fashion leader, and Vivian Thorne, fashion illustrator, exploring the whys and wiles of high style. Also on Wednesday: A new "spy" series with European backgrounds, "Danger Man," bows in at 8:30 on KPIX, and the "United States Steel Hour" pairs Hans Conried and Faye Emerson in the comedy, "The Odd-Ball," at 10 o'clock on KPIX.

TV Debate Slated On Aid To Schools

A Lutheran and a Roman Catholic will debate the federal aid to private school issue on television Thursday evening.

Dr. Oswald Hoffman, director of public relations for the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, will present the negative point of view, that there should not be federal aid to private (church) schools. Dr. Hoffman is also the speaker for the national program, "The Lutheran Hour."

His opponent, taking the affirmative position, will be Very Rev. Frederick G. Hochwalt, director of the Department of Education of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

The program will be shown on KPIX (Channel 5) at 10 p.m.

Prison Plans To Show Old Typewriters

Thirty antique typewriters and the latest office equipment will be exhibited at the Employees' Recreation Building of San Quentin Prison Saturday from 8:30 a.m. to 2:45 p.m.

The antique typewriters to be displayed date back prior to World War I. The modern office equipment will be donated by five office machine manufacturers.

Visitors may enter the prison grounds through the east gate. They will be directed to the exhibit hall.

A replica of an excutive's office vintage 1900 and a modern office equipped with the latest business machines will also be displayed. Furniture used to decorate the modern office was manufactured by California Correctional Industries at San Quentin.

The exhibit will be presented by the vocational office machine program and trade advisory committee of the San Quentin Department of Education.

SUNDAY SERMON

Resurrection Is Fact, Congregation Told

The resurrection of Christ is a fact, Pastor Harry T. Leonard told his congregation yesterday in his Easter sermon at St. Sebastian's Catholic Church in Kentfield.

"And whether we take that fact from the point of view of history, said Father Leonard, "or from the point of view of our faith, there is joy and peace and warmth and consolation in the fact — He is risen, as He promised—He did not fail us. From the point of view of history, the resurrection of Christ is the real strong proof that Christ is exactly what He claimed Himself to be, not merely a Divine Messenger but the proper Son of God, God Almightly Himself. During His three years of public life Christ claimed from time to time that He was divine, the very Son of God. When asked for incontestable and convincing proof of that claim, Christ referred His questioners in a veiled way to His resurrection from the grave.

"Destroy this temple (He referred to the temple of His body) and in three days I will build it up again," he said.

He proved that claim, said the priest, and "that proof we have the reason for our great Easter joy and peace and consolation.

"... We profess and believe that the resurrection of Christ from the grave is the guarantee of our own resurrection and the pledge of an enless life in happiness and in union with Him in the world to come.

"It is our belief, in the teaching of our Church, that in Holy Communion we received the Glorious Risen Christ and by virtue of that reception are joined to Christ in a union that is unspeakably deep and intimate. It is more that the conventional union that exists between the members of a particular society—it is closer even than the blood union that binds together all members of one family. This union that we have with Christ is an internal and vital union that is so deep that we don't attempt to define it but rather to describe it in illustrations that have been given to us by Christ Himself.

"In the union of Communion we become, as it were, one living being with Christ (the docrine of the mystical body), one great organized body of which Christ is the Head and we are the members.

"Christ tells us Himself: 'I am the Vine, you are the branches.'"

Now, knowing that Christ is risen from the dead, declared Father Leonard, "... we are united to that Risen Head and so close and vital is the union that our own resurrection is guaranteed by it."

"That is what we mean, concluded Father Leonard, "when we say that the resurrection of Christ is the guarentee of our own resurrection and in that belief we find our measure of true Easter peace and joy."

The United States Bank was chartered by an Act of Congress in 1791.

Jewish Leaders For Fund Picked

The Jewish Welfare Federation has named three Marin residents to top leadership posts in its 1961 fund-raising campaign.

Marin division chairman Lawrence Goldberg announced appointment of Maurice Koch as chairman of business solicitation, Dr. Martin Brownstein as head of the professional division, and Mrs. Harry Yaffee as residential chairman.

Funds raised by the federation help support 34 health and welfare programs locally, nationally and overseas, Goldberg said. Among the federation's local beneficiaries is the Marin Jewish Community Center.

Building Permits Won't Reflect Construction Picture Bright Side

A bright side to the Marin construction picture emphasized by C. Douglas Roberts, manager of the Marin Builders Exchange, is one that will not be reflected in the light of building permits issued for the first quarter of this year, encouraging though it may be.

Says Roberts: A tremendous amount of large construction has already gone to bid—particularly since Feb. 1 — for which no building permits have been issued or sought, although much of the work will be in progress in the next few months.

Also, some of the pending jobs include more than the usual amount of activity at Hamilton Air Force Base—probably in the neighborhood of $225,000 —for repairing dining halls, replacing shops, hospital repairs and construction of base storage facilities.

School construction will run heavy. Projects pending include $395,000 for the San Jose elementary schools, $638,000 for Terra Linda High School; additions to Santa Margarita School, $133,810; Novato High School addition, $78,000; Don Timoteo School, $255,000, and the Del Mar School, about $200,000 (though the latter is not yet firm).

Here are a few others:

Coast Guard family housing on Angel Island, $90,000; Sisters of Nazareth rest home in Terra Linda, $859,000; new Marin Municipal Water District office building in Fifer Industrial Park, Corte Madera, $743,000; San Rafael sewage plant, $126,000; Marin General Hospital addition, $52,000; San Anselmo Public Library addition, $52,000, and enlarging of the Wells Fargo-American Trust Co in San Anselmo, $50,000.

Now up for bid are additions to the Lagunitas School in San Geronimo and the Trinity Lutheran Church in San Rafael, and the second phase of the chapel at San Quentin Prison.

All these, once the work is under way, Roberts opines, should make Marin County a very busy place.

MARIN MASONRY, INC., 663 Irwin Street, San Rafael, has just been appointed distributor for two native Northwest building stones making their first introduction into the California market by Stone Center, Inc. of Portland, Ore.

Both come in rubble form and are adaptable for commercial and residential uses as exterior surfacing and for interior design.

August Pierucci, president of Marin Masonry says that "Hawaiian Travertine" is a porous-type material ranging in high colors from yellow through orange and red. By contrast, "Moon Mesa" is a smooth stone with a mellow, bluish-gray tint. Both, he believes will become popular among builders.

Marin Masonry is one of six distributors established throughout the state.

HERMAN DEITCH of Corte Madera, former sales manager at E. Bugna, San Rafael, has given up autos and is now with Marvelous Marin Realty Co., 1027 C Street. He's new to the field but intends to make it permanent.

Two New Plans To Help You Meet Medical Expenses!

One out of every eight Americans will go to the hospital this year. The high costs of hospitalization and surgical fees can be ruinous to the average family budget. To help you meet these costs, Metropolitan has introduced two new policies for both individuals and families.

One, for people 55 and under, is the "Paid Up at 65" Plan. This important new plan not only provides coverage during your working period, but also introduces modified coverage after age 65, and continuing for life, without further payment of premiums.

For older folks, there is also a new Metropolitan Policy which can be purchased up to age 75 and continued throughout life. This new plan will help ease the burden of medical expenses for people of all ages who prefer a lower premium plan.

Both of these new plans are guaranteed renewable. However, the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company may adjust the premiums on such policies as a class.

Call or write today for the details of these two new Metropolitan Plans.

HEAT WAVE ON SCHEDULE

April Sizzler Hits Marin

Marin's first-of-April heat wave hit on schedule during the weekend and continued today, but the forecast was for slightly cooler weather tomorrow.

The temperature climbed to 86 yesterday at the San Anselmo main firehouse and 85 at the San Rafael City Hall. The noon temperature in San Rafael today was 80, promising a repeat of yesterday's high.

The county firehouse at Woodacre recorded a high of 84 yesterday and at the main Novato firehouse the maximum was 83. Mill Valley, Belvedere and Terra Linda all had 80-degree maximums.

Saturday's top readings included 86 in San Anselmo and 82 at Woodacre—and no April fooling.

Such temperatures during the first week in April are scarcely unexpected, though. Record at the San Anselmo firehouse show that last year the mercury climbed to 88 on April 2 and to 92 on April 4. The year previous, the April 2 high was 85.

San Francisco had a top official temperature of 79 yesterday. The warmth enclosed the whole Bay Area, with Redwood City reported a high reading of 83.

First Catholic Parish Planned In Terra Linda

Creation of a new Catholic parish in Terra Linda was announced at Easter Sunday services of St. Raphael's Catholic Parish.

The new parish is to be known as St. Isabella's. Its priest will be Rev. E. J. Dingberg, who has been serving as a San Quentin Prison chaplain with residence at St. Raphael's.

Father Dingberg's appointment is effective next Sunday. He said today it is planned to hold services temporarily at St. Vincent's School for Boys, and to make his residence and headquarters at Blessed Sacrament Catholic Parish house in Santa Venetia. Another priest will be appointed to assist Rev. John Mullen, senior Catholic chaplain at the prison.

Father Dingberg said it will not be possible to hold services for the new parish next Sunday, but "we will try to have

State Asks Death For Finch, Carole

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A prosecutor today urged a jury to send Dr. R. Bernard Finch and Carole Tregoff to the gas chamber for the slaying of Finch's wife.

The defendants sat glum, staring at their hands, as Deputy Dist. Atty. Joe Powers, speaking calmly and deliberately, opened the climactic day of three trials.

A crowd of more than 300, like the ones that marked their first trial, gathered for the jury's decision of the couple's punishment: Death or life imprisonment.

More than 200 spectators lined the corridor, unable to get into the 92-seat courtroom. After hearing arguments pro and con, the jury was to decide on sentences.

"The only question before you now," Powers told the jury, "is this: 'Is this a proper case for the death penalty?' The people say it is."

The redhaired ex-model, convicted with her physician lover of murdering Barbara Jean Finch nearly two years ago, appeared in court more than an hour ahead of time. Her eyes were swollen and she dabbed away tears with her handkerchief while flashbulbs popped.

The once prominent suburban surgeon was led into the courtroom just before the judge arrived. Finch stood and looked at the 24-year-old woman with whom he admitted an illicit love affair.

"How are you, dear?" he asked.

"So so," Miss Tregoff said, staring at the floor.

Superior Court Judge David Coleman instructed the jury:

"It is your duty to consider all the evidence of the case and the verdict must reflect the opinion of each individual juror."

Marin Children Enjoy Three Egg Scrambles

There were Easter egg hunts of some sort in virtually every Marin household with children yesterday, but for real big-time excitment there were mammoth ones Saturday in Novato and yesterday in San Rafael's Albert Field and at Sabella's Restaurant in Alto.

At the sound of the noon fire whistle Saturday, more than 1,000 youngsters started searching for Easter eggs placed by Novato volunteer firemen.

THREE WINNERS

Timmy Basehart, 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Basehart, 1663 Novato Boulevard; Timmy Hoppe, 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry F. Hoppe, 1201 Lynwood Drive, and Bradley Sewell, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sewell, 40 Ormond Court, won baskets of Easter goodies for finding the most eggs.

Firemen were kept busy finding lost children and trying to keep parents on the sidelines and out of the hunt. Volunteer firemen cooked and colored 2,160 eggs for the annual hunt at the old Patterson Ranch on Grant Avenue.

About 500 youngsters —toddlers up to 12 years — searched for 150 dozen eggs hidden in Albert Park yesterday.

'ONE OF BEST'

It was the eighth anual Easter egg hunt sponsored by the San Rafael 20-30 Club, and "one of the best," said president Don Miller.

Four separate hunts were held for different age groups, and prizes awarded to finders of lucky eggs.

Fifteen children participated in a "crazy hat" contest, and prizes went to the craziest, prettiest and most unusual hats. Games and races followed the egg hunt. Every child received an Easter basket with candy.

Members of the Key Club of San Rafael High School helped organize the activities. Prizes were donated by local merchants.

They had both scrambled eggs and scrambles for eggs at Sabella's restaurant yesterday.

Everybody was happy but the management as a record throng of 700, including more than 300 lively youngsters, turned out for the fourth annual Sabella Easter Egg Hunt and brunch. Only 300 reservations had been made.

"Our service was far from up to par," lamented owner Angelo Sabella, "but what are

U.N. Approves Dag's Congo Fiscal Powers

Stopgap Resolution Passed Despite Soviet Opposition

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. General Assembly today overrode bitter Soviet opposition and approved a temporary extension of Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold's Congo spending powers.

The vote on the stopgap resolution was 51-10 with 22 abstentions. The negative votes were cast by the Soviet bloc and Mali.

CHALLENGES LEGALITY

Soviet delegate A. A. Roshchin challenged the legality of the assembly's action. He said the United Nations is carrying out the Congo operation in the interest of the colonial powers and is pushing itself into bankruptcy by actions which violate the U.N. charter.

"From top to bottom," Roshchin said, "the operation has been guided by the colonial powers."

The resolution authorizes Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold to go on spending eight million dollars a month on the military and civilian operations in the African territory up to April 21, closing date of the assembly session.

RAN OUT FRIDAY

Hammarskjold's previous three-month spending authorization ran out Friday night, the day after the budgetary committee approved the Indian resolution 38-9 with 23 abstentions.

The temporary authorization to Hammarskjold gives the budget committee more time to seek a way of financing the U.N. Congo force and attached civilian employees through 1961.

Eighteen Latin-American countries are submitting a financing plan to the committee calling for the five permanent members of the Security Council—the United States, Britain, France, the Soviet Union and Nationalist China—to pay 70 per cent of the Congo operation. Countries whose public and private investment in the Congo exceeds one million dollars each would pay 25 per cent. The other 5 per cent of the 120-million-dollar cost estimated for 1961 would be divided among all other U.N. members.

Kennedy To Visit DeGaulle In Paris

Wife Will Go With President

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President John F. Kennedy will fly to Paris May 31 for three days of talks with French President Charles de Gaulle.

Announcing this today, the president's vacation headquarters said he will be accompanied by his wife, Jacqueline.

In reply to questions, White House press secretary Pierre Salinger told a news conference that at this time he knows of no plans for Kennedy to visit other European capitals in connection with the Paris trip.

FIRST TRIP

The Paris visit will be Kennedy's first trip abroad as president. He will go to Canada in advance of going to France.

Plans for a trip to Ottawa to address the Canadian Parliament were announced earlier. Indications now are that Kennedy will go to Ottawa perhaps two weeks before visiting Paris.

Kennedy plans to leave for Paris by jet plane, probably on the night of May 30. He will leave Washington May 29 to attend a "Salute to Kennedy" dinner in Boston marking his 44th birthday, then go on to New York the next day for a dinner being given to raise funds to fight cancer.

NEVER MET

Kennedy's talks with de Gaulle, whom he has never met, will complete a round of conversations with the Big Three leaders of Western Europe.

The president met eight days ago at Key West, Fla., with Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan for discussion of the Laos crisis. They will resume their talks on this and

ST. PAUL NEEDS BOTTLE; HOSPITAL MEETS CRISIS

A woman dashed into the emergency room at San Rafael General Hospital yesterday morning and demanded, "Can we buy a baby bottle? We want to feed St. Paul!"

Mrs. Mary Clark, emergency room nurse, looked wildly out the window in the direction indicated by her caller and saw "St. Paul"—a baby lamb in the back seat of a waiting car.

He was emitting a brisk series of "baa! baa!" outcries indicating that the emergency was real.

That is how it happened that 8 a.m. hospital arrivals were amazed to see a nurse standing on the hospital's front steps, feeding a tiny but eager lamb from a bottle.

"It was a real emergency," she explained later. "That woman was a former patient (Mrs. William L. Ziegler of 1185 Butterfield Road in Sleepy Hollow) and somebody had given her a lamb for an Easter present, and she had a formula but no bottle and the drugstores were all closed Easter morning."

Fast progress was being made by St. Paul, according to reports from the Ziegler home later in the day.

"He's out eating grass now," said Zeigler. "From the looks of it I won't have to mow our lawn for a while."

Man With Record Of 70 Burglaries Nabbed Here

A man who admitted 70 burglaries in the Livermore area was arrested last night in San Anselmo attempting to enter the Tanner Medical Center at 190 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

Arrested was Charles Claude Cox, 38, who gives no address. He was to stand trial in Oakland tomorrow for four counts of burglary, said San Anselmo Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani. He was free on $2,600 bail from Alameda County Jail at the time of the arrest.

Officer Andy Grimes of San Anselmo police, making a routine investigation of the area at 9:45 p.m., "heard clicking sounds" coming from the rear of the medical center. He went to the back of the building and saw Cox walking toward him, putting something in his back pocket as he did so.

Cox told the officer he lived across the street. He said two men were attempting to break into the medical center. Grimes then grabbed Cox, spun him around and saw that the object which Cox had put into his back pocket was a pry bar.

As Cox was being arrested at gun-point, he appeared to collapse on three occasions and was helped to his feet by Grimes. During the questioning of Cox after the arrest, he admitted faking the passing-out spells, in an attempt to catch Grimes off guard, Chief Buchignani reported.

In Cox's possession were two pen-light flashlights and batteries, a pocket knife, a skeleton key, a magnifying glass, two screw drivers, the pry bar and a pair of gloves which he was wearing at the time of the arrest.

After Cox's arrest, police found two other businesses near the medical center on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard had been broken into: the R. G. Fontana Printing Co. at 316 Sir Francis Drake and the W. J. Murray Real Estate office at 198 Sir Francis Drake.

The rear doors of both had been broken and papers were strewn throughout both offices. Apparently nothing was stolen from the offices, police said.

Cox was booked in the county jail and charged with burglary. His bail was to be set today.

Heynen, at 59 a 26-year veteran in the Sausalito Post Office, was named acting postmaster Saturday, succeeding Mrs. Dorothy E. Finn.

Heynen started with the post office as a carrier and has been assistant postmaster since Jan. 1, 1944. During this period he helped "break in" three postmasters: Earl Dunphy, Thomas Bradley and Mrs. Finn. He is a Democrat.

Mrs. Finn was named acting postmaster on the retirement of Bradley on April 30, 1959. However, her name was not submitted to the Senate by President Dwight D. Eisen-

Marin Victim Of Laos Crash Due U.S. Burial

The body of Francis P. Corrigan of Larkspur, U.S. Information Service officer killed in a plane crash in Laos, will be flown to the United States for burial, the Associated Press reported today from Bangkok, Thailand.

Corrigan, 35, who lived in Larkspur until he left for the assignment in Laos, was killed Friday when the engine failed as a plane he had chartered was taking off from a small dirt airstrip at the town of Hong Sa. The pilot and a Laotian army major with Corrigan were seriously injured, the AP reported.

Corrigan had been in charge of the U.S. Information Service branch in Luang Prabang, the royal Laotian capital, since 1957. He was en route back to Luang Prabang after a routine film delivery trip, according to the report from Bangkok.

He was believed to be the eighth American killed in plane crashes in Laos in the past two weeks. Seven military men are believed to have died March 23 when the plane of the U.S. Military attache in Vientiane was shot down over rebel-held territory. One officer reportedly parachuted but his fate is not known so far.

Corrigan's body was flown to Bangkok. His wife and two children were taken to the Thai capital in January because of the civil war in Laos. The children are an 18-month-old son, Raymond and an adopted Laotian daughter, Kathrine, 2.

Corrigan's brother, William, a Mill Valley attorney and member of the legal firm of Bagshaw, Schaal, Martinelli and Weissich in San Rafael, had left town today, leaving word at his office that he would be back late this week, but it could not be learned whether he had flown to Bangkok.

Little Burner Co. Site, Buildings To Be Auctioned

H. C. Little Burner Co.'s five-acre site, plant, buildings and surplus equipment in San Rafael will be sold at auction April 12, R. H. Ginther, vice president and general manager, said today.

Production at the heating equipment plant ended March 10. An earlier announcement of the firm's shutdown said the immediate reason was that the parent firm of Bastian-Morley Co. of La Porte, Ind., lost a water heater contract with the nationwide Crane Co.

Ginther said several sales, administrative and clerical employees had been transferred to a smaller plant in Sebastopol, Temperature and Appliance Manufacturing Co., also a subsidiary of Bastian-Morley.

Bill Passed To Ease Lobbyist Penalties

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The Assembly, by a 62-15 vote, today approved a lobby control bill that would wipe out stiff penalties placed in the law after the Artie Samish scandals of 10 years ago.

In place of the current maximum penalty of a year in prison and a $5,000 fine, and a three-year ban on lobbying activities, the bill provides merely for a fine of not more than $1,000.

KENNEDYS LEAVE CHURCH—President and Mrs. John F. Kennedy, each carrying a missal, leave St. Edward's Catholic Church in Palm Beach yesterday after attending Easter services. The first family is spending the holidays at Palm Beach. (AP Wirephoto)

Strict Security Guard Placed On Kennedys

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy and his family remained under tight protective security today—the last full day of their Easter visit to Florida.

The extra heavy security precautions, due to kidnap and murder threats against the first family by pro-Castro Cubans in the area, will continue until the president, his wife and their two children fly back to Washington tomorrow afternoon.

Seldom have a president and his wife been more heavily protected in peacetime than the Kennedy's were yesterday when they attended Easter Mass at St. Edward's Roman Catholic Church here. The number of Secret Service agents in and around the church was about twice the normal complement. They also were augmented by state and local police.

Once the Kennedys are back in the well-organized safety of the White House, the current federal investigation of the recently reported threats may take a different direction.

Until this morning, authorities have kept prime suspects under surveillance, particularly to see that four or more Cubans in the Palm Beach area do not slip away to Havana. Of the four Cubans principally involved, one has been described as part of an intelligence relay system between south Florida and the Castro government.

Once the presidential family has left the area and calmer conditions permit a switch of manpower from protection to investigation, efforts are expected to determine more extensively the background of Cubans to whom the kidnap and murder threats have been traced.

Summery weather ideal for sightseeing and current publicity about kidnap threats directed at 3-year-old Caroline Kennedy, daughter of the president, produced a heavy flow of tourists yesterday past the home of the chief executive's father, former Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy.

About a thousand persons gathered in the vicinity of the church when Kennedy and his wife, Jacqueline, chic in a new blue ensemble of shantung silk with matching pillbox hat of blue straw, arrived for 10 a.m. High Mass.

A avoid possible danger in the crowd packed around the front of the church, Secret Service agents led the Kennedys through a side door of the church. The president sat across the church from his normal pew and Secret Service agents stood in the aisle beside him, an unusual security measure taken because of many standees at the Mass.

Easter Services Draw Millions

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Easter services drew millions of American Christians to the nation's churches and traditional shrines and reached countless others over coast-to-coast broadcasts.

Generally clear and cold weather, marked here and there by weekend snow, greeted worshippers at sunrise services. An estimated 20,000 persons filled the Hollywood Bowl at dawn and 30,000 attended sunrise services in the nation's capital.

More than 6,000 persons braved a four-inch snowfall and subfreezing temperatures to attend early services at the Cathedral in the Pines at Rindge, N. H., where crews worked four hours during the night clearing roads and parking lots at the non-denominational memorial to America's war dead.

At Bar Harbor, Me., sunrise services were held indoors when snow and sleet forced cancellation of services atop Mount Cadillac. Easter celebrants used skiers' chair lifts to reach services in three to four inches of snow on 4,393-foot Mount Mansfield at Stowe, Vt.

Young pacifists pleaded for disarament in parades in New York during services in the city's packed churches. More than 100 members of the Society of Friends assembled at sunrise in Times Square to pray for peace in the Quaker tradition.

At Memphis, Tenn., several persons were injured when a temporary bleachers collapsed beneath more than 350 worshippers at Memorial Park Cemetery.

Sunrise services atop Bald Knob Mountain in southern Illinois drew about 1,500 persons, including 19 families who camped overnight beneath a towering 111-foot cross.

In Chicago, worshippers flocked to dawn services in the city's new Lakefront Exposition Hall and at Arlington Park Race Track. Temperatures hovered in the high 20s.

Majestic outdoor settings surrounded Easter services in nearly every state. An estimated 10,000 persons gathered at sunrise at Red Rocks Park west of Denver. More than 1,500 worshipped at the Garden of the Gods near Colorado Springs. The Lakewood Riding Club of Denver held mounted services with several hundred spectators at the Jefferson County Fairgrounds.

Atop 11,300-foot Ajax Mountain near Aspen, Colo., services were held for 200 persons who rode a three-mile sky lift in windy weather.

About 6,000 persons attended the 50th sunrise service on Mount Rubidoux at Riverside, and 5,000 worshipped in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena.

Rites In Holy Land

JERUSALEM (UPI)—The holiest shrines of Christendom were bathed with Easter warmth and harmony yesterday as sunshine conquered a week of rain and cold.

Ten thousand pilgrims in the old walled city of Jerusalem and the native Christians doffed their raincoats and scarves to celebrate the resurrection of Christ by visiting the shrines of his passion, death and resurrection.

Easter Exodus

BERLIN (UPI)—The Easter weekend saw a massive exodus of refugees crossing to freedom from Communist oppression in East Germany.

Refugee officials predicted the flow would continue Easter Monday, a holiday in Germany. They said the total number of refugees since Good Friday probably would reach 7,000—which is more than twice the number registered here in an average week.

Blustery Parade

It was chilly, it was windy and it even snowed for a few minutes, but an estimated 700,000 persons turned up to show off their spring finery, or to watch bundled in overcoats.

The Easter parade crowd was the second smallest in recent years, exceeding only the thin march in 1958, when it rained. Record turnout, in 1955, was two million.

300,000 Hear Pope

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—Pope John XXIII yesterday addressed a crowd of more than 300,000 persons gathered in cobblestone square in front of St. Peter's Cathedral.

The pontiff, wearing the jewel-encrusted triple crown of his office, said the happy religious feast of Easter tempered the distress he felt at the state of the world and the "terrifying actions of a great number of men."

Cardinal Defies Reds

WARSAW (UPI)—Stefan Cardinal Wyszynski, in his Easter message to the congregation at St. John's Cathedral, said persons trying to silence the Roman Catholic Church will fail.

The cardinal has recently been engaged in a bitter battle of words with Communist Party chief Wladyslaw Gomulka over the rights of the church in Poland.

Vast crowds swarmed to Warsaw's churches for Easter services.

Service Agency Seeks U.S. Funds

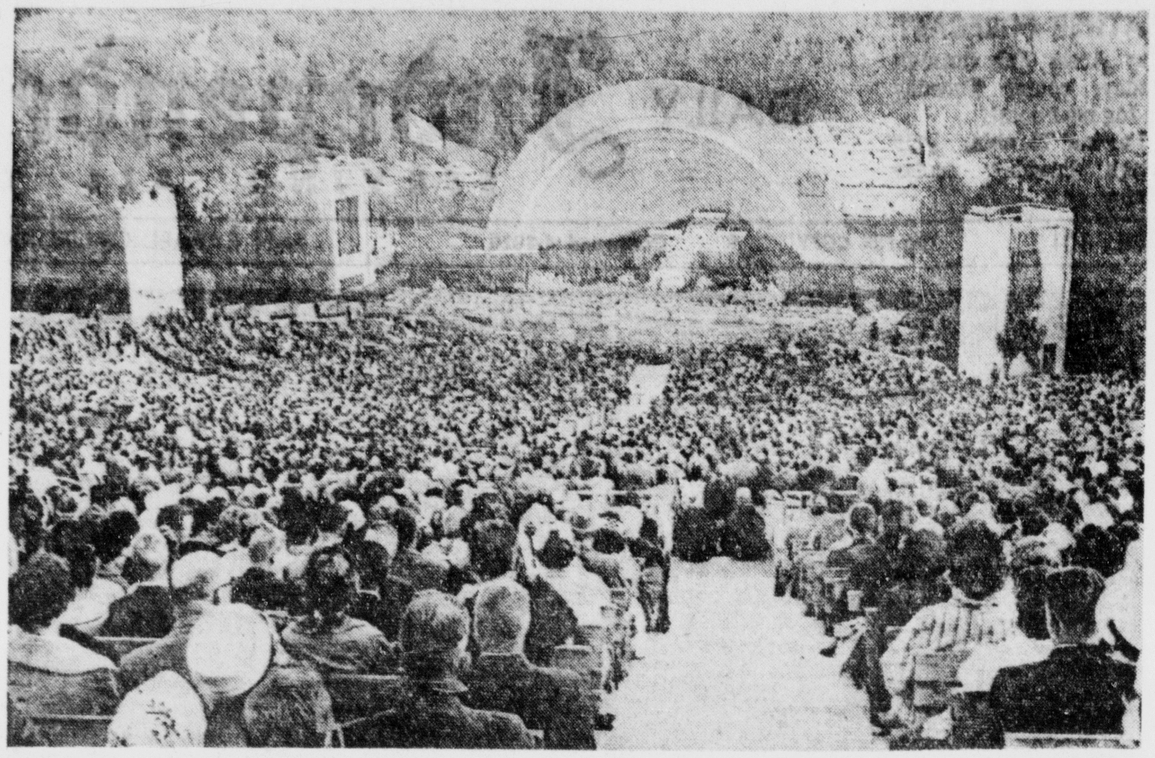

Marin County Family Service Agency has applied for $1,000 in federal mental health fund assistance from the state Department of Mental Hygiene.

The Marin agency's request is for psychiatric consultation to the family service agency.

Forty-three agencies in California are seeking $585,110 in all, but available funds will probably cover less than half of that amount, according to Dr. Daniel Blain, department director.

Skunk, Stroller Fight To An Odorous Draw

A discourteous skunk blocked the way of Newton Adair Dukes of 301 G Street, San Rafael, as Dukes was taking a stroll down Robert Dollar Drive just before 8 p.m. Saturday. What was more, the skunk opened fire and scored a direct hit.

Dukes figured he had nothing to lose at that stage and began walloping the skunk with his cane. Presently the skunk lay still.

Worrying about rabies, Dukes went to San Rafael police, who assured him there was no danger if there had been no biting. They then accompanied him to have a look at the skunk body.

But the skunk had played possum and then departed. Sgt. Carl Selby believes Dukes' story, reporting "You could smell the whole area and you could smell Dukes, too."

Freak mishap proves fatal

NEW YORK (UPI) — Wallingford Riegger, 75, a ranking American classical composer, died yesterday four days after falling to the sidewalk in a freak accident when he became entangled in the leashes of two fighting dogs.

Riegger entered the hospital after the accident Thursday. He underwent brain surgery Friday.

Riegger, who had just received the 1961 Creative Arts Award of Brandeis University, composed many works which most U.S. symphonies include in their repertory.

Peiping Threatens 'Korea' Over Laos Intervention

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Red China today held a threat over the West to turn Laos into another Korea if the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization sends troops into the strife-torn Indochina kingdom.

Peiping's Foreign Minister Chen Yi, winding up a visit to Indonesia, told newsmen that if SEATO sends troops into Laos, "then China will also send troops."

Marshal Chen Yi, who commanded the Chinese Communist 3rd Army before becoming foreign minister, alluded to SEATO's warning that it was prepared to take "appropriate action" to prevent an armed Communist takeover in Laos.

The plump, balding marshal insisted "that up to now China has not taken part in the Laotian civil war."

"Remember China was compelled to participate in the Korean War only after the U.S. forces went to our border beyond the Yalu River," Chen said.

The foreign minister said Peiping's solution to the fighting between pro-Western and pro-Communist forces in Laos is to "let the Laotian people settle their differences themselves and withdraw all foreign intervention. This would insure peace and neutrality in the country."

Chen Yi left before newsmen got a chance to question him about Moscow's latest proposals on Laos. But Peiping has declared a willingness to participate in the proposed 14-nation conference on the political future of Laos.

A communique on Chen Yi's talks with Indonesian President Sukarno contended that the United Nations efforts to solve world problems would be seriously weakened unless Peiping is admitted to membership in the international organization.

On Laos and the Congo, the two leaders declared: "All foreign intervention in all its forms and manifestations in these two countries should be discontinued."

Sukarno was depicted by Indonesian Foreign Minister Subandrio as a possible mediator in the bitter feud between Washington and Peiping. But Sukarno promised support for Red China's claim to Formosa in exchange for Chinese support of Indonesia's claim to Dutch New Guinea.

Subandrio said the Indonesian president during his visit to Washington later this month would be willing to discuss with President John F. Kennedy "sources of friction" between the United States and Red China and to try to resolve them.

U.S.-Supplied 'Copters Fly Mission In Laos

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI)—Five new American-supplied helicopters, assembled by U.S. Marines in neighboring Thailand, made their first supply runs today to "front line" areas of Laos.

The helicopters were among 16 given by the United States to the Laotian government to ease critical supply and communication problems faced by government forces.

They apparently flew supplies on their initial mission to hard-pressed government troops near the embattled village of Tha Thom in Xieng Khouang Province.

The helicopters arrived here from Udorn, Thailand, where they had been assembled by a contingent of U.S. Marines sent into Thailand last month to service the craft. They were piloted by Americans in civilian clothes. The five new helicopters were accompanied by four older craft which have been in use for some time in Laos.

Wylma Cunningham, head of the home economics department at San Rafael High School, attended a meeting of the State Home economics association in San Francisco last week. She is on the state executive board and newly elected president of the Bay Section.

British Foreign Minister Will Confer With Rusk On Laos

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lord Home, the British foreign minister, arrives here tonight to start preliminary work with Secretary of State Dean Rusk on a Western reply to the Soviet Union's note on Laos.

They are expected to have a draft reply ready when Prime Minister Harold Macmillan reaches here late tomorrow afternoon for conferences with President John F. Kennedy.

U.S. officials speculated it is unlikely the reply will be delayed until the end of Macmillan's visit. The U.S. and British evaluations of the Soviet note virtually are identical.

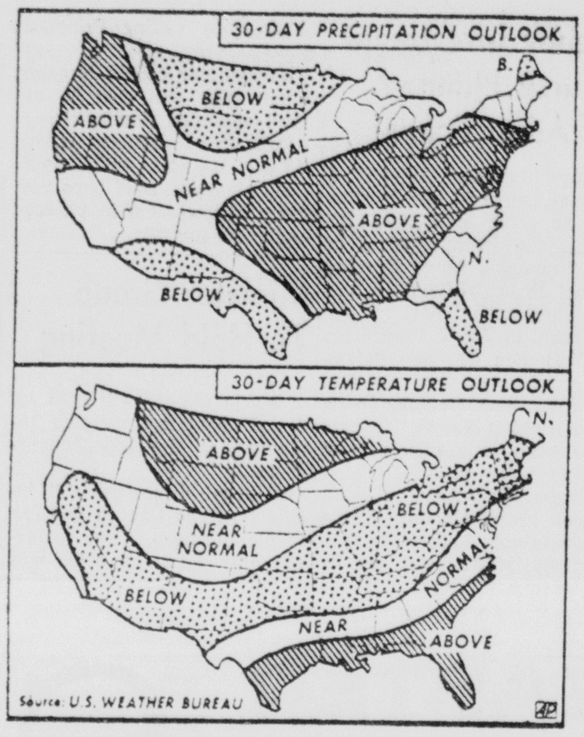

The Soviet Union, in its note to Britain last Saturday, agreed with the British proposal to hold a 14-nation conference on the political future of Laos, but remained vague on the timing of a cease-fire, which the British, backed by the United States, proposed as a first step.

Kennedy said in a statement that he viewed the Soviet note as a "useful next step toward peaceful settlement of a potentially dangerous situation."

In Laos, fighting subsided Sunday as military sources reported no new major encounters with pro-Communist rebels. The government said Saturday the rebels were attacking three major points in eastern and southern Laos.

In Washington, officials cautioned that claims of the royal Laotian government about a large-scale rebel offensive should be considered with reservations.

Rusk and his top aides, among them Charles E. Bohlen, ranking Soviet expert, and Richard Usher, deputy director of the State Department's Southeast Asian Office, met for almost three hours yesterday.

Nuclear Weapon Foes Hold Big London Rally

LONDON (AP)—About 40,000 "ban the bomb" demonstrators assembled in a drizzle in the heart of London today for a mass rally climaxing a four-day march protesting nuclear weapons.

"We stand for sanity in a mad world," Earl Bertrand Russell, 88, philosopher and dean of the nuclear disarmament movement, told the cheering crowd. "The possibility of complete disaster remains deadly and immediate. Nuclear war in the near future is probable unless East and Western governments change their policies."

He spoke from in front of Nelson's monument in Trafalgar Square after two columns of demonstrators had limped in soggily after treks through the British countryside.

Oraganizers had hoped for a turnout exceeding the 70,000 who jammed the square last year at the end of the annual Easter march from the gates of Britain's nuclear weapons arsenal at Aldermaston, 54 miles southwest of London. But bad weather kept many away. Marchers from Aldermaston and from a U.S. base at Wethersfield converged at the square.

Red Chinese To Release U.S. Captive

LONDON (UPI) — Communist China has agreed to free critically ill Robert McCann of Altadena, an American businessman serving a 15-year term for "espionage," the Communist New China news agency reported today.

The agency said McCann will leave Communist China Wednesday with his wife, who flew to China to visit him when she was told he was dying of cancer. The agency said she arrived March 28 to appeal for his release.

Lumumbist Official Plans Peace Try

LEOPOLDVILLE (AP)—In the role of mediator, a Lumumbist official who is on speaking terms with President Joseph Kasavubu's central government arranged a peace flight today to the rebel stronghold in Stanleyville.

Cleophas Kamitatu, leftist president of Leopoldville Province, said he would sound out Antoine Gizenga, head of the Stanleyville regime, about joining the confederation of Congolese states that the Congo's anti-Communist political leaders are putting together.

The U.N. Congo command agreed to give Kamitatu transportation to the rebel capital 775 miles northeast of Leopoldville, but it is not a party to any negotiations.

Gizenga, who calls himself premier of all the Congo and is recognized by the Soviet-led Communist bloc and a few African states, has snubbed previous bids to join the new confederation.

Kamitatu emphasized that he was undertaking his mission as a neutral and not as an emissary of the Kasavubu government.

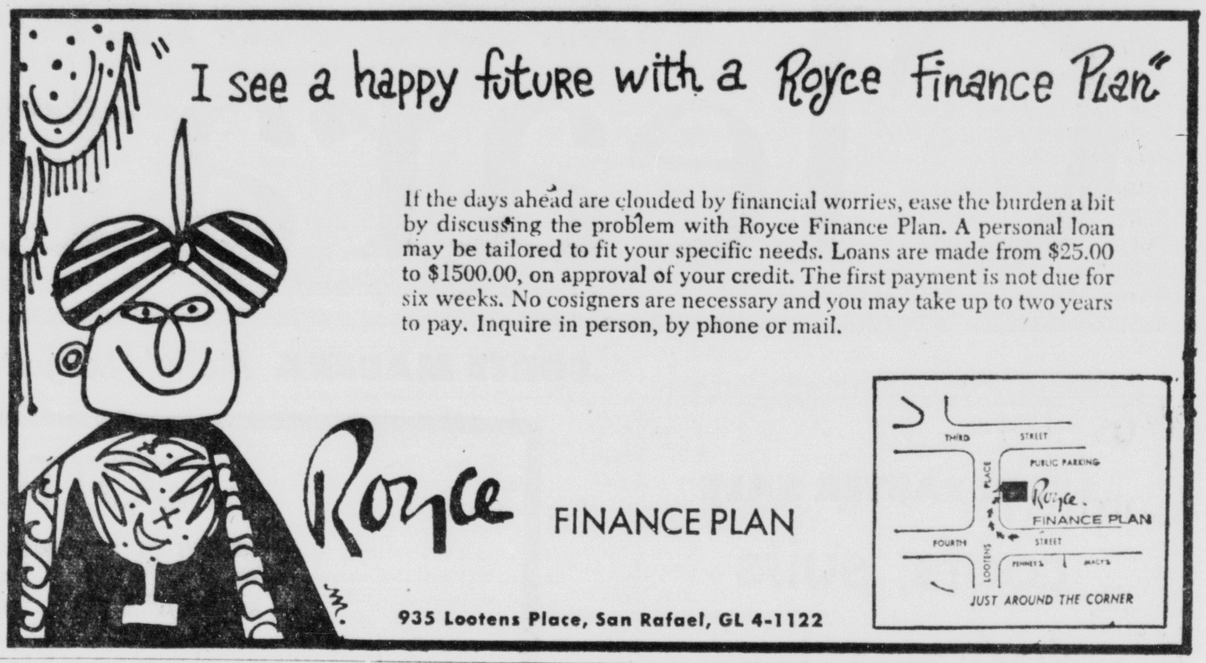

Kamitatu and Gizenga were both political associates of the slain Patrice Lumumba, who had advocated a strong central government.

School Board To Discuss Expelling Boy

Whether to expel a pupil for "disturbing and obstructing education of other pupils" will be considered by Mill Valley School District trustees at their meeting at 8 o'clock tonight at Alto School.

Supt. G. Robert McConnell said a closed session with the child's parents may be held to discuss expulsion.

The board will also hear a proposal from the American Little League of Mill Valley that it develop a baseball field and playground on school site property at Eastwood and Glenwood Avenues in Tamalpais Valley.

What has time done to your life insurance?

Everyone knows what can happen to the performance of a car that isn't serviced regularly. The same risk of "poor performance" holds true for your life insurance if you neglect to keep it up to date. Time brings changes in your life that in turn create the need for a review of your policies. Perhaps new beneficiaries should be appointed. Perhaps the method by which benefits are to be paid, either by income or by single amount, is no longer in your family's best interest. What would a careful review of your policies reveal? That you have more than enough life insurance — or that time has brought new needs for protection and saving?

By keeping in touch with the Man from Manufacturers you can be sure your life insurance is arranged to do the job you want it to do. Why not call him for a policy "check-up" today?

BUNNY LEADS 'MAGIC CIRCLE' HOP

Children of San Rafael city employees had their own Easter Egg hunt Saturday afternoon in Boyd Park. Candy eggs for all of the children followed the hunt with special prizes being awarded finders of lucky eggs. Hopping around the "magic fairy circle" are the Easter bunny (who bore a striking resemblance to Aurora Leveroni, secretary in the city clerk's office); Debbie Mick, 9, daughter of Walter Mick, maintenance superintendent; Gary Diego, 6, son of Capt. John Diego of the fire department, and Valerie Leveroni, 8. Debbie won the first prize in the Easter hat contest and Julia Diego, Gary's sister, won the booby prize. Winners of the sack race were Edward Schaefer, first, and Robert Schaefer, second, sons of George Schaefer, fire department engineer. (Independent-Journal photo)

5 Seek Lagunitas School Board Jobs

(This is the ninth in a series of stories introducing candidates for school boards in the April 18 elections.)

Five candidates, including the three incumbents, are seeking election to the Lagunitas Elementary School District board on April 18.

The three winners will get four-year terms. Two holdover members of the board will serve another two years.

The election campaign in Lagunitas District has been quiet in comparison with some of those of the past. The district has just opened bids for an addition to its school. A long-drawn-out fight over whether to add to the present school or build another at Woodacre seems to have been effectively laid to rest.

Here is a rundown on the candidates:

WINIFRED S. FREDERICK, 41, of Lagunitas is completing a three-year term on the board to which she was elected in 1958. She is the wife of Stanley R. Frederick, an office assistant in the general offices of Pacific Gas and Electric Co. in San Francisco. They are 15-year residents of the San Geronimo Valley. They have a son attending Drake High School, a daughter at Lagunitas School and a son not yet in school.

Mrs. Frederick has had bookkeeping and accounting experience and at one time operated the Browse Awhile Bookshop in San Rafael. She was educated in public and parochial schools and had two years of college. She is a director of the San Geronimo Valley Assn. and a member of the legislative committee of the Marin County School Boards Assn.

Says Mrs. Frederick: "I have worked very hard to learn to be an effective trustee and I have no doubt that this experience can be of use to the district.

"I believe most strongly that public school business should be conducted out in the open where the public can see it and that the community which supports the schools should have some say in the management. . . . I think schools can be managed more efficiently by applying methods used in business . . . I stand for a curriculum based on basic education, with a realistic approach toward preparing the child to think for himself and grow up as an individual rather than part of the herd."

JOHN F. NIELSEN Jr., 37, is Forest Knolls postmaster. He and his wife, Evelyn, have seven children.

Nielsen was born in San Francisco and completed his education at San Francisco City College and University of California at Davis. He was an Army Air Force staff sergeant in World War II, with service in Europe.

GEORGETTE H. VILAS, 38, of Woodacre is the wife of Robert M. Vilas, a Bank of America executive. They have two sons who have gone through the eighth grades of Lagunitas School, one being now in the Air Force and the other a student at Drake High School.

JOHN T. KEILTY

GLEN E. TWITCHELL

Mrs. Vilas also is completing a three-year term on the Lagunitas board. She is a member of both Drake High School and Lagunitas Parent-Teacher Assns.

A native San Franciscan, she attended San Francisco City College and St. Luke's School of Nursing.

Mrs. Vilas, a 14-year Woodacre resident, is a member of the Marin County Council for Prevention of Delinquency and Crime and of the Woodacre Improvement Club. She is secretary of the San Geronimo Valley Assn. and a charter member of the San Geronimo Valley Horsemen's Assn. She is a Blue Bird sponsor.

JOHN T. KEILTY, 33, of Woodacre is manager of the Household Finance Corp. office in San Rafael. He and his wife, Shirley, have two children. He is seeking election to the school board for the first time.

Keilty is a former president of the Woodacre Improvement Club, former secretary-treasurer of the San Geronimo Valley Lions Club. He was chairman of a school district committee that recommended the present building program and is now on a citizen curriculum study committee.

He was born in Grand Rapids, Mich., attended Western Washington College and has a B.S. degree in business administration from University of San Francisco.

"It behooves us all to see that the money spent (on schools) is doing the maximum toward . . . providing our children with educational opportunity at least equal to that provided other children with whom they will be associated later in life," says Keilty.

GLEN E. TWITCHELL, 30, the second challenger, lives in Lagunitas and is a consulting engineer with the firm of Earl and Wright in San Francisco. He and his wife, Anne, have four children, the eldest eight years and the youngest 18 months.

Twitchell has lived in Marin County seven years and in Lagunitas five years. He was born in Watsonville and has a B.S. degree from University of California at Berkeley.

"I believe there is room for improvement in the management of the school board's affairs, and feel that I am capable and would be helpful in attaining a direct and rational approach to all the district's problems," says Twitchell.

Was John Birch A Hero? Wartime Comrades Voice Differing Views

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Different views were voiced today on the death of John Birch, for whom the right-wing John Birch Society was named.

Birch, then an Army captain, was killed Aug. 25, 1945, while on an intelligence mission for the Office of Strategic Services in central China.

In Billings, Mont., a radio-TV executive, Joseph Sample, who served in the same OSS outfit as Birch, said in an interview: "There was no real object lesson in Birch's death and certainly no glory."

In Los Angeles, stockbroker William P. Weiss Jr.—onetime OSS officer who made up the mission on which Birch was killed — said: "Certainly John was just as much a hero as any other American soldier who died for his country."

In Pasadena, a Los Angeles suburb, manufacturer Gustav J. Krause — another wartime comrade of Birch—said: "He brought about his own death. He didn't die the hero he was supposed to have died."

The John Birch Society, under fire from some national magazines, and newspapers and some congressmen, has been accused of using Fascist tactics in its self-appointed task of fighting communism.

Birch, a missionary's son who spoke fluent Chinese, was shot by the leader of a group of Communist Chinese.

Sample, president of KOOK and KOOK-TV in Billings, said Birch's patrol ran into "a force of Chinese Reds. The Chinese were understandably disturbed by what seemed to them an unwarranted intrusion of their area and demanded an explanation.

"Captain Birch chose to bluff his way out of a difficult situation. Harsh words led to insults and insults to arrogance."

Weiss, who lives in suburban Alhambra, said: "He (Birch) was risking his life over and above the normal hazards required of our services during the war on a volunteer basis. Unfortunately, he wasn't as skilled as he should have been. But he certainly is just as much a hero, as he died for his country in trying conditions."

High Court To Review Labor Figures' Cases

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court agreed today to review the convictions of two labor union figures — Dave Beck, once-powerful former boss of the Teamsters, and Maurice A. Hutcheson, president of the Carpenters Union.

Beck, who was supplanted as president of the Teamsters Union by James R. Hoffa, had been found guilty by a Washington state court of pocketing $1,900 from the sale of a union-owned Cadillac.

Hutcheson had been sentenced to six months in jail and fined $500 on contempt charges for refusing to answer questions of a Senate committee investigating alleged Indiana highway scandals in 1958. He has been president of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters (AFL-CIO) since 1952.

The Supreme Court agreed to hear arguments in their cases sometime next fall and hand down decisions later.

In other action today, the court:

1. Refused to consider a legal conflict over damage suits filed by coal operators against the United Mine Workers of America. At issue were strikes which involved what sort of collective bargaining agreements call for arbitration.

2. Let stand a lower court ruling that the next phase of the seven-year legal battle between the Kohler Co. of Wisconsin and the AFL-CIO United Auto Workers Union will be fought out either here or in Chicago courts. Both the company and union are appealing part of a National Labor Relations Board ruling on the prolonged strike which has been going on for more than six years.

Chartered Cities May Lease Only Foreign Trucks

Although a chartered city may not purchase foreign made motor coaches, the city may lease such coaches, ruled Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk today.

California's Buy-American Act prohibits the purchase, under Government Code sections 4300-4305 regulating purchasing of material for public use, but does not prohibit leasing. Contracts for purchase are permitted "only to persons who agree to use or supply only such unmanufactured materials as have been produced in the United States, and only such manufactured materials as have been manufactured in the United States." The expression "materials" includes "articles and supplies." These requirements do not apply to leases.

The ruling came at the request of State Sen. Hugh M. Burns of Fresno, relative to the leasing of motor coaches manufactured in Germany. Deputy Atty. Gen. Paul M. Joseph of Sacramento prepared the opinion.

you going to do when such a crowd descends on you?"

The hunt has been increasingly popular each year but nobody expected anything like yesterday's turnout, said Sabella. More than 500 gaily tinted eggs, some bearing prize-winning numbers, had been hidden around the premises and the hunters almost tore the place to pieces from all accounts.

Eight ponies had been provided for free pony rides and long lines of waiting parents with impatient progeny were a feature of the proceedings.

"Next year we'll be in the new bigger place 200 yards south, and everything will be much better," promised Sabella.

Market's Window, Tile Smashed

An 8-by-5 plate glass window and about 16 square feet of tile on the front of the Village Corner Market at 8 Tamalpais Drive in Corte Madera were smashed sometime Saturday night.

It was not determined whether the damage was done by an automobile or vandals. No aparent attempt at entry was made and nothing was missing from the store, according to owner Harold L. Kelly.

The damage was discovered by Corte Madera police about 1:30 a.m. Sunday. Replacement of the tile was estimated at $90. No estimate was given on the cost of the plate glass window.

Tiburon Fire Board To Study Annexation

Tiburon Fire Protection District commissioners will receive a petition for annexation of the Main Street business area into the district at a meeting today at 7:30 p.m. in the main fire station.

The area being considered for annexation runs from the Corinthian Yacht Club to the Northwestern Pacific Railroad yard, along the waterfront side of main street. The area is now protected by the district but the main portion of it does not pay taxes to the district, commission secretary Kelly J. Wheeler said.

other problems Wednesday in Washington.

And West Germany's Chancellor Konrad Adenauer will be in Washington April 11-12 for conferences with Kennedy.

Kennedy's decision to accept de Gaulle's invitation to go to Paris reflects a change in travel policy as set forth by the White House about the time he took office last January.

At that time, Salinger said Kennedy had no plans to go abroad for international conferences during at least the first six months of his administration.

The decision also reflects an obviously changing Kennedy attitude toward talks at the summit, including meetings with the leaders of friendly nations.

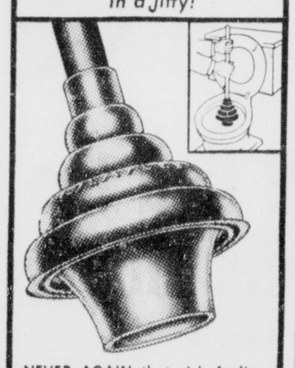

Kennedy's trip to Paris will not be a full-blown state visit. Some of the ceremony and high protocol usually accorded a chief of state will be omitted in order to give the president and de Gaulle more time for working meetings.

JUDGE'S DILEMMA

What's Value Of Chinchilla Taken In '54

Because the market price of chinchillas has dropped from $1,500 to $2,600 a pair in 1954 to $75 to $100 an animal today, Judge Richard M. Sims wants to know how much a man should pay back for nine chinchillas he took seven years ago.

Joseph R. Ferlita, now of Pasadena, who has been on probation in Marin County since 1954, will find out the answer next week.

In 1954 Ferlita was convicted of grand theft for taking the nine chinchillas from Dr. Vaughn Shaw of Corte Madera. He was placed on probation and told to make restitution.

However, the amount of restitution was not set.

Now, Ferlita has moved to Pasadena. Dr. Shaw's whereabouts are unknown.

Judge Sims in Marin Municipal Court today asked Robert Fitch of the probation department to make a recommendation on the amount of restitution. Should it be the value of nine chinchillas in 1954? Or should it be nine chinchillas themselves? Or their value in 1961?

Ferlita has paid $785 in restitution so far on an amount that is still unspecified. Judge Sims will decide next week how much he shall pay.

The council will hear a report from the city engineer on the feasibility of a turn-around on Acacia Avenue and will discuss the community hall remodeling plans and improved fire protection on Crest Road.

Architectural Control To Be Discussed

A public hearing on a proposal to extend city architectural control throughout San Rafael is scheduled for the San Rafael City Council's meeting at 8 o'clock tonight.

Also scheduled is public hearing on rezoning of about 30 acres of Cypress Point from unclassified to single family residential with minimum lot sizes of 7,000 square feet.

The council will open bids on a pickup truck for the fire department, and is expected to award a contract for purchase of a road roller.

F. O. Strom of 215 Picnic Avenue has asked permission to build a retaining wall on the city street right-of-way. The council will decide whether to grant the permission.

School Building Bids Rejected

Reed Union School District rejected all three bids on Del Mar School construction at a special meeting Saturday.

Bids were rejected because they were all over the maximum allowable under state aid, which trustees discovered at their last meeting.

Supt. Paul R. Stouffer said trustees plan to advertise again for bids, with alternate proposals, which will not be set until Stouffer returns from Sacramento today, where he is asking for an increase in the allotment for site development and drainage.

Sewer Board Meet

Directors of the Tiburon Sanitary District will view the engineering report on 350-acre Tiburon uplands area assessment district at a meeting at 7:30 p.m. today in the Tiburon Boulevard treatment plant, according to secretary Robert A. Sterling.

Slight Auto Bump: Sickness Later

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Whiplash probably is the most common type of injury arising from auto accidents —and most Americans have been involved in a motor mishap at one time or another.

Even a lightweight rear end bump could produce a whiplash injury to the neck. The effects of such a bump can be drastic even though the symptoms don't appear until weeks or months after the accident.

The unexpected bump may snap your head back and cause the vertebrae in your neck to lose their normal alignment. Such a displacement can damage nerves, blood vessels and muscles in the neck region. Eventually organs elsewhere in your body may be affected—the heart, liver, kidneys or stomach.

These symptoms, distant from the site of injury can be explained by the fact that nerves supplying all the organs and tissues of the body originate in the brain and are channeled through the bony framework of the spinal column. Consequently, when the spine is jolted by the sudden whiplash in the neck, a vertebrae may be forced out of place and pinch nerves leading to any one of several organs.

Let's take the stomach as an example. Because of damaged nerve supply, the stomach in time will lose its digestive efficiency and ulcers many occur. The cause of the ulcers, however, remains in the neck . . . the vertebra that was jerked out of line.

The science of finding and restoring misaligned vertebrae is the science of Chiropractic. When the nerve interference is removed efficiently and painlessly by a Chiropractic adjustment, nerves will return to normal function and the stomach ulcers eventually will disappear—with the help of time and nature.

Humane Chief Discovers World Opinions Differ

What seems cruel treatment of animals to Britons may not be such in the eyes of Americans, while an African is likely to have ideas different from both, a Marin humanitarian discovered at an Amsterdam meeting.

Mel L. Morse returned to his desk as executive-secretary manager of the Marin County Humane Society in San Rafael today after arriving home Saturday night from a quick trip to participate in conferences of the world council of the World Federation for the Protection of Animals.

Six months ago Morse was appointed by the organization's president, Lyndsay Langwill, to sit on the council, actually its board of directors, and to represent the federation in discussion of use of animals in the entertainment field. He was able to report on preliminary conferences in Hollywood, Washington and New York, and had a background of having in 1950 written a television code

Television has brought almost unprecedented employment of animals, according to Morse, while motion pictures continue to draw an animal talent heavily although vaudeville and circuses have vastly diminished.

"It is curious to notice, how, for example, Americans are accustomed to the rodeo and don't regard it as especially cruel," Morse commented, "but they will consider steeplechasing as in England's popular Grand National a terrible punishment for horses.

"Quite a furor has arisen over Clark Gable's last picture 'The Misfits,' because of its depiction of wild horses in Nevada and methods used in capturing them for food. It's felt that illegal acts have been duplicated.

"As a result, protests have been made by British and African censorship boards shocked by things which are sometimes a matter of interpretation. At the same time these areas often condone practices shocking to us."

Basically the approach is simple and universal, said Morse: "Animals are not to be sacrificed for the sake of entertainment, and they are to be handled in accordance with good humane standards.

"But to sit at a table and determine what is really cruel is sometimes more complicated.

"Methods in creating exciting scenes are sometimes ingenious, as for example in the movies' use of the 'split screen.' A brutal fight between stallions may actually involve horses miles apart—a picture of a trained horse rising on its hind legs, and pawing, put together with quite another scene of another horse.

"Our job is to give guidance as to what producers can do, acceptable methods. Competition is always pressing them to sensationalism."

A veteran of nearly 25 years of humane work, Morse found this first visit to Europe an interesting revelation of the common purpose among humane groups worldwide, although he found varying approaches and intensities.

He said his colleagues were all "hospitable and warm, with language our only barrier," with a need to conduct everything in English, French, German, Spanish and Dutch.

One Indian delegate went considerably beyond the European and American approach, due to religious restrictions.

Morse found that Americans are considerably advanced over European practice in such matters as humane transport of food animals to market and slaughter

"We discussed in general man's relations with animals all over the world," said Morse. "Sometimes improvement in methods can best be gained by the economic approach, for ill-treatment of animals can cause waste and loss."

Illinois Slayer Of 3 Given Life Sentence

OTTAWA, Ill. (UPI)—Chester Otto Weger, convicted bludgeon slayer, today was sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of one of three matrons slain at Starved Rock State Park more than a year ago.

Even before the sentence was pronounced, Weger's mother, Juanita, his wife, Jo Ann, and sister, Mary, clung together in the first row of the courtroom and began to sob.

Judge Leonard Hoffman sentenced Weger after a brief legal battle in which defense attorney John McNamara contended that the jury had been "pressured into returning a guilty verdict."

McNamara introduced an affidavit by juror Harold Herman which told of bailiffs exerting pressure on jurors.

Prosecuting attorney Robert Richardson countered by introducing at least six affidavits from jurors saying "that they had reached a verdict of their own free will."

Hoffman said: "In my judgment, this has been a fair trial. This should serve as a model for other murder investigations in the future.

"I will not let a whimsical affidavit by a juror destroy the verdict of this jury," he said.

New Marin Telephone Book Due Out Soon

Most of Marin County's phone users shortly are going to get a phone book the likes of which they haven't seen before.

Some 70,500 copies of the 1961 directory will be delivered to Pacific Telephone and Telegraph subscribers Wednesday through Saturday.

The cover is in full color for the first time. It features a flight of sleek Hamilton Air Force Base F-101 jets streaking over the Mount Tamalpais radar dome.

The book, biggest ever printed, also has a new 24-page green index as handy reference for the yellow pages.

And there'll be new numbers.

Many San Rafael Glenwood prefixes will be changed to GReenfield 9 as a step toward eventual transfer of their service to a new telephone equipment building.

The new telephone exchange is being established to provide for growth in the northern area of the San Rafael vicinity.

Also appearing will be a UNion 8 prefix for phone users in the new Stinson Beach - Bolinas exchange.

The Marin book will also see first use of all number calling listings in the Bay Area. The PT&T office in Mill Valley will change from DUnlap 8-9000 to 388-9000. San Rafael's PT&T office will change GLenwood 3-9000 to 453-9000. These listings will appear in the introductory, white and yellow page sections.

The book will also have new introductory pages, with improved direct distance dialing and message unit calling instructions. The opening pages contain important police and fire numbers as well.

The book contains 45,503 alphabetical listings, an increase of 7,500 names over the 1960 edition. There are 152 alphabetical pages, up 16 from last year's book.

Cuban Attempt To Intercept U.S. Ship Told

NEW YORK (UPI)—A Cuban gunboat intercepted the Western Union Telegraph Co.'s cable-repair vessel Western Union off Baracoa, Cuba, Friday but was forced to withdraw by U.S. naval forces from Guantanamo Bay, reports reaching here said today.

Capt. R. T. Steadman, skipper of the small communications vessel, radioed Friday that the intercepting gunboat had ordered him to land at Baracoa, a Cuban seaport near Guantanamo.

Later Steadman reported the Western Union had been released and was proceeding on course to Key West, Fla.

A Guantanamo dispatch to the Columbus, Ohio, Dispatch today said the Cubans withdrew when U.S. forces came to the Western Union's aid.

Steadman's two messages were received by a British communications station at Truks Island in the Caribbean and relayed to Western Union headquarters in New York. A spokesman here said he had no information on the role of U.S. naval forces from Guantanamo in getting the vessel released.

The Western Union was returning from a routine cable-repair mission between the Dominican Republic and Puerto Rico at the time of the incident. The vessel is an auxiliary schooner of just under 100 tons and carries a crew of 12.

It was expected at Key West tomorrow or Wednesday, Western Union headquarters reported.

Parking Problems

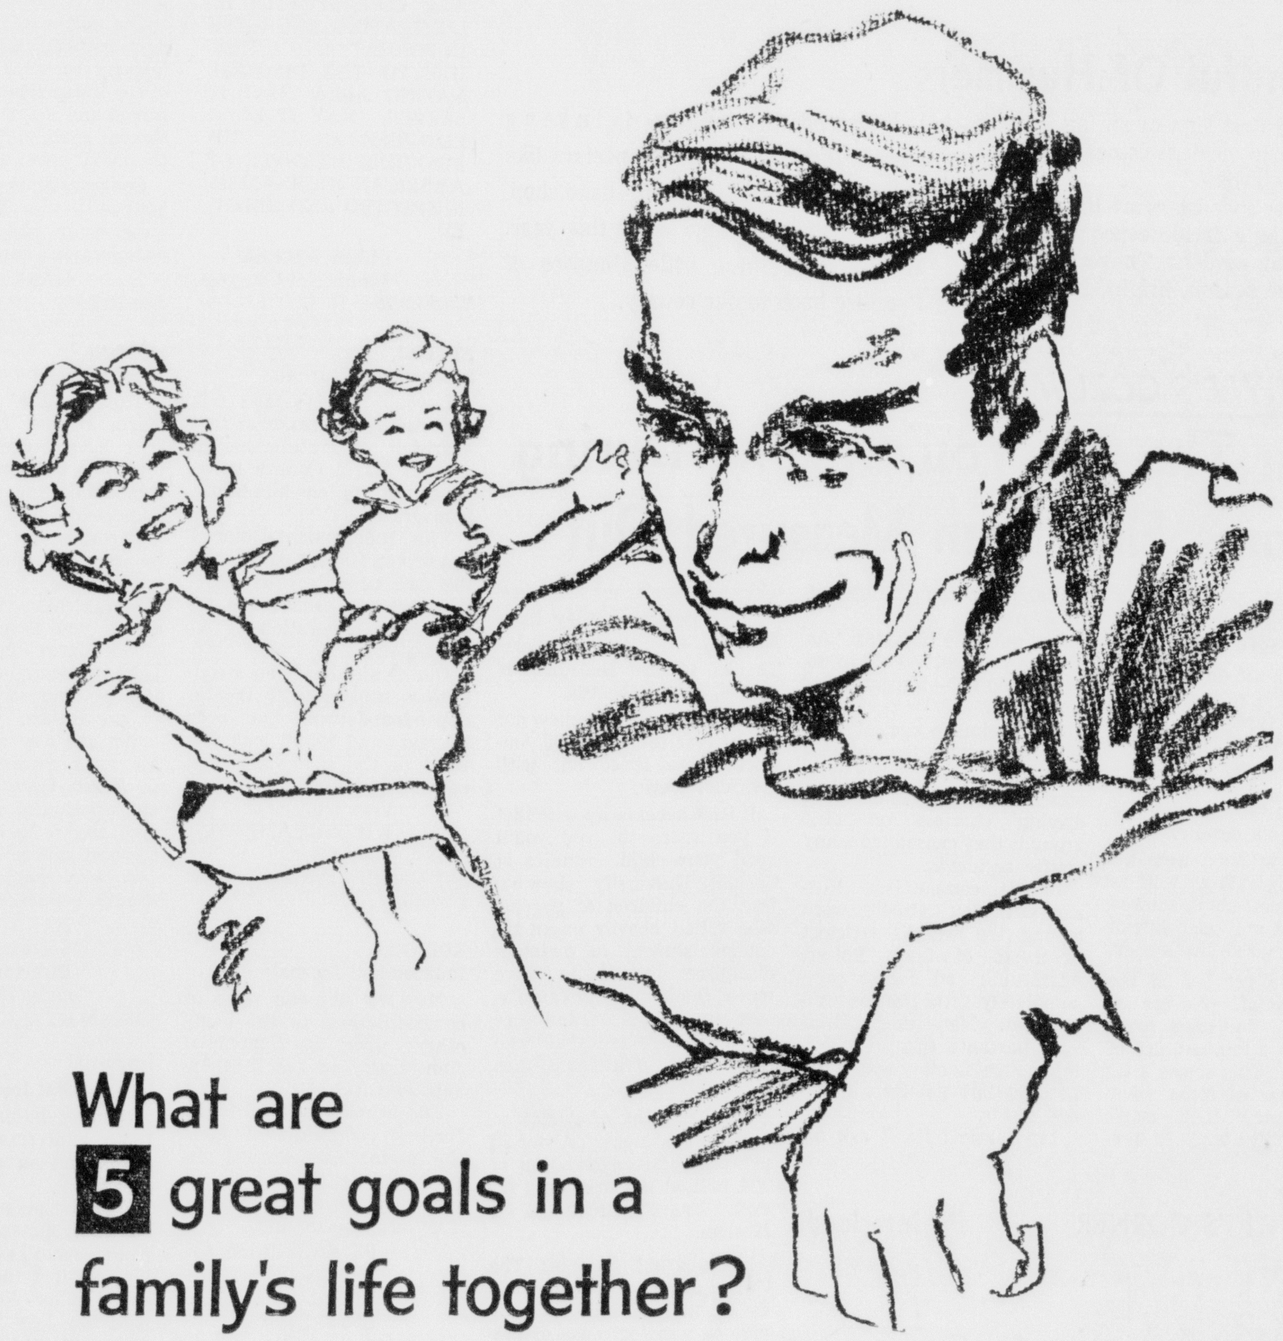

ORLANDO CONTI SAYS:

We need more parking and longer parking areas. We could use some four hour parking areas.

I talked about ramp parking in 1957, because the parking would be closer to the shopping center also with the high cost of the land, also we would not take away all the commercial buildings. But in 1957, ramp parking was a big joke, now they are saying we need ramp parking, because of the high cost of the land. We have used land for our parking lots, and we will use more land. But never in all this time have they replaced our present commercial area that we have used for parking.

We must expand our commercial areas so we may have more and more stores for shoppers, which is one of our great sources of taxes.

How the unique advantages of life insurance can help achieve all of them—bringing peace of mind at the stroke of a pen

1 Protection for the family.
With life insurance, a family is protected right from the start. For only life insurance guarantees, at the stroke of a pen, an amount of money far greater than most couples could save in many years.

2 A secure home.
A prudent husband safeguards the home his family loves by owning enough life insurance to take care of any unpaid mortgage. Life insurance guarantees this protection.

3 College education for their children.
By figuring in advance what it will cost to give their children a college education, parents can make sure—through their life insurance—that college expenses can be met.

4 Freedom to accept new opportunity.
The risks of a new business or job opportunity can be assumed more readily when the family is protected by life insurance. And with life insurance, husband and wife know in advance exactly how much money will be available for an emergency at any given time.

5 Retirement free of anxiety.
A husband and wife can get more pleasure from their later years when they plan their life insurance to provide a steady income which will last for both their lifetimes.

Bill For More State Aid To Junior College Before Solons

Tomorrow afternoon in Sacramento, the Assembly Committee on Education will take up AB 1848 by Assemblyman Carl A. Britschgi (R., Redwood City) which will have a direct affect on the taxpayers of Marin County.

The bill calls for additional state support for junior colleges. Specifically, it would increase the present state support from about 28 per cent of a school's budget to about 33 per cent. The plan calls eventually, by 1975, to increase the state support to 45 per cent.

Reason for the increased state aid is that the state master plan for higher education has assigned an increased role to junior colleges. Under the plan, adopted last year, about 50,000 lower division college students would be diverted to junior colleges rather than to state colleges or universities.

The financial difference between a state college and a junior college is that state revenues mainly support state colleges, while local property taxes support junior colleges. Therefore, so as not to unduely burden local property owners, this bill would switch a slightly larger proportion of the junior college costs to the state.

This makes sense in one way. Junior college education has proven to be less expensive per pupil than in state colleges. Thus by sharing some of its money, the state can actually educate more students for the same expenditure.

But if we think that in getting the money from the state we're not actually paying it ourselves, we're badly mistaken. We are. Where else, but from the taxpayers, does the state's money come?

When the board of trustees of College of Marin recently voted on a resolution urging additional state support for junior colleges, trustee Robert E. Oliver voted No. He said everyone has to take a stand sometime on how far away from home the purse strings of our educational system should reach. This was his time to take his stand. The board passed the resolution over his vote.

We sympathize with Trustee Oliver's position. It costs money to send taxes to Sacramento or Washington and then get some of them back. We shouldn't look to somewhere else for our funds if we can raise them here.

Unfortunately, the decision is not whether or not we should receive support funds from the state. The college already does receive them. It's merely a matter of how much.

It appears to us more equitable, so long as the state is furnishing 88 per cent of state college budgets, 66 per cent of the state university's, 60 per cent of our elementary schools', and 40 per cent of our high schools' expenses, that the junior colleges get 33 per cent.

We hope the legislature approves AB 1848.

A Handful Of Hummers

With the first sign of spring flowers in most Marin gardens comes a handful of hummingbirds.

These tiny speedsters are the splashes of flashing irridescence which add gaiety to our gardens. They are the essence of the season, bright, happy and beautiful.

Equipped with built in drinking straws, they sip the flower nectars like children gone wild in a milk-shake shop.

The hummers came early this year. We welcome these little glimpses of Paradise back to our county.

Even The Air You Breathe During Dreams Has Been Measured Out

How much air do you use? Awake and relaxed, you breathe a pint of air 16 times a minute. Asleep, you ordinarily breathe only 12 times a minute. But if you are having a bad dream the rate doubles to 24 breaths a minute.

It seems to be a woman's world among rats as well as people. Experiments showed girl rats not only can outrun boy rats, they also live longer.

Things do get hot in the national capital. We are informed the Pentagon seeks to maintain a temperature of 78 degrees. This seems a bit high in view of some scientific evidence that man's thinking ability tends to dim-inh above a temperature of 70 degrees.

The prejudice against lady drivers predates the automobile. In 205 B. C. Rome passed a law banning women from driving chariots on the grounds they caused too many traffic accidents.

Before communism, Russian Orthodox Catholics were among the world's strictest observers of Lent. Butter, eggs, milk and cheese were completely forbidden as well as meat. Many devout Russian peasants subsisted during entire Lenten season on nothing but potatoes, bread and water.

Lip service: Don't ask me why, but mustaches are more popular now than they have been in the last 20 years. Thanks to the beatniks, of course, so are beards.

Something new to chew on: Every year some 750,000 Americans are fitted out with artificial teeth.

It isn't necessarily true that if you spare the rod you'll spoil your child. Studies at Cornell University showed that the children of parents who relied heavily on physical punishment to maintain discipline tended to have more feeling of inferiority, less sense of humor, and were less socially adjusted and more easily frustrated than other children.

Do you think of Africa as a pagan continent? About 20 per cent of its population of 224 million is Christian. An even larger percentage is Moslem.

A sobering thought: The United States, one of the richest of nations, still lists suicide as a major cause of preventable death. Every hour a number of people in this country try to take their lives—or make a half-hearted attempt to—and each year some 18,000 or more succeed.

SCIENTISTS ESTIMATE that in our galaxy alone there may be anywhere from 10 to 100 thousand planets capable of sustaining some form of life. The big problems: How to find those planets, how to communicate with the forms of life on them—if they do exist.

It's hard for the dieter to win. If you are a non-smoker, the odds are that you are fonder of cakes, sweets and chocolate than a heavy smoker.

ON THE OTHER hand, if you do smoke, you probably go in more for foods with a high fat content.

Congratulations on your 100th anniversary. May you go on and on serving Marin so greatly.

Oh how we miss our daily I-J since moving to Sonoma from Novato Feb. 19 this year! We feel it is the finest newspaper in the West, on a level with the New York Journal-American, N.Y. Daily News, and Long Island Star-Journal.

Keep up the good work.

MR. AND MRS.
HOWARD ANDERSON

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I want to congratulate you and your associates for a job "well done", not only in connection with the excellence of the articles appearing in the special anniversary supplements but, more important, for what you have done and are doing in giving the people of Marin County such an outstanding newspaper, day in and day out.

I have followed the growth pattern of the Independent-Journal very closely over the past 35 years, starting back when it was a daily newspaper with a circulation of approximately 2,000, at which time a Duplex flatbed press was purchased through me. The growth from that time to the present has been rather phenomenal, to say the least. This growth has primarily come about through management interest in producing a newspaper of the highest standards, not only in news content but, of equal importance, editorial content.

Congratulations and our best wishes to all of you for the part each one of you will play in the future growth and development of the Independent-Journal.

WALLACE H. GRANGER
Manager of Western Sales

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

My most sincere congratulations on the 100th anniversary of your newspaper, the Independent-Journal.

Your paper has served our county with distinction and has won many journalistic awards for excellence, of which you all can be very proud.

The paper has always been a champion for the right and always supported the best public interest.

We in Marin County are fortunate to have the I.J.

R. E. MITTELSTAEDT

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I have been reading with interest the historical sections of the Independent-Journal published in conjunction with the 100th anniversary of the newspaper. You are to be congratulated for presenting this feature in the public interest. It will serve to enlighten many Marin residents of more recent vintage as to the distinguished history not only of your newspaper but the county itself.

Congratulations, too, on this important anniversary of a distinguished newspaper.

You may be interested to know that my great, great grandfather, James Lyons, although blind, edited the first newspaper in Southwestern Oregon, The Umpqua Gazette. Thus, I find the historical series particularly interesting.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By BRUCE COLEMAN

The Mountain Is Dominant, Friendly, Windy And Growing

We live under The Mountain. It dominates our town, catches our clouds and makes our big apple tree look small. To take it down a peg, every so often we go up and tell The Mountain what for.

The other day we were "telling off" The Mountain up at the Mount Tamalpais State Park ranger station. But, the more we shouted the louder the wind blew through the tall firs.

Finally, we cornered Park Supervisor George E. Holmboe in his small wooden ranger hut. Holmboe, who has lived and worked on The Mountain for five years, guards some 2,000 acres of the giant, with five other rangers.

"Tell us about your mountain," we said.

HOLMBOE SAID cautiously "Well, the Miwok Indians were afraid of this mountain. They thought there were spirits living on it. You might understand their feeling during winter in storms and foggy weather. It's a matter of superstition.

"Flora and fauna are quite diversified. We have a mixture of conifer trees, redwoods and broadleafed hardwoods.

"There are deer, coyotes in the high rocky places, bobcats, many raccoons, tree squirrels, ground squirrels, spotted skunk, foxes, tree frogs, frogs, salamanders and fence lizards.

"THERE ARE jays and quail and buzzards. The buzzard is a beautiful bird, handsome features. Flight is very extraordinary inasmuch as they can hover for long periods of time and ride the air currents. They are the necessary scavengers for The Mountain, seldom if ever killing anything.

"We have rattlesnakes. However, they are usually in the grassy hill area or rocky points, seldom find them in the timber. Not particularly dangerous, a rattlesnake will always try to get away.

"There is a book about The Mountain, 'Tamalpais — Enchanted Mountain' as well as one about its railroad, 'The Crookedest Railroad In The World.' Dan Totheroh has written a play of The Mountain called 'Tamalpa'."

People go over The Mountain, people sleep on The Mountain (there are 61 picnic sites and 25 camp sites) and people go to the top of The Mountain (about 50 per cent of the 350,000 annual visitors go to the summit).

Winds blow up to 100 miles an hour at the top. The San Andreas Fault runs next to the mountain's foot on the southwestern side. Sierra Club members practice mountain climbing on rocky cliffs of East Peak, 2,571 feet high. West Peak, where the radar tower is located, is even higher, 2,604 feet.

"IT'S A FRIENDLY mountain," says Mrs. B. K. Dunshee. "We go up there for our wedding anniversaries and went up the other day on our 45th. Alice Eastwood, late botanist and curator, typified The Mountain. She loved its plants and wanted others to do likewise and protect them."

The Mountain, which has five lakes and no supermarkets, is said to be growing slowly taller each year.

Well, Mr. Holmboe and old mountain, we said, thanks for the talk. You're growing taller. So are we.

Federal Budget Is More Than Accounting Of Costs, Revenues

WASHINGTON — As I am writing a final article before leaving for a few weeks in Europe, it is tempting to look back and do a bit of generalizing about the first three months of the Kennedy administration.

The general character of this first phase has been, I would say, preliminary and preparatory. This problem is central to almost all the others: the problem of overcoming the sluggishness which has characterized the American economy since the end of the Korean War.

AS YET, the administration has made no frontal attack on this problem. It has not done so because of a deliberate decision that the country is not yet ready for it. Despite the unemployment and the unused capacity, the feeling that we are in bad times is spotty and local, not general and national.

Because of the likelihood that a kind of recovery is just around the corner, the President has felt that for the present he must follow the Eisenhower economic ideology. Yet his principal advisers are, so far as I know, unanimous in the belief that a very considerable departure from the Eisenhower ideology is necessary if the American economy is to meet the needs of the Sixties.

BUT DESPITE these opinions, the administration is operating within the Eisenhower slogans and stereotypes about the budget. This is not because the Kennedy men believe in them, but because there are a large majority in both parties who do believe in them.

The crucial and central issue is not whether the federal budget should be balanced. Kennedy stated, but not heavily emphasized in his budget message, that federal revenues and expenditures should be in balance "over the years of the business cycle" — about four or five years. The Eisenhower doctrine is that, regardless of the business cycle, the budget should be in balance every year.

The true and emerging Kennedy doctrine is that in a year of recession there ought to be a deficit and that in years of boom there ought to be a surplus. When, as has been the case since the early 1950's, there is a chronic sluggishness in the economy, it is an unsound fiscal policy to try to achieve a budget surplus.

TO MANY THIS sounds like the grossest heresy. But that is exactly what the great majority of modern economists are saying, particularly those on whom the Kennedy administration depends.

But the President has not yet braced himself to the effort of explaining to the public the difference between balancing the budget annually and balancing it over the business cycle. Yet most of what he has promised to do, most of what for the long pull urgently needs to be done, depends on explaining this theoretical issue to the people.

It is a complicated thing to explain that the federal budget is not only an accounting of revenues and expenditures. It is also a great fiscal engine which as a matter of national policy has to be managed in such a way as to promote a stabilized growth of the economy.

There is nothing sinister or mysterious in this idea. But it is a new idea, new at least to a great many people.

Marin Girl Wins Music Scholarship

Wendy plays the flute and is 16 years old. She was accompanied by her father, Arthur Eisler, well-known pianist.

Recipient of the other $500 award was Cinda Goold, young pianist from Sacramento.

Judges of the contest were Dean Wallace, San Francisco Chronicle music critic; Verne Osborne, opera singer, and Hugo Rinaldi, director of music in San Rafael city schools.

Results of the $100 composition award, with several entries from Marin County, will not be made until May 1, the Pacific Musical Society announced. Judge for this event is Charles Haubiel, director of the Composers' Press of New York City.

Summer Courses Questionnaire Mailed

A questionnaire to help in deciding summer courses to be offered by College of Marin has been sent to Marin County high school counselors and to the college's day and adult education students.

The questionnaire seeks information on preference and desired times of 24 suggested courses. The summer session will be held from June 19 to July 28.

Youth Orchestra Sets Concert At Dominican

The Marin Youth Orchestra, directed by Hugo Rinaldi, will present a concert Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in Angelico Hall, Dominican College.

The program will open with the first movement of Schubert's Unfinished Symphony No. 8. Following numbers will be Mozart's Flute Concerto in G Major K 313 No. 1; Offenbach's "La Vie Parisienne"; J. S. Bach's Concerto for Three Pianos and Orchestra in C major, and Fridemann's "Slavonic Rhapsody."

Wendy Eisler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Eisler of Greenbrae, will play the flute solo. She is a senior at Tamalpais High School. She was winner of a Marin Music Chest Scholarship in 1958. She has played in the orchestra since she was in seventh grade and plans to continue music study at San Francisco State College next year.

Soloists for the Bach Concerto will be Mary Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Larson of Corte Madera, junior at Dominican Upper School; Carole Marie Castro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Castro of San Rafael, a sophomore at Dominican, and Susan Gilbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gilbert, Corte Madera, a senior at Redwood High School.

Mary and Carol have studied piano for eight years and are winners of Marin Music Chest scholarships in 1960. Mary also won in 1959. Susan was asked to play the piano, which she has studied for seven years, for this performance. She has been playing tympani with the Marin Youth Orchestra for a year and a half.

The orchestra will close its season with a concert at San Francisco State College on April 21. The program will consist of the first movement of Schubert's Unfinished Symphony; "La Vie Parisienne," with Ed Kruth of the San Francisco State College faculty conducting; the third movement of Mozart's Clarinet Concerto in A major, with Martha Morse as soloist, and the "Slavonic Rhapsody."

Marinite Named Judge For Science Fair

John E. Yocum of Marinwood, industrial researcher with A. D. Little Inc. in San Francisco, has been named a judge for the eighth annual Bay Area Science Fair to be held at the Academy of Sciences in San Francisco's Golden Gate Park Saturday through April 12.

Twenty-four of the 350 scientific projects have been entered by Marin County high school students.

Auto Collision Injures Four

Four persons suffered injuries in a head-on collision on Tiburon Boulevard near the railroad trestle west of Tiburon yesterday afternoon.

Glory Stevens of 255 Blithedale Avenue, Mill Valley, a secretary, driving west, turned to speak to passengers and allowed her car to drift across the center line, striking an eastbound car driven by Isabel When of Alameda. Miss Stevens was treated at Marin General Hospital for multiple scrapes and bruises.

Elizabeth Newbrand of 92 Bayview Avenue, Belvedere, a teacher, suffered a forearm cut and was admitted to the hospital. She was in satisfactory condition today, hospital attendants reported. Two children, 5-year-old Jesse Dohemann of 228 Margarita Drive, San Rafael, and his 3-year-old brother Russell, suffered cuts and bruises. All were taken to the hospital by Marin Ambulance.

Rabies from Bats

Q. Can a person get rabies by being bitten by a bat?

A. Yes. Six cases of human rabies have been traced to bites by rabid bats. This could become quite a problem because bats infected with rabies virus have been found in many areas in the U.S. If bitten by any animal suspected of having rabies, contact your family physician or local health office without delay.

Sea Water Tonic

Q. I have heard that sea water contains many healthful minerals. Why not take sea water every day as a tonic?

A. It's true that sea water contains minerals, but the water contains too much salt for the body to handle and may contain harmful germs. Although a few ounces of sea water can be consumed at any one time without harmful (or beneficial) effects, drinking large quantities of such water, or the continued drinking of small amounts, can prove fatal.

Only Girls?

Q. Are some women capable of having only girls?

A. All women are capable of producing boys or girls. The sex of the child is determined by factors supplied by the father—not the mother. (More about this in next week's column.)

"Starving" Prematures

Q. Isn't it unusual to "starve" premature babies for several days after birth, as was done in the case of the Kennedy baby?

A. There are two schools of thought on this matter. One supports early feeding of premature babies. The other is to withhold all fluids until the baby is 48 to 72 hours old. In the U.S. the latter procedure is generally followed.

Uterus Removal

Q. Are the ovaries affected by removal of the uterus?

A. The question has not been definitely settled, but on the basis of animal experiments, removal of the uterus has no harmful effect on the ovaries.

It is our purpose to render professional prescription service and to offer the finest quality health aids and sickroom supplies.

DENT MADE, BUT

Congress Facing Lot More Work

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress has made a respectable dent in the pile of work President John F. Kennedy said it should tackle with greatest speed because of the economic slump.

But beyond the high-priority bills, there is a lot more work spread out for the lawmakers. On some, the administration has not even made detailed recommendation. Other items have moved as far along as passage by one house or the other.

TOUGH SCHEDULE

The administration and opposition forces in Congress have tested each other out and a rough schedule for handling the tougher bills has taken shape. From present indications, some measures Kennedy wanted handled this year will go over in 1962—and some of the "unfinished business of the American people," about which he talked as a candidate, may remain unfinishe for a considerable time.

At the Easter recess, Congress has gone this far with the four measures Kennedy tagged with the highest priority:

1. A billion-dollar program of extended unemployment aid has been enacted. Benefits should begin flowing this month.

DIFFERENT VERSION

2. Senate and House have passed different versions of Kennedy's 394-million-dollar loan and grant bill to stimulate the economy of chronically depressed areas. Adjustment of the differences is expected, after some argument, soon after the House reconvenes April 10.

3. A bill to extend dependent children benefits to families of the unemployed has been passed by the House and promised prompt handling in the Senate.

4. The House Ways and Means Committee has approved legislation for most of the changes Kennedy asked in the social security law. Among them is optional retirement for men at 62, counted on to help some older men stranded by the dwindling of industries which employed them. The House probably will act this month.

Congress has finished work on three other measures from Kennedy's priority list:

Renewal of authority to reorganize the executive department. Kennedy is expected to use it first to create a new cabinet-rank department of urban affairs, with Federal Housing Administrator Robert C. Weaver becoming the first Negro cabinet member.

Ratification of U. S. affiliation with the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development.

An emergency program for feed grains.

The House has passed a minimum wage increase bill, but in much more modest terms than Kennedy recommended. It was the first substantial setback his administration suffered at Congress' hands. His leaders in the Senate are trying to rebuild the measure closer to his recommendations. Senate committee action is expected by mid-month.

The Senate has passed bills to increase the number of federal judges and to create an office of international travel. The House should act soon.

Thief Loots Coin Devices In 3 Cities

Coin machines in San Rafael, San Anselmo and Corte Madera were pried open Saturday night by an apparently fast-moving raider who visited business establishments in all three cities not far from the hour of 10 p.m.

Entry was made by jimmying the rear door of the San Rafael Laundry and Cleaners at 4 Knight Drive, Glenwood, it was discovered just after 11 p.m. Dimes from two change machines in a washerette part of the establishment were believed taken, but a total of $2.10 in dimes was picked up from within the machine and on the floor. Some small change was taken from the cash register in the laundry.

By similar door-prying procedure the Norge Coinette at 75 Red Hill Avenue, San Anselmo, was entered about 10:05 p.m.

This time was established because an electric clock stopped, the switch in a control box having been pulled.

Coin machines were jimmied and $175 to $200 was taken, San Anselmo police reported.

A cigarette machine was opened in the Patio Car Wash, 5742 Paradise Drive, Corte Madera, but no estimate of loss was immediately available. Again the door of the establishment had been jimmied.

Cepeda Unhappy In Outfield Under Rig; Has New Attitude This Year

HANLEY

PHOENIX, Ariz.—It was no secret to any baseball fan that Orlando Cepeda was mighty unhappy playing left field last year even though he received $27,500 which, his old boss Bill Rigney maintained, should have kept him happy no matter what position he was asked to play.

Just how wide was the rift between Cepeda and the ex-Giant manager was not disclosed until their long distance exchange of a month ago through the newspapers. Rigney subsequently disowned quotes attributed to him by a New York columnist, quotes that accused Cepeda of being self-centered, immature and in many respects "a little boy to whom winning a pennant was not as important as it should be."

Cepeda's Latin temperament exploded in nuclear fury when he read that and he charged Rigney of having "no guts" and "twice losing the pennant for us." Orlando's temper subsided the next day and when Rigney and his Angels visited Phoenix they buried the hatchet. But the heated reaction of Orlando to the original story quoting Rigney indicated that there was considerable ill will between them last season.

What's Cepeda's attitude this year? Do he and Alvin Dark really hit it off? Did Orlando pout when Alvin switched him from left to right field? Is Cepeda reconciled to Dark's edict that the Giants are "going up or down with Willie McCovey at first base—Cepeda is never going back there in my thinking?"

FIRST HEAR what Dark has to say.

"I am pleasantly surprised with the way Orlando has taken to the outfield, especially in view of what I had been told," said Dark who did not specify what he had been told by Rigney or members of the Giant management. He did, however, remind us that we had informed him last October when he became manager of the Giants that Cepeda was unhappy and his hitting tailed off when he was moved to the outfield.

"Both agree that left, because of the wind prevailing in that field, is more difficult. It blows the ball toward left center or holds it up. It seldom blows the ball toward the foul line in left. Cepeda moves best to his own right. He believes this and I know it is a true judgment of his strength because I watched him closely before switching him to right field. He's happy there.

"Alou, on the other hand, also is happy in left. He played a number of games there in Candlestick last season and from what I am told he made several spectacular catches despite the wind.

"In playing the outfield, I am convinced Cepeda's career will be lengthened. I told him so. I played the infield a number of years before moving to the outfield and I know from personal experience that the infield takes much more out of you."

AND WHAT does Orlando have to say?

"I'm happy," he said. "Dark knows men. He is a leader. I told him I will do my best. I feel good this year. Last season I had problem up here in the head."

He did not specify what the problem was other than to say "a baseball problem." But in light of that long distance exchange between Cepeda and Rigney a month ago it is not difficult now to pinpoint what the problem was.

Jones Shuts Out Tribe; Rookies Provide Power

PHOENIX, Ariz., (UPI) — Sam Jones had the San Francisco Giants' opening day pitching assignment all but wrapped up today after hurling six more scoreless innings yesterday as the Giants defeated Cleveland, 6-1.

Home runs by rookies Bob Farley and Tom Haller accounted for five of the Giant runs. Farley's two-run blow in the bottom of the sixth broke a scoreless tie and gave the win to Jones, who has now tossed 15 consecutive scoreless innings.

Haller's homer off former Giant Johnny Antonelli was the big catcher's sixth of the spring campaign and gave him the club lead in runs batted in as well, with 15.

The Giants stayed in Phoenix again today for a game with the Los Angeles Angels. The San Franciscans hold a 2-1 edge over Bill Rigney's Angels.

Eli Grba, who probably will hurl the season opener, will handle the mound chore tomorrow at Mesa, Ariz., against the Chicago Cubs.

The Angel squad was bolstered today by outfielder Lou Johnson who was secured from the Cubs in the trade for Jim McAnany.

Other additions in the team appear to be in the offing. Oscar Salenger, former Pacific Coast League owner, who now is in the electronics industry in Beverly Hills, watched yesterday at Indio, Calif., as the Angels edged the San Diego Padres, 7-6, in 100-degree heat.

Salenger afterward predicted the Angeles would add another six good players by May 11, and would finish the season better than many have prophesied.

In yesterday's Giant game, the Indians' John Romano belted a homer off reliever Mike McCormick to pull the Clevelanders within a run. But Antonelli gave up an infield single to Matty Alou, walked Farley and Haller then smashed a pitch deep over the clock in right field.

Former American Leaguer Harvey Kuenn rapped out three singles to up his average to .438 for the Giants, second only to Haller's .462 mark.

GIANTS TRIM ORSINO, JONES AND MIRANDA

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—The San Francisco Giants cut five players from the roster yesterday to trim the squad to the regular season opening limit of 28.

Sent down to Tacoma, Wash., in the Pacific Coast League were catcher Johnny Orsino, pitchers Sherman Jones, Ray Daviault and Georges Maranda and outfielder Manuel Mota.

Manager Alvin Dark said he hated to let Orsino go, but playing with Tacoma would give him better experience than sitting on the Giants' bench.

"He'll be back," Dark predicted.

JOHNNY 'BOC' HERO, BRONCS TRIM IRISH

John Boccabella, Marin County's best young baseball prospect since the New York Yankees' Joe DeMaestri graduated from Tamalpais High School in 1947, kept his hot bat active for the Santa Clara Broncos over the weekend.

Yesterday in San Jose Boccabella's two-run double pulled the Broncos into an 8-8 tie in the bottom of the ninth inning and he later scored the winning run on a wild pitch in the 9-8 victory over Notre Dame.

On the previous day the big third baseman collected four hits in five at-bats, although the Broncos bowed to California, 7-2.

In 38 appearances to the plate for Santa Clara this season, Boccabella, only a sophomore, has 19 hits for an even .500 average.

Like DeMaestri, currently a utility infielder for the Yankees in his 11th major league season, Boccabella is a product of San Anselmo sandlots.

Casey Meets Andrews In S.F. Tonight

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Hank Casey, the barber supply employee who was trimmed in his last fight by Rory Calhoun, meets Irish Eddie Andrews of Las Vegas tonight in a 10-round scrap at Kezar Pavilion.

Casey moved into a sixth spot among the NBA's middleweight contenders last year as a result of winning two out of three decisions over hard-fisted Henry Hank. But then the veteran Calhoun closed fast in New Orleans on New Year's Day to score a split verdict over Casey.

Andrews, now in his ninth year as a pro, formerly lived in Lowell, Mass. He is rated an aggressive workman and outpointed Charlie (Tombstone) Smith in his most recent bout.

AROUND THE SPRING CIRCUIT

Spahn, Ford Clinch Opener Duties For Braves, Yankees

There was many a dazzling Easter performance but it took a pair by Warren Spahn and Whitey Ford to put the Milwaukee Braves and New York Yankees in clover.

This is the time of year when every manager's chief concern is picking an opening day pitcher, but it's no problem today for either Charlie Dressen or Ralph Houk. Spahn and Ford took care of that yesterday with brilliant route-going performances that make the choices automatic.

Spahn, who'll be 40 this month, flashed a five-hitter to pitch the Braves to a 5-2 victory over the Kansas City Athletics while Ford, key man of the New York staff, turned in a six-hitter that gave the Yankees a 1-0 decision over the Cincinnati Reds.

SHUTOUT SPOILED

Spahn, who has compiled a 4-1 spring record to prove his amazingly supple arm is as good as ever, faced only 30 batters and had a shutout until the seventh inning when a single by Norm Siebern and a double by Hank Bauer produced a Kansas City run. Joe Pignatano homered for the Athletics' other run in the eighth.

Ford, seeking to bounce back after a mediocre 12-9 record in 1960, became the first New York pitcher to go nine innings in spring training since Bob Turley in 1958. He had a mild scare in the ninth inning but got out of a jam by retiring Frank Robinson with the tying run on third base.

Hank Aaron hit three homers and drove in six runs to lead the Braves' 12-hit attack while Bill Skowron homered off Jay Houk in the second inning to provide the Yankees with their winning margin.

KOUFAX SHARP

Sandy Koufax, the Los Angeles Dodgers' fireballing lefthander, also went the nine-inning distance with an 11-hit, 7-3 victory over the Minnesota Twins. Koufax, who pitched seven no-hit innings in a previous appearance this spring, had a shutout until the ninth. Key blows in the Dodger attack were triples by Bob Aspromonte and Charley Neal.

The San Francisco Giants beat the Cleveland Indians, 6-1, the Baltimore Orioles downed the Chicago White Sox, 11-5, the Philadalps Phillies topped the Detroit Tigers, 7-4, the Pittsburgh Pirates edged out the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-2, and the Chicago Cubs defeated the Boston Red Sox, 5-3, in other Easter Sunday exhibition games.

Rookie Earl Robinson's grand slam homer was the big blow of a nine-run eighth-inning rally that enabled Hoyt Wilhelm to pick up the victory for the Orioles. Robinson connected with one on earlier against Herb Score to give him six runs batted in for the game.

Tony Taylor and Pancho Herrera collected nine hits between them to highlight the Phillies' 16-hit attack on four Detroit pitchers. Taylor raised his spring average to .500 with four singles and a triple and and two singles. Norm Cash Herrera had a homer, double and Steve Boros homered for the Tigers.

Palmer Obvious Favorite To Defend Masters Title

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Unless history is wrong, an inexperienced golfer hasn't much chance of winning the Masters Tournament. The only player who ever succeeded on his first attempt was Horton Smith, when he won the first Masters in 1934.

The massive and often deceptive 6,980-yard Augusta National course takes too much knowing for anyone to master it the first time out. Besides sheer power and sharp hitting, it calls for expertly placed drives, keen judgment on approaches and excellent putting.

But outside of defender Arnold Palmer, it's hard to see any of the past winners as likely contenders when the 25th Masters starts Thursday—and they're the men who should know the course best.

Palmer, of course, is the obvious favorite. He has won twice in the past three years. At 31, he's at the peak of his playing career. He has the big game suited to this big course and the kind of temperament that makes him do his best when he needs a birdie or two to win.

Going back a dozen years, only seven other winners are listed—Art Wall jr., Doug Ford, Jack Burke, Cary Middlecoff, Sam Snead, Ben Hogan and Jimmy Demaret.

Wall suffered a painful rib injury taking a swipe at the ball during the recent Miami Beach Open and will have to miss his second Masters since he won in 1959. A knee injury kept him from defending last year.

Ford, usually the busiest golfer on the pro tour, has played less than usual this year and has had one of his worst winter records.

Burke, a busy businessman, has played in only six of 13 winter tournaments and hasn't finished better than sixth. Middlecoff, who planned to return as a full time tourist this year, has played in eight, missing the 35-hole cut three times and placing no higher than 21st.

Although Hogan and Snead play in very few tournaments, both are reported to be hitting the ball very well from tee to green and they're always dangerous here. But they're both going on 49, an age when putting begins to falter, and Ben has been having trouble with those 8-footers for a couple of years. Demaret is admittedly past 50.

That seems to have three possibilities. Can Palmer win a third Masters? Will some brash newcomer finally break through? Or will it be somebody like Ken Venturi, Gary Player, Bill Casper, Peter Thomson, Dow Finsterwal, or Jay Hebert, who has served his apprenticeship learning about Augusta National and now is ready to prove his knowledge and skill?

Marin Runner 2nd In Marathon Race

Darryl Beardall of the Marin Athletic Club placed second yesterday in a 26-mile marathon run around Lake Merced in San Francisco.

Beardall's time of 2 hours, 49 minutes and 27 seconds was close on the heels of winner Richard Ortiz' time of 2:47.29.

Their final placement in the competition was based on "closed" scoring.

In the closed field another Marin entry placed ninth. He was Jack Kirk, with a time of 4 hours, 13 minutes and 40 seconds.

Koufax Goes Route; L.A. Heads West

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers, moving west from Florida for their season opener April 11 in Los Angeles, took today off from the spring exhibition wars.

The Dodgers begin the final phase of their pre-season training when they meet the Cleveland Indians tomorrow in nearby Tucson. Right-hander Roger Craig will be the Los Angeles pitcher.

The Dodgers come into Los Angeles next Monday for the annual banquet sponsored by the Los Angeles baseball writers. They open their National League season the next evening in the Coliseum against the Philadelphia Phillies.

The Dodgers broke camp at Florida after left-hander Sandy Koufax hurled them to a 7-3 victory over the Minnesota Twins. Koufax, although he weakened and was tagged for a three-run homer in the ninth, finished the game in grand style and became the second Dodger hurler of the spring to finish a game. Johnny Podres, another lefty, was the other.

Before running into trouble in the ninth, fastballing Sandy had blanked the Twins for 16 consecutive innings over three games.

On the firing line the Dodger batters hit three Twin pitchers for 11 hits, including triples by Charlie Neal and Bob Aspromonte and doubles by Willie Davis, Tommy Davis, Wally Moon, Maury Wills and Ron Fairly.

Los Altos Prep Looms As World's Fastest Swimmer

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—The nation's short-distance swimming hopes were pinned today on the capable shoulders of Steve Clark, an 18-year-old high school senior from Los Altos, Calif.

Clark staked a solid claim to being the world's fastest swimmer by winning the 100 yards freestyle in an incredible 46.8 seconds Saturday night in the Amateur Athletic Union's (AAU) indoor championship at Yale.

During the three-day meet, national records tumbled in 13 of the 14 swimming events. American marks were eclipsed in all seven finals Saturday night.

The team title went to Southern Cal with 74 points. The New Haven S. C. was second with 44½ and the New Trier S. C. third with 21.

Clark's time in the 100 yards was considered comparable to breaking of the four-minute mile in running.

Clark, under the tutelage of George Haines, coach of the American Women's Olympic team at Rome, also won the 220-yard freestyle in two minutes even Friday night. Upsetting Murray Rose of Australia, he prevented the Olympic great now at the University of Southern California from completing a triple.

Southern Cal's Charley Bittick, however, did the triple trick by taking the 100-yard backstroke in :53.4 in the finals. He earlier took the 220-yard backstroke and the 400-yard individual medley.

Reed Wins, Klyce Upset In Junior Tennis Tourney

One Marin County favorite won, but another was upset yesterday as the North Bay Junior Tennis Tournament at Vallejo moved into quarterfinal rounds.

Top-seeded Clyde Witt of Larkspur advanced on schedule in the 18 and under age group as he overpowered Robin Ray of Sacramento, 6-1, 6-4, but San Rafael's Harvey Klyce, one of northern California's better racqueteers, was victim of the tournament's first major upset. He fell to Jeff Brown, 6-3, 6-3.

San Jose's Jamaica Jet Will Crack 100 Mark, Coach Sure

Johnson zoomed to his second 9.3 of the new season Saturday in the 100-yard dash during a triangular meet at Stanford. He also captured the 220 in 20.9.

An oversight by the Stanford hosts—failure to have a wind gauge alongside the track—was the only thing that prevented the San Jose State sprinter from getting his world record equaling time into the books.

There was virtually no wind on the field and two of the three official clocks had him in at 9.3. The third showed 9.2.

The fact that the try didn't make the books isn't worrying Johnson or his coach, Bud Winter, too much.

"He's a wonderful fellow to work with—eager to learn and very pleasant."

Johnson is confident.

"Coach Winter has helped me a lot. I'll make it one of these days," he said.

Johnson first attracted notice as a wing-footed sprinter while attending Calabar High School in Kingston, Jamaica. After he graduated he came to California and enrolled at Bakersfield Junior College.

Last fall he transferred to San Jose State as a junior. Winter went right to work.

"His main fault as first was his start. We noticed at the Olympics in Rome last summer that the German sprinters were getting off the blocks faster and picking up more time than anyone in the first 30 yards," said Winter, who was on the coaching staff for the U.S. track team.

"When we got back we studied movies and worked out a similar starting positions."

He said the new start has the runner getting out lower and into high gear sooner than the traditional sprinting start.

"This kid was a natural finisher. All we had to do was get him started faster and we knew we'd have a record breaker," Winter said. "He's made real progress these last few months."

He noted that Johnson's effort last Saturday was .2 of a second faster than anyone has ever run on the Stanford track.

"And they've had some pretty good boys out there," Winter added. "One of these days Johnson is going to get on a track where conditions are ideal and break that record."

Merionettes Win Swimming Honors

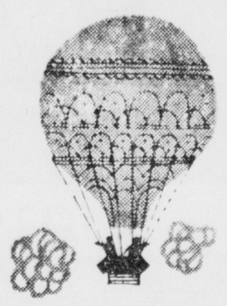

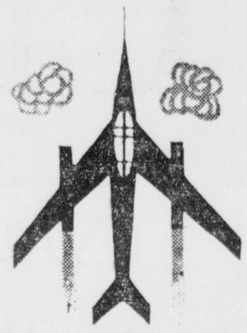

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco Merionettes, a team formed just four years ago, are the 1961 women's champs in National AAU synchronized swimming.

The Merionettes, second in the national championships a year ago, won by a wide margin in this year's meet, which ended Saturday night.

San Francisco piled up 21 points. The University Athletic Club of Hollywood was second with 14. Moose Club of Oakland, was next with 9.

The Athens A.C. of Oakland, 14 times the national champ, was fourth with 8 points and the Shaw Park Swim Club of St. Louis, Mo., next with 7.

Lake Merritt Boats Sweep El Toro Race

Lake Merritt Sailing Club skippers dominated the field Saturday by sweeping the first three places in the annual "Bullship Race" for the diminutive El Toro fleet of the Bay Area.

Marin County entrants were shut out of the winner's circle in the race that started in Sausalito and ended off the San Francisco yacht harbor.

Leading the field was Merritt's Jim DeWitt whose sure-handed piloting covered the distance in two hours and 15 minutes. Times were slow because of strong flood tides.

Thirty seconds behind in second place was DeWitt's "teammate," Richard Jacobsen. Still another Merrittman came in third place—John Salvin.

Maiden Voyage trophy was snared by John Veteran of San Jose who, in spite of his name, was a novice in this race. He placed fifth in the field of 126.

Twenty boats failed to go the distance, drifting helplessly off course in the strong tides. Doug O'Hair, skipper of the sloop Sonata, came to the rescue of eight drifters. He hustled out near Angel Island to rope the helpless skippers and tow them toward home. Halfway home the Sonata ran out of gas, so the Coast Guard patrol boat took over the duties.

Celtics Hail Bill Russell: He's Fabulous

BOSTON (AP) — Defense and Bill Russell are the reasons the Boston Celtics have the jump on St. Louis in the National Basketball Assn. playoff finals.

"Russell was the key—his defense and rebounding," Coach Red Auerbach of the defending world champions said after yesterday's 129-95 triumph over the Hawks.

The best-of-seven series resumes here Wednesday night.

"Bob Cousy also turned in a fine defensive job. Our timing was off because we had been idle for a week. So our defense had to be extra sharp to make up for it. That was the whole story."

The 6-10 Russell grabbed 31 rebounds, blocked seven goal-bound shots and on two other occasions had goal - tending called on him when he had diverted "sure" shots. He also had 15 points and assisted on four other goals."

"He was just fabulous," Auerbach added.

HAGAN HIGH

This is still going to be a dog-fight," chimed in Frank Ramsey who was a Kentucky teammate of St. Louis' Cliff Hagan, the game's high scorer with 33 points.

"St. Louis reached its mental peak Saturday in winning the seventh game of the western series with Los Angeles," Ramsey said.

"This bad beating is not indicative of what will happen when the Hawks get a good rest.

Wednesday is the important game. If St. Louis wins we're in trouble. If we win we have a good chance to win one of those televised weekend games in St. Louis and wrap it up in five."

Denmark sold the Virgin Islands to the United States in 1917.

GRIFFITH INEXPERIENCED

New Welter Champion Plans Busy Schedule

"He's a young, strong kid and we want to keep him as busy as possible," said co-manager Gill Clancy, who talked roughly and cuffed Griffith in the face Saturday night just before the youngster belted out Benny (Kid) Paret to win the title. "He's plenty good right now, but he knows and we know he can be better with more experience."

Griffith showed a distinct lack of ring generalship during the 12 rounds he faced the 23-year-old Peret before using two left hooks and a sharp right to equalize Paret's wide edge in experience. But Clancy said Griffith's inability to take charge in the ring was due more to his pride than anything else.

ALMOST LOST

"I told him not to run away from Paret," Clancy said. "I meant for him to move around, jab him, use his reach, and to counterpunch when Paret charged him. But he went in there with the idea he wasn't going to move back one step, and it almost lost him the fight."

Until the climactic 13th Griffith was losing points by not retreating from the ex-champion's ruches. Paret, a windmill punching Cuban making the second title defense of his 10-month reign, scored heavily in concentrating on the body.

One minute and 11 seconds later, Paret lay on the canvas and Griffith was the champion after only 25 professional fights, 23 of them victories.

Paret, who suffered his first knockout and 9th loss in a 46-bout career that includes 3 draws, flew to New York yesterday glamoring for the right to exercise the 90-day return bout clause in the contract.

"We'll fight him within 90 days if it has to be that way," Clancy said. "But we'd also like a match with Luis Rodriguez, the top-contender, or an over-the-weight bout or two.

"No matter who he fights next," Clancy said, "Emile is going to be better than he was Saturday night. He's got too much pride and too much potential not to be."

Girl Scouts Issue Awards To Adults

Marin Girl Scouts paid tribute to "some pioneer stock and a few gold nuggets" in Gold Rush fashion recently at the annual dinner at the Corte Madera Recreation Center celebrating 49 years of scouting in the U.S.

During the evening, awards were presented to 78 men and women registered with the Marin Girl Scouts. The pins and leather-bound citations included thanks badges, certificates of appreciation and year pins.

Thanks badges, highest adult scouting award, were presented to the gold nuggets Mrs. Lewis DuePree, Mrs. James Gowen and one man, Edwin Wells Sr.

Certificates of Appreciation in recognition of outstanding service to the Girl Scouts were given to 12 persons: Frank Duhme Jr. and Mesdames Russell Clarke, James Coddington, Manuel Dos Reis, Harold Green, Roy Herson, Joseph Johnson, Richard W. Morgan, James Raby, James Rowan, Per Rundberg, and Mrs. Richard Keating, county librarian.

Pins marking 15 years of active participation with the Marin scouts were awarded to Mesdames Jack Patterson, Beatrice Samuels and John Veness. In addition to these "oldtimers," 38 received five-year pins and 18 adults received 10-year pins.

Over 240 men and women attended the covered dish supper which was under the general chairmanship of Mrs. George Daum of Corte Madera. In addition to the awards, which highlighted the evening, the program included an old-fashioned movie and songs by senior scouts.

Honored guests of the dinner were members of the Girl Scout Region 12: Mrs. Donald Kudlich and Mrs. Thaddeus Whalen; and three organization executive directors: Mrs. William Vaughn, Marin Campfire Girls; Aubrey Burns, Marin United Fund; and Storrs Smith, Marin Boy Scout Council.

Color Is Luncheon Keynote At Informally Yours Show

"Easter Time — Fashion Time" and a real good time was had by the Marin Volunteers and friends at last Wednesday's Informally Yours fashion luncheon at Bob's of Marin where the Volunteers held its benefit to aid the Senior Citizens whose thrift shop Trade Whims in Senior Center, San Rafael, is open for business Monday through Fridays.

Mrs. William Ghilotti was chairman of the affair which featured fashions from a San Rafael women's shop, modeled by members of the sponsoring group and guest mannequins, with Sara Campbell co-ordinating the promenade of styles with Easter in mind—happy fashions for a joyful time.

Color was the keynote to the luncheon, with gay Easter eggs at the buffet, flower decorated tables and spring fashions on parade with Mrs. Russel Reese pleasingly pretty strolling among the many guests in a beige silk sheath with multi-colored bodice of organza and matching coat, to open the show.

Nods of approval greeted Mrs. Delbert Kelzer and the imported Sebastian designed grey knit two piece costume with white trim detail; also her strictly stridable footwear from a San Rafael shoe shop.

Kudos to Mrs. Eldredge Loewenguth as she gracefully pivoted in a white silk organza cocktail dress with a very full skirt detailed in small black checks.

Swishing into spring in a garment of black and white checked cotton, full of skirt and bordered in white eyelet embroidery, was one of the Mannequin League lovelies, Mrs. John Hackney Jr.

Fine flair for fashion featured by League model Mrs. William Deeths as she executed the Dior pivot to best show her gown of lemon-ice, a sheath with reversible cape jacket by Mamselle.

Style perfect Mrs. Norman Sanguinetti of Mannequin League chose a white eyelet short sleeved sheath trimmed in rose velvet to compliment her blonde tresses, artfully coiffed, as were all hair-styles of the models, by a San Anselmo beauty salon.

Circled by the Newcomers Club of Welcome Wagon Inc. is Wednesday, April 5 for fashions Informally Yours with luncheon at Bob's of Marin.

The luncheon is open to the public and reservations for the April 5 benefit which begins at 12:30 o'clock, may be made with Bob's of Marin.

These young people explained the educational systems in their respective countries and discussed their impressions and experiences while attending Marin high schools under the auspices of the American Field Service.

Miss Lenore Kurle of San Rafael was Epsilon Zeta representative at Delta Kappa Gamma Regional Conference, Feb. 25, at the Joaquin Miller School, Oakland. In keeping with the year's theme "Understanding Unfamiliar Cultures," Miss Frances Bachetti of Alameda moderated a panel discussion on "Delta Kappa Gamma Meets the Changes in a New World."

Luncheon was served in L'Horizon Room at Hotel Claremont, Berkeley.

Today is Monday, April 3, the 93rd day of the year with 272 more in 1961.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The evening stars are Venus and Mars

The morning stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1873, Washington Irving, creator of Rip Van Winkle and Ichabod Crane, was born.

In 1870, the Pony Express mail service was inaugurated.

In 1882, famed outlaw Jesse James was shot and killed in St. Joseph, Mo.

In 1948, the Foreign Assistance Act created the European recovery program.

A thought for today: Washington Irving said: "Whenever a man's friends begin to compliment him about looking young, he may be sure they think he is growing old."

THE PARENTS' CORNER

Guidance Counselor

Child's Seventh Year Generally A Pleasant One For The Parents

Do you have a 7-year-old? Then you're lucky for 7 is a nice year. Let's take a look.

Your 7-year-old is apt to be toothless in front but the gaps are part of his charm. Don't tease him about his teeth or make him self-conscious. Just enjoy what happens when he grins.

Probably he is talkative and asks a hundred questions an hour. I hope you try to answer him. Listen carefully. Reply seriously. He'll remember what you say because he's anxious to learn.

Your 7-year-old depends on you. He has his gangs, but their membership changes daily. Next year he'll belong to a more permanent gang whose standards he'll adopt. He'll fight, lie, and steal if his pals admire such behavior. But at 7 he usually tries to be the kind of a boy you want him to be. He trusts your judgment more than his own. He's fun to have around. You can teach him important lessons without half trying.

Of course he makes mistakes. Often he is selfish and quarrelsome. He is impulsive. He can be rude. But if you tell him what is wrong he'll try to improve. He needs to learn how to work and play with others which his teachers will help him to do. He'll benefit from belonging to church groups, and to character building organizations. If your neighborhood doesn't offer Cub Scouts for boys, and either Blue Birds or Brownies for girls, get busy. Also make sure he has many chances to enjoy appropriate church activities. Good luck!

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "My son is 17. He and the others in his gang have started smoking. I've restricted him, but it does no good. What shall I do next?"

Mrs. J.

(A) Teach him the facts. There seems to be a relationship between cigarette smoking and cancer which he should know about. Beyond that it is up to him. You cannot supervise every moment of his life.

JEEPNEYS—Old U. S. armed forces jeeps, converted into small buses, swarm over a Manila street. Called "jeepneys," they are a chief form of commuter transport in the Philippines capital.

Ancient Jeeps Are Manila's 'Rapid Transit'

MANILA (AP) — There's no such thing in Manila as a 7:15 bus to catch on the way to the office. Nor is there a 5:15 for the homeward trip.

Just go to the nearest street corner. There's always a ride to be had there—provided you are not the complaining type.

Frequently, it's get aboard and hang on. There's no telling when you'll get to where you're going or whether you'll get there at all. And, worse still, there's no guarantee you'll be in one piece when you do arrive.

Surprising thing about it all, though, is that after riding in such hectic pace and fashion all these years you've not a scratch or a bone broken.

Which points up Manila's public transportation system as probably being one of the most reckless, undisciplined and irresponsible in the world.

Buses and "Jeepneys" make up the system. The latter are U.S. Armed Forces World War II jeeps converted to hold eight passengers behind the driver and two more alongside him.

Jeepneys far outnumber buses in Manila. Figures compiled by the Manila Traffic Bureau for the first six months of 1960 show they total 13,330.

Both bus and jeepney are assigned specific routes in the city by the Public Service Commission under what are called "certificates of public convenience." Among other things, operators are authorized by these certificates to charge a minimum fare of five cents and provide such improvements on their vehicles as would enhance the convenience and comfort of the riding public.

Mere words. To jeepney operators especially, profit comes first, improvements second and public convenience last, as a general rule.

Woefully undermanned, commission enforcement of the terms of the certificates is indifferent. Operators couldn't care less and are willing to discourage such enforcement. Improvements cost money, and, after all, the contraption is still in good running condition.

Take the bus stops erected by the city's civic organizations at street corners designated by the police department. To jeepney, and occasionally bus, drivers they are merely structures along the route they ply, ignored and even resented. They are made use of only when a traffic policeman is around. Most of the time, passengers are picked up or let off right in the middle of the road.

If life in the city is hectic, it's probably made doubly so with every ride in one of Manila's speeding buses or jeepneys. An American old-timer and ex-cowpoke from Montana once said he was glad he was always up to date in his insurance payments or he wouldn't have had the courage to ride on Manila's jeepneys.

The poor riding public has no other choice but to take a taxi or walk. Manila has neither street-cars nor a subway system.

"NEWSPAPERS HAVE BECOME OUR STRONG ADVERTISING ARM"

so says T. R. Lynn, Vice-President in charge of Sales, F. W. Woolworth Co.

For the past few years, the F. W. Woolworth Company has been concentrating most of its advertising effort in the daily newspapers. "Newspapers have become our strong advertising arm, the muscle of which has grown from 400,000 lines in 1957 to upwards of 30,000,000 lines this year," recently said Mr. T. R. Lynn, vice-president in charge of sales. "We've come to respect the flexibility of newspapers, the timeliness of their news—not the least important of which, we like to feel, is the news of today's values at Woolworth's."

This evaluation can be echoed by many other prominent advertisers who have rediscovered the basic advantage of daily newspapers—that newspapers sell products. In today's market, advertisers need a medium that delivers maximum coverage and can be tailored to fit the advertiser's budget, deadline, selling and marketing requirements. That's why in 1960 advertisers invested more money in newspaper advertising than in radio, television, magazine and outdoor advertising combined!

TAX FACTS

Audit Doesn't Mean You Owe More

By PETER J. WIKEL, CPA

When you receive a notice from the Internal Revenue Service that your return is being audited, it does not always mean that you owe more tax.

Peter J. Wikel

There are three levels, within the Internal Revenue Service, at which an agreement may be reached. The first is the audit by a revenue agent, the second is an informal conference with a conferee, and the third is the appellate division.

If you cannot come to an agreement, then you are entitled to a hearing before the tax court before you must pay any additional tax.

An office audit is generally handled by correspondence, although, if you are located near the office you may be asked to come in.

Field audits are made by agents who visit you in person. The agent always carries identification.

The revenue agent's audit is the first level and when he has finished he will discuss with you any adjustments he proposes to make. If you are satisfied you should sign the waiver which will show the increase or decrease in your tax liability.

If you do not agree with all of the revenue agent's proposed adjustments, you should not sign the waiver. Instead, tell him you want an "informal conference." The agent will prepare and mail to you a form showing the adjustments proposed by him. This form will show the name, address, and phone number of the person with whom an informal conference can be requested. You should contact that person and arrange for a conference.

You do not have to accept the findings of the auditor, or the conferee, or the appellate division, although you should exhaust these possibilities before going to the tax court.

Architect To Expound Philosophy Tomorrow On 'Career' Series

EDWARD DURELL STONE
Architecture is beauty

"I feel that the architect's responsibility is to create a beautiful environment for man . . . No architecture exists, really, unless it is beautiful . . . I don't consider a building that simply performs a utilitarian function to be architecture."

That is the philosoph of Edward Durell Stone, the man who designed the striking circular U.S. Pavilion for the World's Fair in Brussels, the U. S. Embassy in New Delhi, India, and, closer to home, such buildings as the Palo Alto-Stanford Medical Center.

He'll expand on his views when he discusses architecture as a career with a panel of Stanford University students tomorrow night on KPIX's excellent "Career" series, seen weekly on Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m.

It is the series created by John E. Upston, former Marinite and son of the late Maj. Gen. John E. Upston, commanding general of the Fourth Air Force at Hamilton Air Force Base from 1948 to 1950.

KTVU IS JUSTLY proud of its "Great Music From Chicago" series, and tomorrow night's concert starting at 9 o'clock is especially deserving of the attention of lovers of fine music.

The late Sir Thomas Beecham will be seen conducting the Chicago Symphony Orchestra in a program that will include Mendelsohn's "Fingal's Cave," "On the River" from Delius' "Florida Suite," Saint-Saen's "Omphale's Spinning Wheel" and Handel's "Love in Bath Suite."

It marked the last television appearance—and one of the final public appearances of any kind—by Sir Thomas prior to his death.

"SPELLBOUND," the excellent 1945 movie starring Ingrid Bergman and Gregory Peck, will open a four-night run in the 11:15 time spot on KPIX tonight, while KGO will begin a week-long series of the old "Thin Man" pictures with William Powell and Myrna Loy in its 11 o'clock slot. Otherwise, TV fare tonight will be routine.

Things will pick up tomorrow night with an encore showing, at 10 o'clock on KRON, of the "Project 20" production, "The Innocent Years." The show reviews the period from 1900 to 1917. Personalities such as Theodore Roosevelt, Woodrow Wilson, Mark Twain, Lillian Russell, Thomas Edison, Mary Pickford and Charlie Chaplin are seen in rare film footage found in vaults of long deceased newsreel companies, in Hollywood studio libraries, and in private and government archives. Included is some footage which farsighted film-makers, aware that their nitrate film would soon decompose, preserved on paper rolls.

Come Wednesday, 7 p.m., KQED will launch a new show especially aimed at milady. Entitled "Fashion Game," it will feature Jane Winthrop, San Francisco advertising woman and fashion leader, and Vivian Thorne, fashion illustrator, exploring the whys and wiles of high style. Also on Wednesday: A new "spy" series with European backgrounds, "Danger Man," bows in at 8:30 on KPIX, and the "United States Steel Hour" pairs Hans Conried and Faye Emerson in the comedy, "The Odd-Ball," at 10 o'clock on KPIX.

TV Debate Slated On Aid To Schools

A Lutheran and a Roman Catholic will debate the federal aid to private school issue on television Thursday evening.

Dr. Oswald Hoffman, director of public relations for the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, will present the negative point of view, that there should not be federal aid to private (church) schools. Dr. Hoffman is also the speaker for the national program, "The Lutheran Hour."

His opponent, taking the affirmative position, will be Very Rev. Frederick G. Hochwalt, director of the Department of Education of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

The program will be shown on KPIX (Channel 5) at 10 p.m.

SUNDAY SERMON

Resurrection Is Fact, Congregation Told

"And whether we take that fact from the point of view of history, said Father Leonard, "or from the point of view of our faith, there is joy and peace and warmth and consolation in the fact — He is risen, as He promised—He did not fail us. From the point of view of history, the resurrection of Christ is the real strong proof that Christ is exactly what He claimed Himself to be, not merely a Divine Messenger but the proper Son of God, God Almightly Himself. During His three years of public life Christ claimed from time to time that He was divine, the very Son of God. When asked for incontestable and convincing proof of that claim, Christ referred His questioners in a veiled way to His resurrection from the grave.

"Destroy this temple (He referred to the temple of His body) and in three days I will build it up again," he said.

He proved that claim, said the priest, and "that proof we have the reason for our great Easter joy and peace and consolation.

"... We profess and believe that the resurrection of Christ from the grave is the guarantee of our own resurrection and the pledge of an enless life in happiness and in union with Him in the world to come.

"It is our belief, in the teaching of our Church, that in Holy Communion we received the Glorious Risen Christ and by virtue of that reception are joined to Christ in a union that is unspeakably deep and intimate. It is more that the conventional union that exists between the members of a particular society—it is closer even than the blood union that binds together all members of one family. This union that we have with Christ is an internal and vital union that is so deep that we don't attempt to define it but rather to describe it in illustrations that have been given to us by Christ Himself.

"In the union of Communion we become, as it were, one living being with Christ (the docrine of the mystical body), one great organized body of which Christ is the Head and we are the members.

"Christ tells us Himself: 'I am the Vine , you are the branches.' "

Now, knowing that Christ is risen from the dead, declared Father Leonard, "... we are united to that Risen Head and so close and vital is the union that our own resurrection is guaranteed by it."

"That is what we mean, concluded Father Leonard, "when we say that the resurrection of Christ is the guarentee of our own resurrection and in that belief we find our measure of true Easter peace and joy."

The United States Bank was chartered by an Act of Congress in 1791.

Jewish Leaders For Fund Picked

The Jewish Welfare Federation has named three Marin residents to top leadership posts in its 1961 fund-raising campaign.

Marin division chairman Lawrence Goldberg announced appointment of Maurice Koch as chairman of business solicitation, Dr. Martin Brownstein as head of the professional division, and Mrs. Harry Yaffee as residential chairman.

Funds raised by the federation help support 34 health and welfare programs locally, nationally and overseas, Goldberg said. Among the federation's local beneficiaries is the Marin Jewish Community Center.

Building Permits Won't Reflect Construction Picture Bright Side

A bright side to the Marin construction picture emphasized by C. Douglas Roberts, manager of the Marin Builders Exchange, is one that will not be reflected in the light of building permits issued for the first quarter of this year, encouraging though it may be.

Says Roberts: A tremendous amount of large construction has already gone to bid—particularly since Feb. 1 — for which no building permits have been issued or sought, although much of the work will be in progress in the next few months.

Also, some of the pending jobs include more than the usual amount of activity at Hamilton Air Force Base—probably in the neighborhood of $225,000 —for repairing dining halls, replacing shops, hospital repairs and construction of base storage facilities.

School construction will run heavy. Projects pending include $395,000 for the San Jose elementary schools, $638,000 for Terra Linda High School; additions to Santa Margarita School, $133,810; Novato High School addition, $78,000; Don Timoteo School, $255,000, and the Del Mar School, about $200,000 (though the latter is not yet firm).

Here are a few others:

Coast Guard family housing on Angel Island, $90,000; Sisters of Nazareth rest home in Terra Linda, $859,000; new Marin Municipal Water District office building in Fifer Industrial Park, Corte Madera, $743,000; San Rafael sewage plant, $126,000; Marin General Hospital addition, $52,000; San Anselmo Public Library addition, $52,000, and enlarging of the Wells Fargo-American Trust Co in San Anselmo, $50,000.

Now up for bid are additions to the Lagunitas School in San Geronimo and the Trinity Lutheran Church in San Rafael, and the second phase of the chapel at San Quentin Prison.

All these, once the work is under way, Roberts opines, should make Marin County a very busy place.

MARIN MASONRY, INC., 663 Irwin Street, San Rafael, has just been appointed distributor for two native Northwest building stones making their first introduction into the California market by Stone Center, Inc. of Portland, Ore.

Both come in rubble form and are adaptable for commercial and residential uses as exterior surfacing and for interior design.

August Pierucci, president of Marin Masonry says that "Hawaiian Travertine" is a porous-type material ranging in high colors from yellow through orange and red. By contrast, "Moon Mesa" is a smooth stone with a mellow, bluish-gray tint. Both, he believes will become popular among builders.

HERMAN DEITCH of Corte Madera, former sales manager at E. Bugna, San Rafael, has given up autos and is now with Marvelous Marin Realty Co., 1027 C Street. He's new to the field but intends to make it permanent.

Two New Plans To Help You Meet Medical Expenses!

One out of every eight Americans will go to the hospital this year. The high costs of hospitalization and surgical fees can be ruinous to the average family budget. To help you meet these costs, Metropolitan has introduced two new policies for both individuals and families.

One, for people 55 and under, is the "Paid Up at 65" Plan. This important new plan not only provides coverage during your working period, but also introduces modified coverage after age 65, and continuing for life, without further payment of premiums.

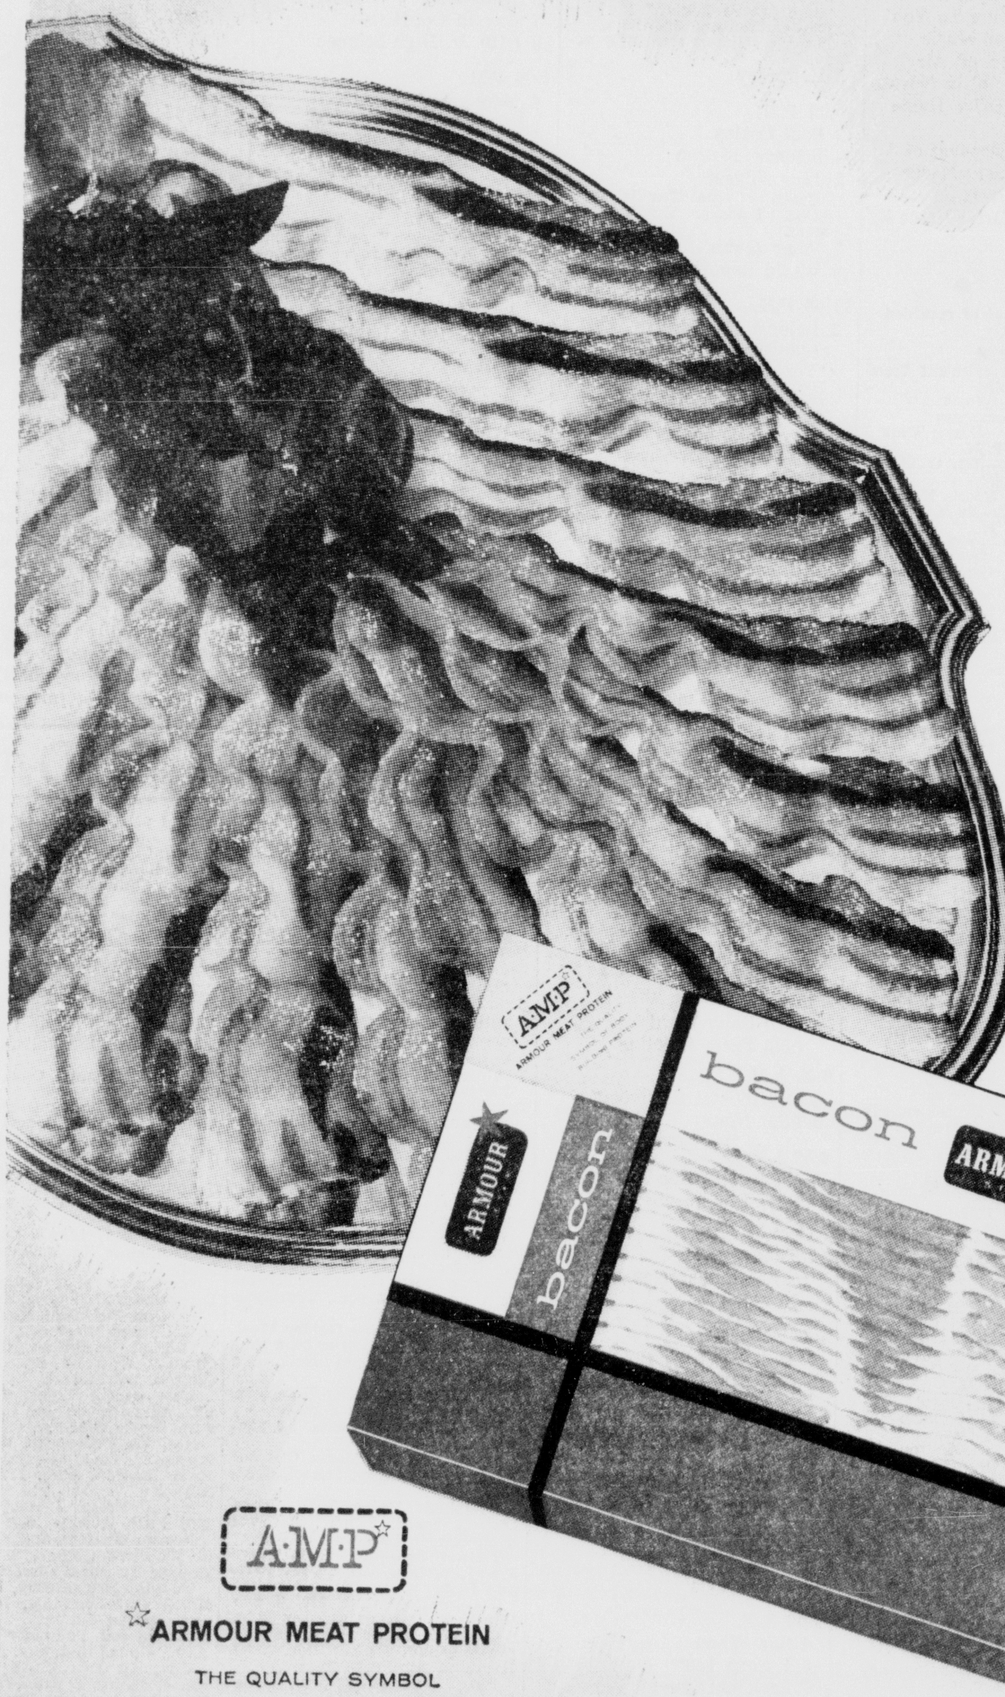

For older folks, there is also a new Metropolitan P'olicy which can be purchased up to age 75 and continued throughout life. This new plan will help ease the burden of medical expenses for people of all ages who prefer a lower premium plan.

Both of these new plans are guaranteed renewable. However, the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company may adjust the premiums on such policies as a class.

Call or write today for the details of these two new Metropolitan Plans.
